Credential Requests

In order to qualify for a credential, an applicant must be a full-time, salaried employee of the recognized news organization that is requesting the credential. Please direct all credential requests to Steve Snapp, Director of Athletics Communications. Requests should be made in writing and on company letterhead and can be faxed to (614) 292-8547 or e-mailed to Snapp.1@osu.edu. Confirmation of your request will be made upon receipt. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Ohio State football. Every effort will be made to fill each request, but because of limited space, some requests will be denied. Credentials are for adult use only and are non-transferrable.

John Cooper chats with ABC's Lynn Swann before an Ohio State home game.

Road Requests

Please direct all credential requests for Ohio State's road games to the host school's sports information director.

More On Credentials

Single-game passes will be mailed to the opposing team's sports information director for distribution one week before the game. All other single-game passes will be held for pick-up in the Northwest Rotunda of the Jerome Schottenstein Center (located at the corner of Lane Ave. and Olentangy River Rd.) and will be available beginning four hours before kick-off. To pick up credentials at the Jerome Schottenstein Center, access Arena Drive from either Fred Taylor Drive or Lane Avenue and park along the curb immediately north of the building.

Ohio Stadium Press Box

The Ohio State Press Box is on the west side of Ohio Stadium. The Press Box elevator is located between Gates 19 and 21. Members of the media should enter the stadium through Gate 21 and take the elevator to the "P-2" level. The Press Box opens three hours before kick-off and remains open as long as necessary following the game.

Parking Passes

Because of the on-going construction around Ohio Stadium, the primary media parking lot this year will again be the Sisson Lot, which is located across the Olentangy River, west of the Stadium, and is accessed via Coffey Road off Woody Hayes Drive. Please display your pass prominently once in the campus area. Traffic officers on duty will direct you to your designated lot.

Phone Lines

A limited number of telephones are available in the Press Box on a first-come, first served basis. These phones are available only after the game is over. Writers on deadline or broadcasters filing actualities may wish to order their own line. To do so, call University Phone Services at (614) 292-8648.

Photographers

Photo credentials are issued to daily newspapers, wire services and special periodical publications. Those persons requesting photo credentials will receive a letter of authorization that must be exchanged at the base of the Press Box elevator for an armband. Armbands are to be worn on the arm at all times and are good for access to the Press Box before and after the game and at halftime, but not during the game. Photographers are asked to kneel on the sideline and to stay behind the 12-foot restraining line and out of the bench area.

Radio Reports

Non-broadcasting stations that receive credentials for the game are restricted to 60-second reports between quarters and at the half. Live reports while the game is in progress are not permitted. This policy also applies to Ohio State's away games. Violators of this policy will have their credentials revoked.

Player Interviews

At the head coach's request, all Ohio State player interviews must be arranged through the Athletics Communications Office. We expect and appreciate the cooperation of all members of the media in this matter. Generally speaking, Ohio State players will be available two days a week for the local media, usually Mondays, following Coach Cooper's luncheon, and Wednesdays after practice. Special interviews will be accommodated whenever possible, depending upon the player's availability. Ohio State players will return calls to out-of-town media on Tuesday and Wednesday between 7-9 p.m. EST. We ask the cooperation of the media in not phoning the players at home or interviewing them at times other than the designated interview times.

Assistant Coaches' Interviews

Interviews with Ohio State assistant coaches will be 2 p.m. Mondays at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center. Interviews over the phone should be arranged through Steve Snapp.

Practices

The Ohio State football team practices at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center on Olentangy River Road. All practices are closed to the media, however, the first 30 minutes (3:30-4 p.m.) of each Tuesday practice will be open for filming and photography needs.

Postgame Procedures

Ohio State maintains a closed locker room policy at home and on the road. In both instances, Coach Cooper will address the media first, followed by requested Ohio State players. The head coaches' postgame interviews take place simultaneously in Ohio Stadium. Typed quotes from both interviews are available in the press box. Members of the media will be escorted to the postgame interview area of their choice by a member of the OSU Athletics Communications Office.

The Bowl Championship Series

The Bowls and the Teams

The BCS consists of the Rose Bowl, Nokia Sugar Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The conferences with automatic berths include the Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and Southeastern conferences.

ABC-TV will televise the four Bowl Championship Series games.

Eligibility

Any Division I-A independent team or champion of the Western Athletic Conference, Conference USA, Mountain West Conference or any other Division I-A conference which is ranked No. 6 or higher in the BCS standings, also will be eligible for the Bowl Championship Series.

Otherwise, any Division I-A team can qualify for selection in the BCS if it has won at least nine football games during the most recently completed regular season (not to include wins in exempted games) and is ranked in the Top 12 of the final Bowl Championship Series standings.

Also, beginning with the 1999 regular season, each BCS conference became subject to review and possible loss of automatic selection by the BCS should the conference champion not have an average ranking of 12 or higher over a four-year period.

Team Selection

The BCS uses regional consideration regarding team selection. Specifically, as a member of the BCS, the Rose Bowl will host the Big Ten and Pac-10 champions in those years in which either the Rose Bowl does not have the national championship game or the Big Ten and Pac-10 champion is not ranked No. 1 or No. 2. Other "regional consideration" tie-ins include the SEC champion in the Sugar Bowl, the ACC or Big East champion in the Orange Bowl and the Big 12 champion in the Fiesta Bowl.

The Hardware

The Waterford Crystal football that sits atop the Sears Trophy takes an artisan three months to create. The Sears Trophy is part of the Sears Collegiate Champions program – a comprehensive trophy and academic scholarship program which recognizes both women's and men's sports equally.

Sears, Roebuck and Co. and the AFCA also present a $20,000 academic scholarship to the school that wins the Sears Trophy. The scholarship is earmarked for an outstanding freshman who does not participate in intercollegiate athletics. In total, more than 2,200 trophies and more than a quarter of a million dollars in academic scholarships are awarded to NCAA Division I, II, III and NAIA institutions annually.

Stunning to look at, the Sears Trophy is hand-crafted by Waterford Crystal and insured for $30,000.

Season Notes And Outlook

This is Ohio State's 111th season of intercollegiate football. The Buckeyes own an all-time record of 717-283-53. Ohio State, which began football play in 1890 with a modest 1-3 record, is now one of just seven schools with 700 or more wins.

The Big Ten

Ohio State joined the Big Ten in 1912, but did not begin league play until the following year (1913). OSU posted a 1-2 record in its first season in the Big Ten, falling to Indiana (7-6) and at Wisconsin (12-0), before closing out the season with a 58-0 win over Northwestern. The Buckeyes have gone on to post an all-time league record of 390-149-24 and have captured 28 league championships.

The Head Coach

John Cooper is now in his 13th year at the helm of the Buckeyes. Only Woody Hayes (28 years) and John Wilce (16) enjoyed longer tenures at Ohio State. Only Hayes (205) has more wins than Cooper (103).

Coaching Changes

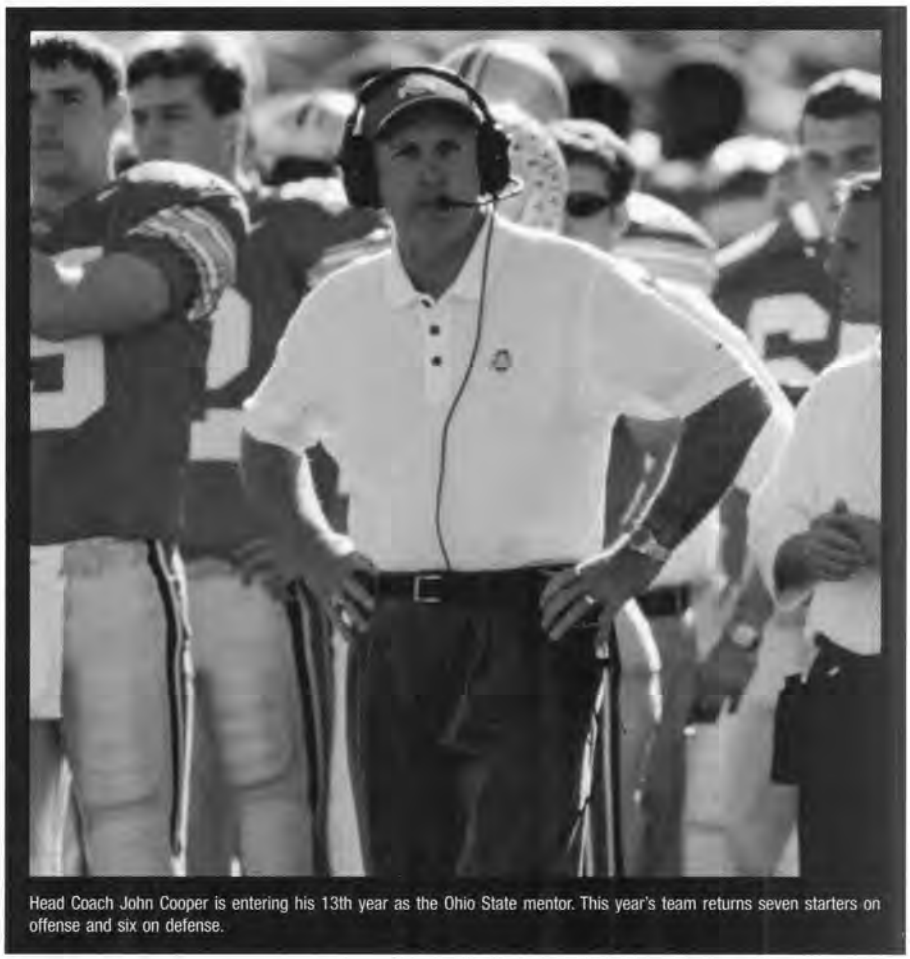
Cooper made a number of staff changes following last season. Fred Pagac was elevated from defensive coordinator to assistant head coach. Jon Tenuta was promoted to defensive coordinator and will continue to coach the secondary. Jim Heacock will continue to coach the defensive tackles and has been given the added responsibility of coaching the defensive ends. Brian Williams, who coached at the University of Pittsburgh last year, will take over as linebackers coach. On offense, Chuck Stobart was promoted to offensive coordinator. Tim Salem will continue to coach the quarterbacks and also will now coach the wide receivers. George Belu, who last year coached at Wake Forest, was hired as the Buckeyes' new offensive line coach. Greg Bellisari, who played for the Buckeyes from 1993 to 1996, will serve as a graduate assistant coach this fall. He will work with the defense.

Number Changes

Offensive tackle Adrien Clarke, who wore No. 62 last year, will wear No. 63.

Position Changes

LeCharles Bentley who spent time at offensive guard and tackle last year, was moved to center in the spring and will be the starter in the fall. Other spring switches included linebacker Tim Cheatwood to tight end, and defensive tackle Joe Brown to defensive end.



Head Coach John Cooper is entering his 13th year as the Ohio State mentor. This year's team returns seven starters on offense and six on defense.

Medical Report

The Buckeyes came out of spring practice relatively injury free. Defensive tackle Ryan Pickett did undergo minor surgery on his left shoulder in early April, but is expected to be fully recovered in the fall. Fred Pagac Jr., who sat out the last half of last year after breaking his leg against Wisconsin, practiced in the spring and will be full-go in the fall. Wide receiver Darik Warnke, who has suffered a series of concussions the past two years, will remain on scholarship, but will not play this year. Offensive lineman Ben Pulfer, bothered by a series of ACL injuries to both knees, has given up football, but will remain in school and on scholarship.

Transfers

Defensive end Julius Yeast (So., Harrodsburg, Ky.) and offensive tackle Matt Zahn (Fr., St. Henry, Ohio) left school during spring quarter and will not play in the fall. Quarterback Austin Moherman (Mission Viejo, Calif.) transferred to Murray State following the 1999 season.

In-State Rivalries

The game this year with Miami marks the fourth-consecutive season in which the Buckeyes have played an Ohio school. Future OSU schedules have in-state schools scheduled through 2005.

All-America Notes

The Buckeyes go into the 2000 season with a string of nine-consecutive seasons in which they have produced at least one first-team All-America (Linebacker Na'il Diggs kept that string alive last year by being named to the Football News' first team). The list of honors candidates this year include, LeCharles Bentley at center, Jamar Martin at fullback, Ken-Yon Rambo at flanker, Mike Collins and Ryan

Pickett at defensive tackle, Nate Clements at cornerback and Mike Doss at safety.

Heisman Anniversaries

This year marks the 25th anniversary of Archie Griffin receiving his second Heisman Trophy and the 50th anniversary of Vic Janowicz winning that award in 1950. Griffin, who won his first Heisman as a junior in 1974, is still college football's only two-time winner of the award. Janowicz also was a junior at the time he received college football's most coveted individual prize.

Stadium Update

The project to preserve and renovate Ohio Stadium is in its second year and will be completed in time for the 2001 season. Notable changes this year include the lowering of the field (14'6"), a permanent south stands, 19 new rows on the east side of "C" Deck, 10 new rows ("AA" Deck) around the lower bowl, a new scoreboard (30'X90' screen) with instant replay capabilities, additional handicapped seating and new restrooms in "A" Deck and on the east side of "C" Deck. This $187 million project is being financed without any tax, state or university money, including student tuition increases. Eighty-two hospitality suites and 2,500 club seats (both of which will be completed in time for the 2001 season) will finance 80 percent of the project. The remaining 20 percent will come from increased ticket and concessions revenue.

Schedule Highlights

The 1950 and 1975 Ohio State teams will celebrate reunions at the Homecoming Game (Minnesota, Oct. 14). Additionally, Alumni Band Day is scheduled for Sept. 2 (Fresno State) and Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame Day for Sept. 16 (Miami, Ohio).

Season Outlook

John Cooper is confident that last year was an anomaly. After winning 43 games between 1995 and 1998 and twice finishing second in the national polls in that four-year span, Ohio State finished with an uncharacteristic 6-6 record in 1999.

It is worth noting, however, that all six of those losses were to teams that went on to play in bowl games, and that four of the setbacks were on the road. Additionally, the Buckeyes lost record-setting quarterback Joe Germaine and All-Americans Rob Murphy, David Boston, Antoine Winfield and Andy Katzenmoyer following the 1998 season.

Given the scope of those departures and a disappointing opening-game setback to Miami (Fla.) in the Kickoff Classic, the Buckeyes never developed the consistency, either offensively or defensively, that a championship team has to have.

But Cooper, now in his 13th year at the helm of the Buckeyes, expects his team to bounce back in 2000.

"None of us are happy with last year," he said. "Not the players, not the coaches. Our goal is to get this program back to the top of the Big Ten standings and to compete for the title. And even though the Big Ten will be extremely competitive again this year, I think that goal is realistic."

Much of Cooper's optimism is based on what he witnessed in winter conditioning and then in spring practice.

"I really like the attitude of this team," he said. "These guys have worked hard since the end of last season. It's kind of a blue-collar mentality. Everyone is really pulling together. There is a closeness to this group. They want to be better."

The continued progress of 6-foot-3-inch, 220-pound junior Steve Bellisari at quarterback and the maturation of the offensive line are two of the keys to success.

"A year ago, we went into the season not knowing who our quarterback was," Cooper said. "Steve is 'The Man' now and everyone knows it. He has a year of experience under his belt and that should make a big difference."

Under new offensive coordinator Chuck Stobart, the Buckeyes' wide receivers coach the past five years, the OSU offense has undergone a number of subtle changes, including the introduction of an option package to take advantage of Bellisari's considerable athletic talents.

"We want to get Steve out on the corner and spread the defense," said Stobart. "He is most effective that way."

"We may have tried to hit too many home runs last year," Cooper said. "Maybe, we need to hit more singles and doubles."

Bellisari has a pair of talented receivers to throw to in split end Reggie Germany and flanker Ken-Yon Rambo, both seniors. He also has two quality running backs in senior speedster Derek Combs at tailback and junior blockbuster Jamar Martin at fullback.

But as any football fan knows, football games are won and lost in the trenches. That is why so much attention was devoted to the offensive line during spring drills.

"We want to play Ohio State football this fall. That means lining up and running the ball when we want to run it and controlling the line of scrimmage," Cooper said. "Our emphasis in the spring was on being tougher, both mentally and physically, up front."

The Buckeyes also have a new defensive coordinator in Jon Tenuta. Don't look for any major changes from the fiery Tenuta, who like his predecessor, Fred Pagac (who will still call the plays on game day), believes in pressure defense.

"Our philosophy hasn't changed," Tenuta said. "We will still play man-to-man and get after you every chance we get. We want to keep pressure on the other team and force them into bad plays and turnovers. We didn't force enough turnovers last year. Good defenses need to make big plays and get their offense back on the field."

While the defensive line appears to be set, depth at linebacker and in the secondary is a concern.

"Those are two areas where our incoming freshmen may have to help," Cooper said. "We won't hesitate to play young players there if we think they can help us."

In the kicking department, senior Dan Stultz returns to handle the placements, but the team still must find a punter. Additionally, Cooper would like to see more out of the return game.

"We need to step up our production in that area this year," he said. "Field position wins games."

The Buckeyes open the season Sept. 2 by hosting Fresno State, then travel to Arizona before returning home to host Miami (Ohio). The Big Ten season starts Sept. 23 when Penn State visits Columbus. The following week, OSU travels to Wisconsin to take on the defending Big Ten Champion Badgers.

Cooper is hoping his team, which returns six offensive and seven defensive starters, can gel early and build confidence heading into the conference schedule.

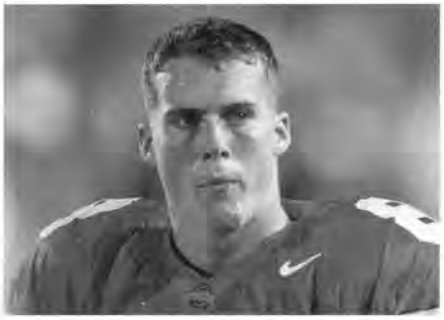
"We are a young team in a lot of ways, so we need to get off to a good start and feel good about ourselves," Cooper, who has a total of 40 letter winners returning, said.

The Buckeyes were one of college football's most successful teams in the 1990s. They would like nothing more than to continue their winning ways as the millennium unfolds.

Quarterback

Coach - Tim Salem
Key Returnees - Steve Bellisari
Key Losses - Austin Moherman

Junior Steve Bellisari started the final 10 games of last year and is firmly entrenched as the starter. He is the Buckeyes' leading returning passer and rusher, throwing for 1,616 yards and 12 touchdowns last year, while scrambling for 332 yards and a pair of six pointers in an up-and-down first season as a starter. But the resilient signal caller survived his baptism under fire in 1999 and appears ready to lead the Buckeyes into the millennium. Certainly no one can doubt his athleticism or will to win. And it is the coaches' hope that a new offense, designed to get him out on the corner and spread the defense, will allow him to excel.



The real question at quarterback revolves around the No. 2 spot. Both Craig Krenzel and Scott McMullen, a pair of redshirt sophomores, had good springs, but neither emerged as the clear-cut backup. Look for that spirited competition to continue in the fall. Both are talented athletes with strong, accurate arms. Krenzel had the edge early, but McMullen's impressive performance in the spring game enhanced his status.

Steve Bellisari is the Buckeyes' top returning passer and rusher.

Tailback

Coach - Tim Spencer
Key Returnees - Derek Combs, Jonathan Wells, Jerry Westbrooks
Key Losses - Michael Wiley

The departure of senior Michael Wiley leaves the Buckeyes without a proven performer at tailback for the first time in several years. Wiley carried the ball 183 times for 952 yards and 10 touchdowns last year. His three backups – Jonathan Wells, Derek Combs and Jerry Westbrooks – totaled 111 carries, 535 yards and seven touchdowns between them.

Derek Combs, a former Associated Press Mr. Ohio, rushed for 100-yards in the first quarter of the spring game.

Based on spring practice, Combs, a 6-0, 197-pound senior, will inherit the torch from Wiley. Probably the fastest of the three candidates, Combs, who prepped at nearby Grove City High School and was the Associated Press' Mr. Ohio as a senior when he averaged over 9.5 yards a carry, was the Buckeyes' most consistent back in the spring. In addition to blazing speed, he also is an outstanding receiver. Those qualities, coupled with his 100-yard rushing performance in the first quarter of the spring game, locked up the starting position for him. He also is the most experienced of the three, with 26 games to his credit.

Wells, a 6-1, 230-pound junior, averaged a team-best 5.7 yards per carry last year (51 carries). His 76-yard run at Michigan was the Buckeyes' longest in 1999. Westbrooks, a 6-2, 231-pound senior, averaged 4.1 yards per carry in limited action (17 attempts) last season. In addition to excellent size, both have outstanding speed. Both will play extensively in the fall. History has proven there is no such thing as too many good tailbacks in the Big Ten.

Jerry Westbrooks came on strong during Spring drills and will see plenty of action this year.

Jonathan Wells gives the Buckeyes speed and power.

Fullback

Coach - Tim Spencer
Key Returnees - Jamar Martin and Nate Stead
Key Losses - Matt Keller

Those prototypical Ohio State fullbacks of the past – Matt Snell, Bob Ferguson, Willard Sander, Jim Otis, Pete Johnson and Vaughn Broadnax, who could carry five defenders into the end zone and single-handedly wipe out three players with one block – may have met their match in Jamar Martin.

Martin, a 6-0, 245-pound junior, started six games at fullback last year, when senior Matt Keller was injured. But Martin won't share time with anyone this year. He's much too valuable. Clearly one of the Buckeyes up-and-coming stars, Martin will be more involved in the OSU offense this year, both as a runner and as a blocker. Martin carried the ball 19 times and averaged 5.3 yards per carry last year. He also scored two touchdowns – one rushing and one receiving. Look for all those numbers to go up this year.

Martin has two capable understudies in Nate Stead and Jesse Kline. Stead, a 5-10, 255-pound sophomore, saw brief action in four games last year and was used mostly as a blocker. Kline (6-1, 227) was redshirted last year as a freshman. He played well in the spring and is a skilled football player. The coaches will not hesitate to use either Stead or Kline if need be, making this one of the Buckeyes' deepest positions.

Jamar Martin will have more opportunities to carry the ball as the starting fullback.

Offensive Line

Coach - George Belu
Key Returnees - LT Tyson Walter, C LeCharles Bentley, RT Henry Fleming
Key Losses - RG Ben Gilbert, C Kurt Murphy

Tackles Tyson Walter and Henry Fleming, along with converted center LeCharles Bentley, give first-year OSU line coach George Belu a solid nucleus to build around.

Walter, a 6-5, 300-pound senior, has made 37-consecutive starts at left tackle and is the Buckeyes' most experienced player at any position. He is a heady player, with the ability to dominate.

Fleming, also a senior, has played in a total of 27 games. The 6-6, 305-pounder started for the first time last year and showed steady improvement throughout the season. A rigorous offseason strength program should enhance his consistency.

Bentley has a chance to be very special. The 6-2, 290-pound junior started seven games last year, six of those at left guard. He was moved to center in the spring, replacing two-year regular Kurt Murphy, and quickly adapted to his new position. He is quick, tough and savvy. Before the season is over, he may be the best center in all of college football.

Tyson Walter is the Buckeyes' most experienced offensive lineman.

Mike Gurr and Tam Hopkins, both seniors, are expected to round out the offensive line. Gurr will move in at Bentley's left guard spot. Hopkins takes over for three-year regular Ben Gilbert at right guard.

The 6-7, 290-pound Gurr started the first five games of 1999 and played in all 12. He also played in all 12 games as a sophomore. Hopkins (6-5, 305) has been a key reserve the past two years, playing in a total of 28 games. He started the Michigan game last year.

A number of other players will play key roles, including 6-4, 325-pound Adrien Clarke, a promising young redshirt freshman. Clarke emerged from spring practice as the No. 2 right tackle, but he has the athletic ability to also play inside, so it will not be a total surprise to see him help out at guard from time-to-time. Junior Jim Massey will provide depth at tackle, as will senior Eric Smith and sophomore Scott Kuhnhein at the guard spots. Bryce Bishop, ineligible last year, also hopes to make an impact. He was one of the nation's top high school prospects two years ago.

The Buckeyes have good size and athleticism. Depth is a concern, so expect Bishop and some of the true freshmen to get the chance to prove themselves early. Belu will be watching closely to see how the group develops as a unit.

LeCharles Bentley will make the move from starting guard to center this year.

Big Henry Fleming will bolster the right side of the offensive line.

Tight End

Coach - Bill Conley
Key Returnees - Darnell Sanders
Key Losses - Kevin Houser, Steve Wisniewski

Steve Wisnewski started nine games last year and played a total of 158 minutes. Kevin Houser started the other three and logged 187 minutes. Both players have graduated, meaning the Buckeyes, for the second year in a row, are looking for a new starter.

Darnell Sanders and Ben Hartsock are the leading contenders for the job. Sanders is a 6-6, 265-pound, third-year sophomore. He played in 11 games last year, but much of his playing time came with the special teams. Hartsock, a 6-3, 250-pound freshman, was redshirted last year and is highly regarded by the OSU coaching staff.

Sanders goes into the fall No. 1 on the depth chart. The one-time quarterback and safety, has great hands, is an excellent target and poses a deep threat with his speed and quickness.

Hartsock plays with an experience that belies his youth. He rarely makes a mistake and also is an outstanding blocker.

Tim Cheatwood, converted from linebacker in the spring, gives the Buckeyes another talented athlete who can run and catch. The 6-4, 250-pound junior provides much-needed depth at tight end. He will play an important role in the OSU offense this year if he develops as a blocker.

Darnell Sanders has worked his way into a starting role at tight end.

Receiver

Coach - Tim Salem
Key Returnees - SE Reggie Germany, FL Ken-Yon Rambo
Key Losses - none

Seniors Reggie Germany and Ken-Yon Rambo return at split end and flanker, respectively, giving the Buckeyes a pair of talented, experienced wideouts. Together, they combined for 84 receptions and seven touchdowns a year ago. Germany (6-2, 195) averaged 15.3 yards per catch on his team-best 43 receptions. He runs precise routes and catches almost everything he gets his hands on. Rambo (6-1, 190) averaged 20 yards per catch on 41 grabs and scored six touchdowns. He may be the fastest player on the team and is electrifying in the open field. Both were in their first years as starters, although, both had played extensively the year before in backup roles.

Vaness Provitt is slated to back-up Germany. Bothered by injuries throughout his career, the 6-3, 205-pound senior had seven catches for 122 yards and one touchdown last year. He played in 11 games. Provitt is hoping this will be his breakout year and that he will emerge as the third wide receiver.

Glue-fingered senior Chad Cacchio will play behind Rambo. A former walk-on who has since been converted to scholarship, Cacchio had four receptions last year.

A pair of redshirt freshmen, Drew Carter (6-4, 187) and Ricky Bryant (5-10, 175), should provide quality depth. Both have excellent speed and hands and are coming off fine showings in the spring. With continued work, these two have a bright future.

Chad Cacchio has established himself as a tough receiver with sure hands.

In 1999, Vanness Provitt averaged an impressive 17.4 yards per catch.

Speedy Ken-Yon Rambo returns for his second season as the starting flanker.

Defensive Line

Coach - Jim Heacock
Key Returnees - DE Brent Johnson, DT Mike Collins, DT Ryan Pickett, DT Joe Brown, DE Rodney Bailey
Key Losses - DE James Cotton

Mike Collins led all OSU interior linemen with 56 tackles in 1999.

There is quality and quantity along the defensive front, beginning with tackles Ryan Pickett and Mike Collins, one of the best inside tandems in recent memory at OSU. Additionally, ends Brent Johnson and Rodney Bailey are solid players, as is Joe Brown, who moved to end last spring after playing tackle his first three years. Redshirt freshman Tim Anderson is another highly-regarded player, as is sophomore David Thompson. To further sweeten the pot, junior Heath Queen and sophomore Kenny Peterson each had solid springs.

Pickett is in his third year as a starter. He broke into the starting lineup against Penn State as a freshman and started the final nine games of the season. He started all 12 games last year and finished the season with 48 tackles, including nine tackles-for-loss. In addition to his physical prowess, the 6-3, 290-pound junior has tremendous instincts.

Collins (6-3, 290) will play more of a nose guard position this year in order to take better advantage of his strength and physical style of play (he and Pickett will flip-flop). He started the final 11 games last year and led the defensive line in tackles (56) and tackles-for-loss (11). That effort came on the heels of a productive freshman year in which he played in 10 of the 12 games (he sat out the Minnesota and Northwestern games with a bad back).

Johnson will start at right end. In his third year as a starter, the 6-3, 265-pound senior is a solid, all-around player who is equally effective against the run or the pass. He had 34 tackles last year. It was Johnson who blocked a potential game-tying field goal in the waning moments of the Purdue game to preserve Ohio State's 25-22 win.

Bailey will be on the other side — at left end. The 6-3, 270-pound senior started all 12 games in 1998 and got the call six times last year. The veteran Bailey has played in 37 games as a Buckeye. He actually had his best year last year in terms of tackles, finishing with 23. A talented athlete, the coaches expect great things out of him this year.

Brown gives the Buckeyes a quality reserve, who can step in at either end position. The hard-working senior has started 18 games at tackle during his career and has the size (6-6, 285) and quickness to be an outstanding end. Brown was hampered by a thumb injury in 1998 and a shoulder injury last year. Healthy, he can be an effective football player.

The 6-4, 265-pound Peterson, meanwhile, emerged from spring ball as the backup to Bailey and appears ready to challenge for quality playing time.

Depth at the two inside positions will come from the 6-4, 275-pound Queen at tackle and the 6-3, 289-pound Anderson at nose guard.

Clinton Wayne, a 6-3, 275-pound senior, also could provide depth, if he returns in the fall. Wayne has played in 36 games and has eight starts to his credit.

Linebacker

Coach - Brian Williams
Key Returnees - WLB Joe Cooper, MLB Jason Ott, BLB Courtland Bullard
Key Losses - BLB Na'il Diggs

Jason Ott is OSU's top returning linebacker with 79 tackles in 1999.

The early departure of All-America Na'il Diggs for the pros has left first-year linebackers coach Brian Williams with a sizeable pair of shoes to fill. After all, the athletic Diggs led the Buckeyes in tackles last year with 94, and recorded team highs in tackles-for-loss (15) and sacks (6). He also was credited with three of the Buckeyes' 10 forced fumbles.

Joe Cooper hopes to step into those shoes. As Diggs' understudy on the boundary last year, Cooper played in 12 games and had a respectable 36 tackles. At 6-0, 225-pounds, he doesn't have Diggs' size (6-4, 240), but he is athletic and has demonstrated the potential to be a playmaker. Best of all, he is a ferocious hitter.

Pat O'Neill and Cie Grant, a pair of redshirt freshmen, will back up Cooper on the boundary. O'Neill, one of the state's top linebackers two years ago, has added 20 pounds since the beginning of last year and is coming off a solid spring. Grant, a defensive back by trade, was moved to linebacker in the spring and quickly took to his new position. At 195 pounds, he is a little light, but he has the frame to add weight and the potential to develop into a good linebacker.

Jason Ott returns at middle linebacker. The 6-4, 240-pound junior started all 12 games last year and finished the season with 79 tackles, fourth best on the team. He also had 11 tackles-for-loss.

Sophomore Fred Pagac Jr., will back up Ott. He saw action in the first five games last year, but had his season ended against Wisconsin when he suffered a broken leg. Before being hurt, he was in on 11 tackles and was playing well for a true freshman. He did play in the spring and showed no lingering effects of the injury.

Junior Courtland Bullard is expected to round out the starting linebacking corps. Another talented athlete with outstanding speed, Bullard started 11 games last year and had 40 tackles. It was an especially satisfying season for Bullard, who sat out most of the 1998 campaign with a groin pull.

Matt Wilhelm, who played in the last 11 games last year as a true freshman, will play behind Cooper. At 6-4, 245-pounds, he also could step into the middle if the need arises. He had 16 tackles as a rookie and impressed the coaches with his headiness and physical play.

The coaches would like to see more depth here. Expect the incoming freshmen to be given every opportunity to strut their stuff.

Defensive Back

Coach - Jon Tenuta
Key Returnees - CB Nate Clements, SS Mike Doss, FS Donnie Nickey, CB David Mitchell
Key Losses - CB Ahmed Plummer, FS Gary Berry

This is another area where depth is a concern. With just six able-bodied upperclassmen returning, two of whom did not play last year, the incoming freshmen will have to help. But don't be surprised to see another strong unit. Tenuta has a knack for getting the most out of his players.

Nate Clements is unquestionably the top returnee. He started all 12 games at corner last year, opposite first-round NFL draft choice Ahmed Plummer, and was second on the team in tackles with 90 total stops. The 5-11, 190-pound junior also had a pair of interceptions and nine passes broken up. A jarring hitter, he will take over for Plummer as the cover corner this year. The Buckeyes have been spoiled with the likes of Shawn Springs, Antoine Winfield and Plummer the past five years. Clements has the same potential.

David Mitchell will start at the other corner. A 6-1, 195-pound senior, Mitchell was the Buckeyes' nickel back in 1999. He finished the season with 25 tackles and always played well when called upon. In his lone career start, he had seven tackles against Purdue last fall. Mitchell played in all 12 games as a true freshman in 1997 and has played in 36-consecutive games during his career. He is eagerly awaiting his first chance to start.

Donnie Nickey and Mike Doss will be the starting safeties. Nickey moved from strong to free safety in the spring, replacing three-year starter Gary Berry. Doss will take over at the strong spot.

Nickey started 10 games last year and had 73 tackles. He was named to a second-team spot on the Sporting News Freshman All-America team. It was a solid first year for the redshirt freshman.

Doss gradually worked his way up the depth chart last year as a true freshman, first turning heads with his special teams play and then drawing attention to himself with his stellar play at safety. After recording 12 tackles at Michigan State, he started the final two games of the year against Illinois and Michigan. If last year is any indication of things to come, Doss can be a special player over the next three years.

Richard McNutt and Derek Ross are the other two returnees. McNutt was redshirted last year as freshman. He will back up Clements. Ross, who played in all 12 games as a freshman in 1998 but was not eligible last year, will play behind Mitchell.

Another redshirt freshman, Kelton Lindsay, was converted from running back to corner in the fall, but missed spring practice after undergoing knee surgery in December. Curtis Crosby, ineligible last year as a freshman, is expected to be available in the fall. If so, Tenuta can at least fill out the two-deep with eight different names.

Nate Clements is OSU's top returning tackler with 90 stops in 1999.

The nickel back in 1999, David Mitchell will get the call as a starting cornerback this season.

Special Teams

Key Returnees - PK/P Dan Stultz, P B.J. Sander
Key Losses - LS Kevin Houser

Veteran Dan Stultz is coming off his best year. He handled virtually all of the Buckeyes kicking last year and responded by hitting 12 of 16 field goals (including a pair of pressure boots in a 20-17 win at Minnesota), making 31 of 34 PATs and averaging 38.6 yards per punt. Stultz, who also kicked off, was the Buckeyes' second leading scorer with 67 points, one behind Michael Wiley.

The Buckeye coaching staff is hoping that Stultz won't have to do it all this year. If either B.J. Sander or Andy Groom can handle the punting duties, Stultz would be free to concentrate solely on placements.

Sander hoped to make his presence felt last year as a true freshman, but a bruised foot early in the season sidelined him for the remainder of the year. Groom is a walk-on, who on occasion has shown signs of promise. As yet, neither has demonstrated the consistency the coaching staff is seeking. One of them needs to step forward in the fall.

Dan Stultz scored 67 points for the Buckeyes in 1999.

54 Tim Anderson

Defensive Lineman
6-3, 289, Fr.
Clyde, Ohio
Clyde H.S.
Undeclared

Ohio State's top six defensive linemen consist of four seniors and two juniors. That may not mean much to many people but it means the world to Tim Anderson, a huge part of the Ohio State defense's future and a former high school state wrestling champion. Anderson is blessed with all the tools necessary to be successful - size, speed, athletic ability and a great work ethic. After redshirting last year, he'll get the chance to use those tools for the first time this season, Jim Heacock, defensive line coach, said. "Tim Anderson blocks very well and he's a real competitor," Heacock said. "He's a good young kid that we're counting on."

1999 - Redshirted

Anderson will enter the 2000 season with four years of eligibility remaining.

High School

Attended Clyde High School ... a USA Today Honorable Mention All-American ... first-team all-state selection by the Associated Press as a senior ... recorded 59 tackles including seven sacks as a senior and 48 tackles and five sacks as a junior ... also an undefeated state wrestling champion as a junior ... listed as one of the Top 100 prospects in the nation by the National Recruiting Advisor prior to his senior year ... the eighth rated player in the state according to OhioPrep Football Scouting.

Personal

Son of James and Sandy Anderson ... born Nov 22, 1980.

94 Rodney Bailey

Defensive End
6-3, 270, Sr.
Cleveland, Ohio
St. Edward H.S.
Communications

Rodney Bailey, a towering 6-3, 270 pounds, is an imposing presence to quarterbacks and offensive linemen. After three years of consistent performances and steady improvement, Bailey is primed to become one of the Big Ten Conference's premier defensive linemen. Blessed with size, strength and speed, Bailey has improved statistically each year at OSU. He also has shown a niche for the big play and, as a veteran of 36 games and 22 starts, will enter the 2000 season as the Buckeyes' active career leader in tackles-for-loss (20) and sacks (9.5). He has tremendous athletic ability and foot speed for a man his size. "Rodney has good quickness off the ball and very good explosion. His strength is his athleticisim," Jim Heacock, defensive line coach said As a senior leader and a projected starter at defensive end, Bailey will be an integral part of what should be one of the brightest spots for Ohio State on either side of the ball this season – the defensive front four.

1999 – Junior Season

Started six games (including the first five of the season) and played in all 12 at defensive end ... finished the season with 17 solos and six assists for 23 tackles, his highest career total ... tied for ninth on the team with five tackles-for-loss ... notched lone sack of the year in the season opener against Miami, dropping elusive Hurricane quarterback Kenny Kelly for a 5-yard loss ... also recovered a fumble against Miami and returned it 12 yards ... made a season-high six tackles against Ohio University ... the surprising emergence of James Cotton in the second half of the season cut into Bailey's playing time ... averaged over 16 minutes per game.

1998 – Sophomore Season

Started all 12 games at defensive end ... helped a balanced defensive unit rank first nationally against the rush and fourth nationally in total defense ... totaled 16 tackles, 10 of which were behind the line of scrimmage for losses totaling 43 yards ... his 10 TFL ranked third on the team, trailing only a pair of players currently active in the National Football League – Andy Katzenmoyer and Na'il Diggs ... ranked third on the team and second among defensive linemen with 5.5 sacks for minus-37 yards ... credited with three pass break-ups ... really came on during the end of the year, recording at least one tackle-for-loss in each of the final four games, including three for minus 7 yards against Michigan State and three for minus 18 yards versus Iowa ... recorded a season-high five tackles against Michigan State.

1997 – Freshman Season

Saw action early in 1997 on special teams and gradually worked his way into the two-deep at defensive end ... made his first start at Minnesota and was credited with four tackles in his debut ... recorded a career-high nine tackles and recovered a fumble at Michigan ... credited with 19 tackles, including four for losses ... had sacks against Northwestern, Michigan and in the Sugar Bowl versus Florida State ... played in all 13 games, started four times and easily logged the most playing time of any freshman.

High School

Attended St. Edwards High School ... first-team Division I Associated Press all-state pick ... the Cleveland area Division I Defensive Player of the Year by the Plain Dealer and selected as the Cleveland Touchdown Club Player of the Year ... had 111 tackles with 16 sacks as a senior and finished his high school career with 199 tackles and 26 sacks ... named to five high school All-America teams.

Personal

Son of Ransford and Dianne Bailey ... born Oct. 7, 1979 ... lists OSU All-American Mike Vrabel as one of the players he most admires.

61 John Bates

Offensive Line
6-4, 285, Sr.
Cherry Hill, N.J.
East H.S.
Business

John Bates may not have had as much playing time as other members of the Ohio State football team the past four years but he does have his share of fans. A group of fanatics seated behind the OSU bench have dubbed themselves "The Bates Motel" and continually cheer for their favorite walk-on from New Jersey. One of the most vocal and visible players on the sideline that continually tries to motivate the 90,000-plus fans, Bates has been a key member of Ohio State's scout team for the past four seasons. "John is a young man that is willing to do anything to help this football team. He'll play any position. He has a great attitude" George Belu, offensive line coach, said. His game action has been limited, but teammates and coaches continually admire his attitude and commitment to the program.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in two games, UCLA and Iowa.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in two games ... action came against Toledo and Penn State.

1997 - Freshman Season

Played in two games down the stretch run - versus Illinois and Northwestern.

High School

Attended East High School ... a two-year starter ... also wrestled and competed in track and field ... had scholarship offers from smaller schools but wanted to be a part of a major program and walked on at Ohio State.

Personal

Son of Janice and John Bates ... born Sept. 12, 1978.

8 Steve Bellisari

Quarterback
6-3, 220, Jr.
Boca Raton, Fla.
Boca Raton H.S.
Engineering

Dangerous. Explosive. Multi-dimensional. These are all words used to describe Steve Bellisari. Each is accurate. Blessed with loads of natural athletic ability, the left-handed Bellisari gives Ohio State two weapons in one finely-tuned package. A broken play can often mean a big gain with Bellisari's athleticism. As a passer, he has a quick release and a big arm with the ability to throw the deep ball. When Ohio State came up with a big play last year, Bellisari typically had something to do with it. Tim Salem, OSU quarterbacks coach, said Bellisari turned in his finest three performances – showing impressive defensive reads and the decision-making skills of a veteran – in Ohio State's final three games. "He's had a chance to play for a good solid year and through the growing process from 1999 to 2000, we expect a big jump in what he can do for this football team," Salem said. "He's very competitive and very athletic. He's a very hard worker that is determined to do it right." Bellisari, who has a hold on the starting quarterback job entering the 2000 season, is one of the emerging stars behind center in the Big Ten Conference and will be counted on to be a leader in the huddle of Ohio State's offensive unit.

1999 – Sophomore Season

Entered fall camp in a heated battle for the starting quarterback position and won the job after an impressive 11-for-16 passing, two-touchdown performance in a backup role against UCLA the second game of the year ... started the final 10 games of the season, becoming the first sophomore to start at OSU since Bobby Hoying in 1993 ... threw for 1,616 yards and 12 touchdowns ... passed for a season-high 243 yards in his first start of the season against Ohio University ... topped the 200-yard passing plateau three times: 243 vs. Ohio, 210 vs. Wisconsin, 240 vs. Iowa ... rushed for 604 gross yards, but is officially credited for 332 after subtracting yardage lost from sacks ... his 332 rushing yards are the most by an Ohio State quarterback since Art Schlichter amassed 430 in 1979 ... the first OSU quarterback to rank second on the team in rushing since Schlichter in 1978 ... rushed for a team-high 96 yards, including a thrilling season-long 68-yard scamper, against Purdue ... tossed four touchdown passes in excess of 40-yards and totaled four rushes of 20 yards or more ... rushed for 50 yards or more four times: 50 vs. Ohio, 50 vs. Cincinnati, 52 vs. Wisconsin and 96 vs. Purdue.

1998 – Freshman Season

Played in all 12 games on special teams and saw limited action as a reserve strong safety ... voted Ohio State's co-Special Teams Player of the Year ... finished in the Top 10 on the team with 22 tackles, including 15 solo stops ... recorded at least one tackle in every game ... emerged as a fan favorite on special teams with his repeated punishing hits and willingness to sacrifice his body to make the tackle ... gave fans and coaches a taste of his athleticism by becoming the first true freshman in recent memory to play offense (quarterback), defense (strong safety) and special teams in one game (vs. Toldeo) ... made his first career interception and returned it 19 yards versus Indiana ... made a whopping five special team tackles – (3 solo) – in Ohio State's 31-16 win over Michigan.

High School

Attended Boca Raton (Fla.) High School ... one of the nation's top 100 high school seniors and a Prep All-America by numerous publications ... a two-time all-state safety who also doubled as a quarterback ... passed for 891 yards and seven touchdowns and rushed for 543 yards as a senior ... made 55 tackles, grabbed three interceptions and blocked six kicks in his final season.

Personal

Son of Mary Beth and Art Bellisari ... born April 21, 1980 ... older brother Greg was a team captain and two-time Academic All-American at Ohio State from 1993-96 ... Greg currently is on the OSU coaching staff serving as a graduate assistant.

68 LeCharles Bentley

Center
6-2, 290, Jr.
Cleveland, Ohio
St. Ignatius H.S.
Undeclared

Ohio State entered last season with Kurt Murphy, at the time a veteran of 19-consecutive starts, listed as the starting center on the two-deep. A young LeCharles Bentley was, for the most part, expected to watch and learn from Murphy, a senior who ended his career with 44 games played. But as head coach John Cooper put it, Bentley "is just too talented to keep off of the field." Room had to be made for the massive but agile Cleveland product. Six games into the season he was named the starting left offensive guard. An intelligent player that continually benefits from his strong work habits in the weight room, Bentley returns to his natural position of center this year and has a solid hold on the starting job entering the season. Even at 6-2, 290 pounds, he's athletic enough to play on the kickoff coverage team and his versatility could prove invaluable as the season wears on. He's been described as explosive off the line. Ohio State coaches say he has the potential to develop into one of the top offensive linemen in the Big Ten. "Our center does quite a bit, including making the defensive calls. He's picked that up very well," George Belu, offensive line coach, said. " He's very strong. He's picked up the position really good. It's a heck of a lot different than any other position on the line. I like what I see in LeCharles. I like his toughness and his work ethic." He is one of the strongest offensive lineman on the team and has been singled out as someone that needs to develop into a leader.

1999 – Sophomore Season

Played in all 12 games and started the last seven – six at left guard and one at right tackle … named Ohio State's Offensive Lineman of the Year … joined Steve Bellisari and Jamar Martin as the only sophomores to start on offense for the Buckeyes … playing time doubled from the beginning to the end of the season … averaged 13.8 minutes per game in the first six games of the season and 21 minutes per game in the last six contests of the year … played a season-high 27 minutes in the season finale against Michigan … the only Ohio State player to see time at center, guard and tackle.

1998 – Freshman Season

The only true freshman offensive lineman that did not redshirt … backed up Tyson Walter at left tackle and was second on the depth chart the entire season … played in all 12 games, seeing time at tackle and as a member of the kickoff coverage unit … logged 64 minutes of playing time, including a season-high 14 against Michigan State.

High School

Attended St. Ignatius High School … a three-year starter for one of the state's perennial football powers … caught the eye of the OSU coaching staff after having success against Kenny Peterson, a sought after defensive lineman from rival McKinley High School the Buckeyes were recruiting at the time … high school teammate of current Buckeye Jim Massey.

Personal

Son of Verneda Bentley and Charles Milton … born July 11, 1979.

78 Bryce Bishop

Offensive Lineman
6-3, 315, So.
Miami, Fla.
Killian H.S.
Undeclared

One of the top high school players in the country two years ago, but sat out last year due to academic deficiencies ... has regained his eligibility this year and hopes to carve a niche for himself in the offensive line where lack of depth is a problem ... has excellent size and athletic ability ... recruited as a tackle but might also get a look at guard ... the year off will hurt but he is a hard worker who wants to excel.

High School

A USA Today first team All-America as a senior and rated by Super Prep as the eighth-best offensive lineman in the country coming out of high school ... was a three-year starter for Miami Killian ... the son of Barbara and Richard Bishop ... born Aug. 20, 1981.

73 Joe Brown

Defensive End
6-6, 285, Sr.
Tucson, Ariz.
Catalina Foothills
Communications

Joe Brown moves from tackle to end this year. Now all he needs is a little luck. He entered the 1998 season as a starter and the leader of the defensive line before breaking his left thumb in a fall scrimmage. He was able to play but the injury nagged Brown the entire season. In 1999 the injury bug struck again, this time in the form of shoulder problems. But the 2000 version of Joe Brown is healthy, quicker, leaner and ready to return to the dominant form he has shown in the past. Brown is an extremely strong, physical player at the line of scrimmage. He's also one of the team's better pass rushers. "The thing about him is that he was injured all last year and probably shouldn't have even been playing," Jim Heacock, Ohio State defensive line coach, said. "When he's healthy, he is very effective. He's got the ability to make some big plays."

1999 - Junior Season

Played in all 12 games, starting one ... made 17 tackles, including 10 solos ... collected four tackles-for-loss and one sack ... lone start came in the season opener against Miami ... season high for tackles was three against Penn State ... had two or more tackles in five games.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Started all 12 games at defensive tackle, despite playing with a broken thumb that contained a metal plate ... made 21 tackles, including 11 solos ... tied for seventh on the team with six tackles-for-loss ... recorded two sacks, one each against Penn State and Texas A&M ... season-high five tackles, including one for a 3-yard loss against Michigan State ... notched four tackles against Penn State ... all five tackles-for-loss came in different games ... made at least one tackle in all but four games.

1997 - Freshman Season

Played in all 13 games and started five of the last seven ... ranked second among all freshmen with 23 tackles, including 12 solos ... tackle total also ranked fourth among all defensive linemen ... recorded two tackles-for-loss, one each against Indiana and Minnesota ... season-high four tackles against Indiana ... made two sacks and forced a fumble.

High School

Attended Catalina Foothills High School ... all-state on both offense and defense ...was rated the 14th best defensive lineman in the country by Blue Chip Illustrated ... also earned three letters in basketball.

9 Ricky Bryant

Wide Receiver
5-10, 175, Fr.
Farmington Hills, Mich.
Harrison H.S.
Undeclared

Ricky Bryant opened eyes in fall camp last year with highlight reel catches and a flamboyant passion for the game. Not a single set of eyes have left the redshirt freshman who will be a big part of the future of the Ohio State offense. "Ricky Bryant is a playmaker," Tim Salem, receivers coach, said. "He's got a great flare for the game and he's an exciting player to watch." Depending on his continued development and adjustment to the college game, Bryant could factor into Ohio State's receiver rotation this season. He is one of two players listed as the second-team flanker behind starter Ken-Yon Rambo on the preseason depth chart. Although he may be undersized compared to other receivers, Bryant has great speed and a will to outman his defender and catch the ball.

1999 - Redshirted

Bryant will enter the 2000 season with four years of eligibility remaining.

58 Courtland Bullard

Linebacker
6-3, 227, Jr.
Miami, Fla.
Southridge H.S.
Undeclared

Courtland Bullard is simply a natural talent. He stands an imposing and rock hard 6-3, 227 pounds yet still owns sub 4.5-second speed and is naturally athletic with great football instincts. As linebackers coach Brian Williams puts it, "Courtland can run, jump and do it all. He is the most athletic linebacker we have. Courtland can make athletic plays from sideline to sideline. He also should have success rushing the passer this year."

1999 - Sophomore Season

Played in 11 games and started 10 ... ranked 11th on the team with 40 tackles, including 27 solos ... made four tackles-for-loss and had three sacks ... made a season-high 10 tackles against Wisconsin, including his first-career sack ... notched two sacks for minus 12 yards against Penn State ... logged 210 minutes of playing time, including a season- and career-high 31 against the Nittany Lions ... was credited with one forced fumble and one pass break-up ... second highest tackle total was seven versus Michigan State.

1998 - Medical Redshirt Season

1997 - Freshman Season

Played in all 13 games with the majority of his time coming on special teams ... made 11 tackles (including nine solos) and developed a reputation as a punishing hitter ... first-career tackle came against Bowling Green ... made a season-high five tackles against Northwestern ... registered his first career tackle-for-loss against Indiana ... credited with one forced fumble.

High School

Attended Southridge High School ... a second-team USA Today high school All-America ... named to numerous other prep All-America teams ... one of two Ohio State players (Tam Hopkins is the other) named to the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super Southern 100 team.

13 Chad Cacchio

Flanker
6-0, 190, Sr.
Upper Arlington, Ohio
Upper Arlington H.S.
Finance

Chad Cacchio has lived out the dream of every young football player in Ohio. Growing up in the shadow of grand old Ohio Stadium, Cacchio played high school football just miles from campus and walked on at OSU in the fall of 1996. Last year, after three seasons of hard work, a never-say-die attitude, and rigorous rehabilitation from a dislocated right shoulder, Cacchio earned an athletics scholarship and wound up playing a major role in Ohio State's receiver rotation. "Chad is Mr. Right - he does everything right," Tim Salem, receivers coach, said. "He's very coachable. He has some strength and some hidden speed that allowed him to earn a scholarship last season. He adds a lot of depth to our receiving corps." Prior to last season and after recovering from numerous injuries, Cacchio, still a non-scholarship player at the time, made the switch from No. 20 to karma-filled No. 13, saying his, "luck couldn't get any worse." He couldn't have been more right.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in all 12 games ... caught four passes for 44 yards ... an Academic All-Big Ten selection and an OSU Scholar-Athlete ... ranked fourth among all wideouts in catches and receiving yards ... made a season and career-long 19-yard grab against Wisconsin ... also made catches against UCLA, Ohio University and Iowa ...played a total of 40 minutes, including a season-high nine against Ohio University.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in seven games ... caught his first collegiate pass, an 11-yard reception, versus Iowa ... an Academic All-Big Ten selection and an OSU Scholar-Athlete ... played a total of 16 minutes.

Solon, Ohio
Solon H.S.
Undeclared

When you see him run crisp routes, make a circus catch on the sideline look routine, and outleap a defensive back by eight inches, there's no way you'll believe that Drew Carter has only been playing football for two years - one as a senior in high school and the other as a freshman that was redshirted at Ohio State. Blessed with an enormous amount of natural athletic ability, Carter is a huge part of the future of the OSU offense. "Drew Carter probably has more potential than any other receiver we have," Tim Salem, receivers coach, said. "He hadn't played much football prior to coming here. He's come a long way since his first day on campus and will be a major contributor to the offense in due time."

Carter will enter the 2000 season with four years of eligibility remaining.

49 Tim Cheatwood

Tight End
6-4, 250, Jr.

Social Work

Tim Cheatwood gives Ohio State a secret weapon at the tight end position - unmatched speed. Whereas OSU's other four tight ends all tip the scales at over 250 pounds, Cheatwood, a former linebacker and safety, has a leaner build and the speed that goes along with it. Cheatwood was also noted by the coaching staff as a player that was impressive in spring drills. "Tim's big strength is his speed," Bill Conley, tight ends coach, said. "He runs good pass routes and has very good hands. He'll be our fastest tight end and he's learning to block, even though he's a little undersized right now."

1999 - Sophomore Season

Played in 11 games and started one ... made seven tackles, including five solos ... first career start came against Miami in the season opener, a game in which he made two tackles, both of which were behind the line of scrimmage ... played a total of 71 minutes, including a season-high 18 against Miami ... also played double-figure minutes against Ohio University ... a key special teams performer.

1998 - Redshirt Freshman Season

Played in all 12 games ... finished the season with 18 tackles (eight solos) ... made a career-high six tackles against Toledo ... also notched five tackles against Iowa ... made his first career interception against Toledo ... logged 84 minutes of playing time, including a season-high 19 minutes against Toledo.

High School

Attended Benedictine High School ... second-team all-state pick by the Associated Press ... played both defensive back and wide receiver ... made 78 tackles and grabbed six interceptions as a senior ... also averaged 22.5 yards per catch ... a Cleveland Plain-Dealer all-city first-team selection ... played in the 1997 Ohio-Pennsylvania Big 33 Classic.

Everyone was talking about Adrien Clarke, a rising star on the offensive line, during spring practice this year. He is a punishing blocker that overwhelms defenders with his massive size. He was singled out by the coaching staff as having some of the best feet and strength of any OSU offensive linemen. His mammoth size and fiery attitude caught not only the eye of fans and media, but that of offensive line coach George Belu, too. "Adrien was a pleasant surprise in spring practice," Belu said. "He still needs to get himself grooved in terms of technique and assignments, but he's a real load coming off the ball. His attitude will also carry him a long way." Clarke's stock started to rise the minute he stepped on campus last year and shows no signs of slowing down any time soon. Many redshirt freshmen are noted as being a big part of the future of the program. The young Adrien Clarke, on the other hand, is good enough to be a big part of the present.

Clarke will enter the 2000 season with four years of eligibility remaining.

If former Ohio State All-America cornerback Antoine Winfield started writing the book on playing cornerback at 6-feet and under, Nate Clements is finishing it. A smart player and punishing, tenacious hitter that, Jon Tenuta, OSU defensive coordinator, said "has the skills to hopefully develop into a great cornerback." Clements resembles Winfield in more ways than simply stature. Not only is he blessed with the speed (4.3 40-yard dash) and instincts to be a smothering cornerback in pass coverage but Clements also finished second on the team in total tackles last year and led the Buckeyes in solo stops. "Nate is an excellent cover guy. He'll be our cover corner. He has tremendous speed and athleticism – the things you need to be an outstanding cornerback. He falls in line with all the other great cornerbacks we've had here." He rarely misses the open-field tackle and has the strength to bring down bigger receivers and running backs behind the line (evidenced by his eight tackles-for-loss, tops among all Ohio State defensive backs). With 12 career starts to his credit and a team-high 109 career tackles, he will be a leader in Ohio State's young secondary. Clements underwent minor surgery on his left foot to repair a fracture of the fifth metatarsal Jan. 21, 2000 but was back to 100 percent by spring practice.

1999 – Sophomore Season

Started all 12 games at cornerback opposite All-American Ahmed Plummer ... an honorable mention All-Big Ten selection by the coaches ... finished the season second on the team with 90 stops (trailing only All-America linebacker Na'il Diggs) and led the Buckeyes with 76 solo tackles ... tied for the team lead with five pass break-ups ... led all defensive backs and ranked sixth on the team with eight tackles-for-loss ... led all Ohio State players in minutes played (369), including 38 against Michigan State ... recorded a season- and career-high 14 tackles (9 solos) against Miami, the second most in a single game by any OSU player in 1999 ... made 10 or more stops in three games: vs. Miami (14), vs. Cincinnati (11) and vs. Penn State (10) ... played extensively on special teams and blocked a third-quarter field goal against Penn State.

1998 – Freshman Season

Took advantage of a golden opportunity to learn from a pair of All-America cornerbacks in Plummer and Winfield ... played in all 12 games on special teams and in the secondary as a true freshman ... won the spot at nickel back for the last five games of the season ... recorded 19 tackles, including six solo stops in the win over Michigan ... notched four pass break-ups, the most by an OSU freshman since Shawn Springs had seven as a red-shirt freshman in 1994 ... credited with breaking up two passes at Iowa ... grabbed his first career interception in the win over Indiana.

High School

Attended Shaker Heights High School ... high school All-America by numerous publications ... intercepted seven passes his senior season, giving him 14 for his career ... credited with 14 pass break-ups as a senior ... also played quarterback ... scored 16 touchdowns in his career, including two via kickoff returns and one by way of an interception.

Sociology

When Mike Collins arrived at Ohio State prior to the 1998 season, the preseason two-deep described him as a player that would "push for playing time." Just 24 months later he is already a veteran of 22-consecutive games and 11-consecutive starts at defensive tackle. That indicates the progress he's made in just two short seasons. Collins will enter 2000 primed to emerge as one the top defensive linemen in the Big Ten and will team up with tackle Ryan Pickett to form one of the most formidable inside run-stopping tandems in the country. Although he's known for his superior strength and toughness, defensive tackles coach Jim Heacock says there is more to Mike Collins than bulging muscles. "He's a strong, physical player but he runs well, too," Heacock said. "He gets sideline to sideline pretty well for as big as he is." All-Big Ten honorable mention by media last season, Collins is a mainstay for the Ohio State defense.

1999 - Sophomore Season

Played in 12 games and started the last 11 at defensive tackle ... led all defensive tackles and tied for sixth on the team with 56 tackles (35 solos, 21 assists) ... second on the team with 11 tackles-for-loss ...third on the team with three sacks ... one of only three players on the team (the others being the departed Na'il Diggs and James Cotton) with at least 11 tackles-for-loss and three sacks ... forced one fumble ... played 272 minutes, the most among defensive tackles and the second most among all defensive linemen ... the only defensive linemen to make six or more tackles in five different games ... made a season-high seven stops against Penn State, including four tackles-for-loss – just one shy of the school record ... made six tackles against Miami, Cincinnati, Wisconsin and Michigan.

1998 - Freshman Season

Played in 10 games as a true freshman and would have played in all 12 if not been for a sore back that sidelined him for the Minnesota and Northwestern games ... led true freshmen with 23 tackles (15 solos) ... recorded 2.5 sacks and six tackles-for-loss ... made everyone's highlight reel when he recorded his first collegiate interception and rumbled 22-yards for a touchdown against Iowa ... made a season-high four tackles against the Hawkeyes, including two tackles-for-loss ... recorded 105 minutes, the second most of any true freshman ... played more and more as the season wore on and recorded at least one tackle-for -loss in each the final four games of the season ... enrolled in the spring of 1999 and participated in spring drills.

Fork Union Military Academy

Attended Fork Union Military Academy for one year after graduating from Newark High School ... grew one inch and gained 35 pounds of muscle at the Academy ... recorded 96 tackles including six sacks at Fork Union.

Tailback

Sociology

Tim Spencer was an All-America fullback at Ohio State, played in the National Football League for four years and has been an assistant coach at OSU for seven years. In short, he's seen more than his share of football. "He's one of the quickest guys I've ever seen in my life," Spencer said of Derek Combs. Arguably the team's fastest player, Combs should see more playing time in 2000 than ever before and is the leading candidate to replace Michael Wiley at tailback. His speed and elusiveness make him a constant big-play threat. "Derek can hit the home run for us," Spencer said. The coaching staff as a whole hopes Combs will have a breakout season in his final year.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in 10 games and started one ... carried the ball 43 times for 173 yards (4.0 yards per carry) ... lone start came against Purdue where he ran six times for 17 yards and a touchdown ... rushed for a season-high (and career-high) 80 yards on 10 carries against Cincinnati ... longest run of the year, a 39-yard gallop off a draw play, also came against the Bearcats and set up his own 5-yard touchdown run ... caught one pass for 16 yards, rushed for 42 yards on eight carries and scored a touchdown versus Ohio ... season high for minutes played was 11 against UCLA.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in nine games and rushed for 89 yards ... scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 9-yard dash against Missouri ... longest run of the year was 12 yards in the wins over Toledo and Indiana ... played in each of the first eight games ... played a season-high five minutes against Illinois ... learned the ropes playing behind NFL-draftees Michael Wiley and Joe Montgomery.

1997 - Freshman Season

Played in 10 games ... rushed 25 times for 82 yards ... ran for a season-high 22 yards on five carries against Illinois ... stood out on special teams against Bowling Green, dragging down Falcon punter Andy Pollock for an 11-yard loss ... carried the ball in seven games.

10 Joe Cooper

Linebacker
6-0, 225, Sr.
Columbus, Ohio
Independence H.S.
Criminology

Joe Cooper was extremely sick with a throat and ear infection and was forced to go back into the lockerroom minutes before kickoff vs. Iowa. So sick that Bob Hunter of the Columbus Dispatch wrote: "It's probably best to leave the gory details to the New England Journal of Medicine." But it takes more than illness to slow Cooper, one of the team's most athletic linebackers. He made three huge plays in that game, stopping an Iowa running back for a loss on fourth-and-one, forcing an interception with a monster shot on Hawkeye quarterback Scott Mullen, and grabbing a pick of his own - the first of his career – in the endzone to help seal an OSU win. Following the game, when Cooper was asked what kind of illness would keep him out of a game, he replied: "hopefully nothing. Maybe if I couldn't walk." That mentality has earned him the chance to win a starting job at the outside linebacker spot in 2000.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in all 12 games ... ranked 12th on the team and led all non-starters with 36 tackles (22 solos) ... registered five tackles-for-loss including one sack ... playing time increased dramatically as the season wore on ... made a season-high eight tackles against Illinois ... made 21 tackles in the last four games ... had six or more tackles in four games ... one of only three players on the roster to record a tackle-for-loss, a sack and an interception ... his one sack on the year was a big one, a fourth-quarter hit on Minnesota's Billy Cockerham that stalled a Gopher drive ... also registered two tackles-for-loss against Minnesota ... interception came in the endzone against Iowa ... averaged nearly 17 minutes per game in the last five games of the year.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in all 12 games ... a special teams terror who was the ninth-leading tackler on the team with 23 stops ... also the top tackler among all non-starters ... made a season- and career-high 10 tackles against Toledo, only his second collegiate game ... registered one tackle-for-loss which also came against the Rockets ... forced a fumble in his first collegiate game, versus West Virginia, on a kickoff return ... recovered a blocked punt in the endzone in the win over Penn State, giving OSU a commanding 21-3 lead ... made at least one tackle in eight of the 12 games he played in, including each of the first eight.

1997 - Freshman Season

Did not see any game action but did practice with the team the entire season.

High School

Attended Independence High School in Columbus ... named the Ohio Division II Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year as a senior after recording an incredible 35 quarterback sacks ... first-team all-Ohio selection ... played in the 1997 Ohio-Pennsylvania Big 33 Classic.

Duane Crooks walked on to the Ohio State football team last year with few expectations and a huge heart. A year later, Crooks is a veteran of nine games and one of the team's top special teams players. A central Ohio native, Crooks was moved from flanker to defensive back this spring. "Duane Crooks is a good addition to the program," Jon Tenuta, defensive backs coach, said. "He's a multi-talented safety, cornerback and defensive back. He's doing a good job as a walk-on for us."

1999 - Freshman Season

Each year there seems to be one true freshman that catches the eye of 93,000 fans in Ohio Stadium – one special 18-year old talent that seems to be playing like a veteran and bursting with potential. In 1999, that was Mike Doss. The favorable impression he left with Ohio State fans was nothing compared to the bone-crushing, helmet-jarring one he left with several opponents. Although his quiet demeanor allowed him to slip past most fans and media members through the first half of last year, everyone wanted a piece of Doss by November. He recorded double-figure tackles in back-to-back games and showed the tendency to attack ball carriers with a vengeance. "Mike is a great run player. He plays like a linebacker against the run. He's worked on being a better pass defender. His knowledge of the game is improving and he'll be and outstanding player someday," Jon Tenuta, defensive backs coach, said. Doss, who dished out some of Ohio State's hardest hits of the season on special teams in 1999, has been described as a strong safety with a linebacker mentality. He is Ohio State's starter at the strong safety spot entering the year.

1999 – Freshman Season

Played in all 12 games and started the final two ... the only true freshman to play in every game ... ranked 10th with 43 tackles including 33 solo stops ... captured Ohio State's First Year Defensive Player of the Year Award ... played just 128 minutes, nearly 100 minutes fewer than any of Ohio State's other Top 10 tacklers ... clearly led Ohio State in minutes played:tackles ratio at 2.97:1 (the next closest was Jason Ott at just 3.39:1) ... made a season-high 12 tackles as a reserve against Michigan State, earning him the starting spot at strong safety the final two games of the year ... responded to getting the starting nod with 10 tackles and a pass break-up against Illinois and seven tackles at Michigan ... did not play over six minutes in any of the first seven games but averaged 21. 4 in the final five games (including an average of 27 per game over the final three) ... recorded five tackles-for-loss, including a season-high two against Illinois ... was the first true freshman defensive back to start at Ohio State since Antoine Winfield in 1995.

High School

Attended Canton McKinley High School ... USA Today honorable mention All-America and the No. 6 prospect in the Midwest by the Detroit Free Press ... first team all-Ohio selection by the Associated Press as a senior ... picked off a school-record 14 passes in his career ... helped McKinley to back-to-back state titles in 1997 and 1998 ... rushed for 143 yards and scored four touchdowns in the state championship game his senior year ... amassed 1,454 yards, 22 touchdowns, 111 tackles and three interceptions as a senior ... had nine interceptions and 97 tackles as a junior ... "He's one of the best players I've ever seen," high school coach Kerry Hodakievic said. "The bigger the game, the bigger he plays." ... high school teammate of current Buckeyes Kenny Peterson and Jamar Martin.

53 Ivan Douglas

Offensive Tackle
6-6, 295, Fr.
University Heights, Ohio
Benedictine H.S.
Business

Ivan Douglas continues to improve and work toward earning playing time after being placed on scholarship last spring. He comes from a highly-successful program and is one in a long line of massive Ohio State linemen on the roster. "Ivan has really good size," George Belu, offensive line coach, said. "He needs to work on technique and get lower in his run blocking. I think it's only a matter of time before he gets his technique down. He can be a very good player for us."

1999 - Redshirted

Douglas will enter the 2000 season with four years of eligibility remaining.

High School

Attended Cleveland Benedictine High School … helped the school to a state championship as a junior in 1996 and a 10-1 finish as a senior in 1997.

Personal

Son of Roxie and Cornelius Douglas … born March 17, 1980.

75 Henry Fleming

Offensive Tackle
6-6, 305, Sr.
Manning, S.C.
Fork Union
Sociology

Henry Fleming, Ohio State's largest starting offensive lineman (6-6, 305 pounds), is primed to enjoy his finest year ever as a Buckeye - and things are aligned for that to happen. After battling a string of injuries and illnesses in his first two years, including a bacterial infection that caused him to lose 25 pounds, the always quiet and mild-mannered Fleming will enter the 2000 season healthy and with 11 starts from last year to learn from. He is listed as the projected starter at right tackle on the preseason two-deep and with the exception of Tyson Walter, is the team's most experienced offensive lineman. "Henry has been injured a lot and couldn't do a lot of lifting," George Belu offensive line coach said. "He needs to get that strength back and he will. He moves his body around pretty good for weighing over 300 pounds."

1999 - Junior Season

Played in all 12 games and started 11 at right tackle … played 219 minutes, the fourth most of any OSU lineman … logged a season-high 30 minutes in the 20-17 win at Minnesota … played 20 or more minutes in seven games.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in nine games … was expected to challenge for a starting tackle position but was limited in spring drill by an ankle sprain and in fall camp by a bacterial infection … wound up as the back-up at right tackle … played 64 minutes, including a season-high 12 minutes against Toledo.

1997 - Freshman Season

Played in seven games … improved as the season went on and was rewarded with more playing time, seeing action in five of the last seven games … logged 26 total minutes … first collegiate appearance came against Bowling Green … played a season-high six minutes against Illinois.

Fork Union Military Academy

Spent one year at Fork Union Military Academy after graduating from Manning High School … also a standout basketball player in high school.

Personal

Son of Mable Fleming, who he lists as the person he admires most … born July 25, 1978 … a hip-hop and rap music guru that has written some of his own material … has one brother, Patrick.

80 Reggie Germany

Split End
6-2, 195, Sr.
Hazelwood, Mo.
East H.S.

Reggie Germany, one of the fastest receivers on the team with incredible leaping ability and sure hands, is primed for a breakout season. If anything, the past three years have prepared Germany for greatness. He spent two seasons learning from the most prolific pass-catching tandem in school history in David Boston and Dee Miller. Germany started all 12 games last year and adjusted to a new role and new quarterback. That role - being one of the team's primary receivers - is now old news and that quarterback - Steve Bellisari - is returning, meaning Germany could develop into a top receiver. Although laser-like speed is his biggest asset, Germany also possesses the size and strength to catch the ball over the middle and did so frequently last season. Already a favorite target of Bellisari's, he will join flanker Ken-Yon Rambo as Ohio State's go-to receivers this year. "Reggie is an experienced player. We're looking for him to be an All-Big Ten performer and nothing less than that. He's going to have to be a major playmaker for us on the offensive side of the ball," Tim Salem, receivers coach, said.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in all 12 games as Ohio State's starting split end ... led the team with 43 receptions and ranked second with 656 receiving yards ... ranked ninth in the Big Ten in receptions per game (3.58) ... scored his lone touchdown of the year on a 40-yard reception against Wisconsin ... hauled in a season-high seven catches for 115 yards against UCLA ... longest catch of the year was a 42-yarder against Purdue ... by making at least one reception in every game, extended his current pass-catching streak to 13 games ... notched six catches for 90 yards against Cincinnati for his second highest output of the year ... recorded at least 50 receiving yards in six of Ohio State's 12 games.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in 10 games and caught 14 passes for 229 yards, the fifth-highest total on the team ... caught four touchdown passes on the year, including three in the team's first five games ... was really emerging before a hard fall at Northwestern injured his collar bone, sidelining him for two games and hampering him for two others ... was fully recovered by the Sugar Bowl and caught two passes for 34 yards, including an over-the-shoulder 18-yard touchdown reception ... hauled in a 47-yard catch against Toledo which remains the longest reception of his career ... caught a 37-yard touchdown pass against Illinois ... averaged 16.4 yards per catch, tying for second highest on the team.

1997 - Freshman Season

Played in eight games ... worked his way into the wideout rotation at the flanker spot ... had one reception on the year, a 17-yarder in his home state versus Missouri.

High School

Attended East High School in St. Louis ... one of the most sought after receivers in the country and a second-team USA Today All-America ... named to numerous other high school All-America teams ... had 38 catches for 999 yards and 19 touchdowns as a senior ... high school teammate of Wisconsin cornerback Jamar Fletcher.

Personal

Son of Elmer and Jeannette Germany ... born March 19, 1978 ... as a freshman, starred for the Ohio State track team, running the 110-meter high hurdles and the 400-meter dash ... member of OSU's Big Ten champion 400-meter relay team (outdoors) which won the final collegiate track event in Ohio Stadium ... placed fourth at the outdoor Big Ten Championships in the 110-meter high hurdles with a time of :13.99 as a freshman.

Undeclared

Cie Grant makes the switch to linebacker this year after spending two seasons - one as a redshirt - at strong safety. He is an athletic playmaker that is making the transition from the high school to collegiate level and is constantly improving. Grant shined on special teams last year with his speed and tackling ability and will be counted on as a solid performer in that area again this season.

1999 - Redshirt Freshman Season

High School

Attended New Philadelphia High School ... all-state selection his senior year ... totaled 2,357 career-rushing yards, 25 touchdowns and 171 tackles ... also earned four letters in track and placed third in the state championship meet as a junior in the 400 meters.

41 Andre Griffin

Tailback
5-8, 185, Jr.
Shaker Heights, Ohio
Shaker Heights H.S.
Sociology

Andre Griffin, the fifth Griffin to wear an Ohio State uniform and son of two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin, returns for his third season in a Scarlet and Gray uniform. What he may lack in size and speed compared to Ohio State's other tailbacks, he makes up for with the ability to make people miss. The slithery, elusive Griffin is extremely tough to get a clean shot on, according to the OSU defensive corps. He has a low center of gravity and knows exactly how to use it. "The other tailbacks in front of him really learn from him by watching how he makes tacklers miss time and time again," Tim Spencer, running backs coach, said.

1999 - Sophomore Season

Made his collegiate debut and lone appearance of the year against Iowa ... rushed for 6 yards on three carries, including a career long 4-yard rush up the middle ... by coincidence, those carries came on the same day his father's number was retired (the first ever at Ohio State).

1998 - Freshman Season

Spent the 1998 season practicing with the team at the tailback position but did not see any game action.

High School

Attended Shaker Heights High School ... second-team all-state selection as a senior, leading his team to a conference championship ... named first-team all-Lake Erie League.

Personal

Son of Archie Griffin and Loretta Griffin ... born Feb. 16, 1979 ... is the fifth Griffin to wear an Ohio State uniform, following his father, uncles Duncan and Ray and cousin Kevin.

Offensive Guard

Hamilton H.S.
Sport & Leisure Studies

After just three practices this spring, Mike Gurr had already made a favorable impression on first-year offensive line coach George Belu. "I can tell there's some want in him," Belu said. "Mike has been a pleasant surprise so far. He really wants to be good. He asks good questions in meetings and works on things after practice. His attitude can carry him a long way." Gurr's huge 6-7, 290-pound frame won't hurt either. A fifth-year senior, Gurr is listed as the projected starter at left guard ... a three-time academic All-Big Ten selection.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in all 12 games and started the first five at left guard ... an Academic All-Big Ten selection and an OSU Scholar-Athlete ... logged 115 minutes of playing time, the highest total of his career to this point ... played a season-high 23 minutes in the season opener against Miami, a game in which he made his first career start.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in all 12 games ... an Academic All-Big Ten selection and an OSU Scholar-Athlete ... backed up All-American Rob Murphy the entire season ... totaled 81 minutes of playing time ... played a season-high 18 minutes in the win over Indiana and 15 minutes versus Toledo.

1997 - Redshirt Freshman Season

Played in nine games, making his collegiate debut against Bowling Green ... an OSU Scholar-Athlete ... started the season at offensive guard, but was shifted to tight end midway through the year.

High School

Attended Hamilton High School ... considered one of the top tight ends in the country out of high school ... a three-year starter who caught 29 passes in his final two seasons ... used mostly as a blocker.

88 Ben Hartsock

Tight End
6-4, 250, Fr.
Chillicothe, Ohio
Unioto H.S.
Undeclared

Ben Hartsock is a promising young tight end that was redshirted last season and recovered from an ankle injury sustained in the summer. He has prototypical tight end size and is extremely fundamentally sound. "Ben is a very well-rounded tight end," Bill Conley, tight ends coach, said. "He's a good blocker and a good receiver and has very deceiving speed. He's faster than a lot of people would think he would be. He played numerous positions in high school from running back to linebacker to tight end to kicker. He's very versatile." Ohio State uses several two tight end sets, meaning Hartsock's talents could be utilized frequently this season.

1999 - Redshirted

Hartsock will enter the 2000 season with four years of eligibility remaining.

High School

Attended Unioto High School ... first-team all-Ohio pick by the Associated Press as a senior ... recorded 86 receptions for 1,562 yards in his career ... rushed for 356 yards and nine touchdowns his final season ... also recorded 61 tackles, including 19 sacks.

55 Tam Hopkins

Winter Park, Fla.
Lake Howell H.S.
Sociology

The versatile Tam Hopkins is hungry to continue the progress he made last year. After making the move from guard to tackle prior to the 1999 season, Hopkins improved the entire year and was rewarded with his first collegiate start in the season's final game. That type of development, along with Hopkins' strength and explosiveness off the line, has the OSU coaching staff bursting with excitement over what's to come. "I like what I see in Tam a lot," George Belu, offensive line coach, said. "He is willing to spend time doing the little things right and that is the difference between being good and just being average. I like Tam's toughness and he is one of the strongest linemen we have." Hopkins has also been described as a player with a mental approach to the game. He will enter the 2000 season listed as the projected starter at right guard on the two-deep, and his ability to play tackle as well should be invaluable as the season progresses.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in all 12 games and started one, the season finale against Michigan ... the start against the Wolverines was the first of his collegiate career ... saw action at both tackle and guard ... logged 79 minutes of playing time, including a season- and career-high 28 minutes against Michigan ... also played 18 minutes against UCLA.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in nine games as the back-up to All-Big Ten guard Ben Gilbert ... suffered a fracture/dislocation of his right ankle in the first week of spring practice and wasn't fully healthy again until the start of fall camp ... recorded 90 minutes of playing time (high-24 against Indiana).

1997 - Freshman Season

Played in seven games and ended the season as the primary back-up at right guard ... played a total of 45 minutes ... logged a season-high nine minutes against both Indiana and Michigan State ... hospitalized with pneumonia over Christmas break and missed the Nokia Sugar Bowl against Florida State.

High School

Attended Lake Howell High School ... a first-team USA Today All-America ... named to virtually every other high school All-America team ... considered by many recruiting experts to be the top lineman in the state of Florida as a senior ... named one of the Top 100 players in the South by the Atlanta Constitution.

Everyone could learn a lesson in attitude from Mike Jacobs. Now in his fourth year with the Ohio State program, Jacobs has learned a number of positions and, in the words of the OSU coaching staff, "has done everything we've asked of him." Jacobs has stood out as a long-snapper in the past and may get a chance to excel at that position with the departure of Kevin Houser to graduation. "Mike is a young man with a lot of willingness and a lot of want. He wants to do things really well," George Belu, offensive line coach, said.

1999 - Sophomore Season

Played in three games ... logged a total of five minutes, including a season-high three minutes against Iowa.

1998 - Redshirt Freshman Season

Played in four ... won the back-up long-snapping job in fall camp when Kevin Houser was slowed with a wrist injury ... played seven minutes, including a season- and career-high four against Toledo.

60 Brent Johnson

Defensive End
6-3, 265, Sr.
Kingston, Ont.
Holy Cross H.S.
Biology

Eye-popping skills in the trenches of the defensive line speak volumes about Brent Johnson - quickly becoming a household name in Columbus. Now in his third year as a starter, Johnson burst onto the OSU scene as a sophomore and his career has been marked by consistency and steady improvement ever since. As his high school defensive coach Rob Ball puts it, "Brent Johnson runs like a deer and hits like a truck." His 6-3, 265-pound frame is more than wide enough to stuff the run and his speed and athleticism allow him to rush the quarterback, contain the option and even drop back into pass coverage. "The things about Brent is that his motor runs on every play. He will always give you an absolutely great effort," Jim Heacock, defensive line coach, said. Coaches have called Johnson a "deceiving player," saying he is much stronger and quicker than he first appears. As a senior with 23 starts to his credit - the most of any Ohio State defensive player - Johnson, listed as the starter at defensive end on the preseason depth chart, will be expected to be a leader in the defensive huddle.

1999 - Junior Season

Started 11 games and played extensively in all 12 ... ranked fourth among defensive linemen with 34 tackles, including 16 solo stops ... tied for fourth on the team with 2.5 sacks and recorded five tackles-for-loss ... was the hero of the Purdue game Oct. 9, flying over a pile of defenders and blocking a potential game-tying field goal with 53 seconds remaining ... made a season-high six tackles against Wisconsin, including one sack ... recorded four or more tackles in four of Ohio State's first five games ... played 275 minutes (including 32 against Michigan State), the seventh most on the team and the most of any Ohio State defensive lineman.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Started all 12 games at defensive end and was awarded the Jack Stephenson Award, given annually to the team's outstanding defensive lineman ... led all linemen with 40 tackles ... led the team with six quarterback sacks for losses totaling 37 yards ... made his first collegiate interception in the win over Northwestern ... credited with one pass break-up ... made a season-high five tackles in the win over Minnesota and had four tackles with two behind the line of scrimmage in the win over Michigan.

1997 - Freshman Season

Saw action in five games and was credited with one tackle ... played a total of 15 minutes with a high of four in the season opener against Wyoming.

Son of Diane (deceased) and Brenton Johnson ... born Dec. 7, 1976 ... has four sisters - three older and one younger ... one of two Canadian players on the Ohio State roster (Clinton Wayne) ... was a defenseman and center in hockey as a child and was considered to have Junior A and professional potential.

Eric Klaban walked on to the team in the fall of 1998. Although he arrived in Columbus from the state of Michigan, he grew up in Cincinnati and said he, "always wanted to be a Buckeye." Not surprising since his father, Tom, kicked four field goals in Ohio State's 12-10 win over Michigan in 1974 and is still in the Buckeye record book in several categories.

1999 - Redshirt Freshman Season

Columbus, Ohio

Jesse Kline's attitude speaks for itself. Last year when Matt Keller went down with an ankle injury and Ohio State suddenly was left with only two fullbacks, Kline went to running backs coach Tim Spencer and volunteered to leave his high school position of tailback - the position that had earned him national honors and recognition - to make the switch to fullback. "He's got a different attitude than most guys," Spencer said. "We had thought about asking him to make the move to fullback, but then he came to us and actually volunteered. You don't see that very often." Kline is the fastest of three Ohio State fullbacks with 4.6 speed. He is extremely athletic and will enter the 2000 season battling for the No. 2 spot on the depth chart at fullback.

1999 - Redshirted

Kline enters 2000 with four years of eligibility remaining.

16 Craig Krenzel

Quarterback
6-4, 215, Fr.
Utica, Mich.
Henry Ford II H.S.
Undeclared

As quarterbacks coach Tim Salem told the Columbus Dispatch last year, a backup quarterback is only "an ankle sprain away" from stepping into the spotlight. Keeping that in mind, Ohio State couldn't ask for a better situation with redshirt freshmen Craig Krenzel and Scott McMullen battling for that position. The tallest of the three OSU quarterbacks, Krenzel is a pure pocket passer that is very athletic and finished last season as the team's third-string quarterback. "He's a very poised young man that made great strides in his first year," Salem said. "He's fighting for the backup position now, and he'll be a player here before it's all said and done."

Scott Kuhnhein just doesn't make many mistakes - whether it be on the football field or in the classroom. The big Kentucky native has soaked up offensive lineman trade secrets from All-Big Ten guard Ben Gilbert the past two seasons and worked his way onto the two-deep for the first time this spring. He'll be worked at both guard and center this year and is a big part of the future of the trenches at Ohio State. "Scott is really an intelligent football player," George Belu, offensive line coach, said. "He'll have very few missed assignments. It's not a question if Kelton Lindsay is going to play, it's only a matter of when the lightning quick Ohio product will take the field. An excellent athlete that came to Ohio State with outstanding high school credentials, Lindsay underwent knee surgery following last season and his rehabilitation will dictate his playing time this year. "Kelton has a lot of athletic ability," Jon Tenuta, defensive backs coach, said. "He has the potential to be a very good football player." Lindsay played mostly on special teams last year and was listed as this year's No. 2 cornerback on the preseason depth chart.

Locke is at OSU on an academic scholarship and walked-on to the team in the spring of 1998. He has a passion for the game and has found various ways to contribute to the program since his arrival. "Tony Locke has good quickness and has improved drastically since he walked-on here," Tim Salem, receivers coach, said. Locke will be a key special teams player for Ohio State this season and attempt to work his way into the wideout rotation.

39 Jamar Martin

Fullback
6-0, 245, Jr.
Canton, Ohio
McKinley H.S.
Undeclared

Whether it's with a bulldozing block or head down, steamrolling fullback draw, Jamar Martin punishes people. It appears Martin was manufactured with thoughts of creating the perfect fullback. He packs 245 pounds into a compact 6-0 frame and has a low center of gravity to complement his quick feet. Martin has been described as a prototype I-formation fullback and a pave-the-way, crushing blocker that never backs down from a challenge. No one ever questioned his ability to block like a snowplow, and last year he proved he can run the ball and catch passes out of the backfield. "He really likes to hit people," Tim Spencer, running backs coach, said. "He's our bruiser, our enforcer. I like his attitude." Martin entered last season behind senior captain Matt Keller on the two-deep at fullback but got the chance to shine when Keller was sidelined for half the season with an ankle injury. This year the job is all Martin's, so look for him to develop into one of the premier - and most punishing - fullbacks in the Big Ten.

1999 - Sophomore Season

Started six games and played in all 12 ... rushed for 100 yards on 19 carries ... averaged 5.3 yards per carry, the second highest total on the team (trailing only Jonathan Wells' 5.7) ... paved the way for honorable mention All-Big Ten tailback Michael Wiley to rush for just under 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns ... rushed for a season-high 35 yards against Michigan ... had a career-long 21-yard run off left tackle and a 1-yard catch for a go-ahead touchdown, at Michigan ... rushed for 27 yards, his second highest total of the year, on five carries against Ohio University ... season-high for carries was five against Ohio University and UCLA ... also scored his first touchdown of the year against the Bruins ... registered at least one carry in seven games ... caught three passes for 10 yards.

1998 - Freshman Season

Got the chance to play because of an injury three games into the season and made the most of it, emerging as the primary back-up at fullback by the end of the season ... opened eyes by opening holes with tremendously physical blocks and showing the ability to catch balls out of the backfield ... played in 11 games and totaled 34 rushing yards on 12 carries ... caught five passes for 68 yards ... four of his five catches went for 12 or more yards ... scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 10-yard run vs. Iowa ... had six carries for a season-high 21 yards against the Hawkeyes ... made his collegiate debut against West Virginia in the season opener with a 4-yard run.

High School

Attended Canton McKinley High School, a perennial football power in the state of Ohio ... helped his team capture the Division I (large school) state championship as a senior in 1997 with a perfect 14-0 mark ... McKinley also was recognized by USA Today that year as the national high school champion ... a second team all-state pick ... averaged 6.2 yards per carry off 59 rushes for 368 yards ... scored five touchdowns ... also played linebacker and made 59 tackles his senior year, including five sacks.

Offensive Lineman
6-5, 290, Jr.
Brecksville, Ohio
St. Ignatius H.S.
Business

Equipped with the natural size and strength of an offensive lineman, Jim Massey is set to contribute more than he ever has to the Ohio State football program in this his junior season. The prep star's development was slowed two years ago after he underwent back surgery prior to his redshirt freshman season and wasn't able to even strap on the pads until December. Massey used last year - essentially his first full season as a Buckeye - to learn the ropes of being a collegiate offensive lineman and this spring was listed as the primary backup at left tackle. "Jim has good size and great strength," George Belu, offensive line coach, said. "I think it's just a matter of time before he becomes a really good football player."

1999 - Sophomore Season

Played in five games ... made his first collegiate appearance in the second game of the season against UCLA ... played 13 minutes on the year ... recorded a season-high six minutes against Ohio University.

15 Scott McMullen

Quarterback
6-3, 195, Fr.
Granville, Ohio
Granville H.S.
Undeclared

The statements the Ohio State coaching staff make about local product Scott McMullen are the kind that make people turn their heads and listen. "Scott is a kid that has made more strides from last fall than any other player on the offensive side of the ball," Tim Salem, quarterbacks coach, said. "He finished spring practice on a very good note. He has great poise in the pocket and a strong enough arm that he can reach all parts of the field. We've been really pleased with his progress late in the year." McMullen is in a heated battle with fellow redshirt freshman Craig Krenzel for the No. 2 spot at quarterback. McMullen has gotten visibly stronger since arriving on campus and is noted by the coaching staff for picking up the offense quickly.

Cornerback
5-10, 178, Fr.
Park Forest, Ill.
Rich East H.S.
Undeclared

Redshirt freshman Richard McNutt came to Ohio State with unparalleled credentials and it's only a matter of time before those shine through on the field. McNutt suffered an ankle infection as a senior in high school and the injury lingered last year, slowing his adjustment to the college game. "McNutt is coming along," Jon Tenuta, defensive coordinator, said. "The ankle injury that occurred in high school forced him to sit out all of last year and we're still working through that. He's improving every day in practice and we'll look for big things from him in the future." Depending on his ankle, McNutt could challenge for the back-up spot at cornerback this season, only his second at OSU.

1999 - Redshirted

McNutt enters 2000 with four years of eligibility remaining.

High School

Attended Rich East High School ... considered one of the Top 5 defensive back prospects in the nation by The National Recruiting Advisor and Superprep ... did not play as a senior because of a severe ankle infection ... named the No. 3 prospect in the Midwest by the Detroit Free Press ... a USA Today honorable mention All-America selection ... a preseason Parade All-America entering his senior season ... made 14 interceptions as a junior and five as a sophomore ... long jumped 23 feet and hit the 47-foot mark in the triple jump to finish second in the state meet in both events as a junior.

Cornerback

Physical Therapy

David Mitchell finds himself in an unfamiliar position heading into the 2000 season - but one that he has been dreaming about for three years. As the lone senior in the defensive backfield and a starter at cornerback, Mitchell is the senior statesman of the Ohio State secondary. A smart football player that just seems to get better and better, Mitchell has just one career start to his credit but is a veteran of 36 games - second most on the team. He has all the attributes of a solid corner, including speed, agility, leaping ability and natural athleticism. Mix that in with his exceptional understanding of the game and defensive schemes and you've got the makings of a great cornerback that can lead not only the secondary but the entire defense. "David Mitchell is really the leader of the group because he's been here the longest," Jon Tenuta, defensive backs coach, said. "Everyone looks up to him. He's done a great job for us. He can play both corner and safety. David is a great kid that works hard every day to get better."

Undeclared

Donnie Nickey's voyage since coming to Ohio State mimics a Hollywood storyline - except this one really happened. In a matter of only 18 months, Nickey went from being a scout-team wide receiver to a freshman All-America defensive back. An athletic, smart football player, he will make the switch to free safety this year after starting at strong safety last season. Nickey has been described as tough and very coachable by the Ohio State staff. "Donnie is a smart player," Jon Tenuta, defensive backs coach, said. "He's playing free safety now and he has to make a lot of calls. He's the kind of player that can handle that." Nickey has good size for a defensive back and will be a big part of the OSU defense for the next three seasons.

Undeclared

Pat O'Neill is the Christmas present the Ohio State coaching staff can't wait to unwrap. After being redshirted last season, the talents of this 6-3, 230-pound linebacker with good quickness are yet to be put on full display. O'Neill has visibly benefited from time in the weight room in the offseason and will continue to learn Ohio State's defensive schemes and adjust to the college game this year. "We're anxious to see Pat play," Brian Williams, linebacker coach, said. "He's got a great work ethic and a good demeanor to play linebacker." O'Neill is listed as the primary back-up to Joe Cooper at Ohio State's weak side linebacker spot on the preseason depth chart and should get every opportunity to earn his first minutes of collegiate playing time this year.

30 Jason Ott

Linebacker
6-4, 240, Jr.
Cincinnati, Ohio
Elder H.S.
Communications

Jason Ott's 1999 season might best be described as a roller coaster - there were several exciting peaks (a 15-tackle performance against Wisconsin and 25 tackles in the last three games) a couple dips (a performance against Miami that he admitted was filled with anxiety about his first start), and in the end, you couldn't wait to get back in line and do it again. Ott improved over the course of last season as much as any player on the OSU roster, and that progress has everyone excited about his potential in the 2000 season. He was thrust into the starting job at middle linebacker last season as an inexperienced sophomore and responded by making 79 tackles. Ott, a very intelligent player and excellent student, is blessed with speed and strength and is one of the team's top run-stoppers. "Jason's big plus is his ability to play the run between the tackles," Brian Williams, linebackers coach, said. "He's a solid run defender from tackle-to-tackle and he's got good leadership abilities. When you play the linebacker position, you're kind of like the quarterback of the defense from a leadership standpoint. That's a role we need Jason to develop into."

1999 - Sophomore Season

Started all 12 games at middle linebacker after entering the season with only 37 minutes of collegiate experience ... a District IV GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America and an Academic All-Big Ten selection ... ranked fourth on the team with 79 tackles (55 solos) ... tied for second on the squad with 11 tackles-for-loss ... had two sacks and one interception, the latter of which came against Cincinnati ... tied for the team lead with two fumble recoveries ... made a season- and career-high 15 tackles, including nine solos, a tackle-for-loss, and a sack, against Wisconsin ... also recorded double-figure tackles against Cincinnati with 11 and Michigan State with 10 ... blocked a 39-yard field goal attempt by Travis Forney of Penn State ... really came on as the season progressed and averaged over eight tackles per game in the last three contests ... also had five tackles-for-loss in the last three games ... one of only three players on the team to make a tackle-for-loss, record a sack and grab an interception.

1998 - Redshirt Freshman Season

Played in 10 games as a backup to All-American Andy Katzenmoyer ... an Academic All-Big Ten selection and an OSU Scholar-Athlete ... made six tackles, including five solos ... logged 37 minutes of playing time ... played a season-high 16 minutes against Toledo and recorded a season-high four tackles, including his first career sack.

High School

Attended Elder High School ... the Ohio Gatorade Player of the Year and the Associated Press Division I (big school) Defensive Player of the Year as a senior ... made 177 tackles including 12 sacks in his final campaign, helping Elder to an 11-2 record and a regional championship ... the Cincinnati Defensive Player of the Year by both the Cincinnati Enquirer and the Cincinnati Post ... named to numerous high school All-America teams and rated the best player in Ohio by Parade Magazine ... played in the 1997 Ohio-Pennsylvania Big 33 Classic alongside current teammate and fellow linebacker Joe Cooper.

Fred Pagac grew up with a football in his arms and it shows. The son of Ohio State assistant head coach Fred Pagac Sr. and a Columbus-area product, Pagac is an extremely smart linebacker that plays bigger than his size. He's an expert on football fundamentals and rarely misses a tackle. Pagac is recovering from a broken right tibia suffered last year five games into the season against Wisconsin. He is expected to be back to 100 percent by the beginning of the season. "There haven't been any problems with his recovery," Brian Williams, linebacker coach, said.

"He's coming back nicely. He's got great football awareness because he's been around the game all of his life." Pagac will enter the year as the primary back-up at middle linebacker and should continue to show the kind of progress made in the five games last year prior to the injury.

1999 - Freshman Season

Played in five games before breaking his right tibia against Wisconsin ... made 11 tackles on the year, including seven solos ... was the team's leading freshman tackler prior to the injury ... logged a total of 40 minutes, including a season-high 15 against Ohio ... made a season-high four tackles against Ohio, including his first career tackle-for-loss ... made three tackles in the Wisconsin game before sustaining the injury early in the fourth quarter ... first career tackle came in the season opener against Miami.

Tight ends coach Bill Conley summed up Marvin Payne with one simple sentence: "He just loves being a Buckeye." Payne walked on to the team in 1996 and has remained one of the squad's hardest workers ever since. He has experimented at both the tight end and fullback position, but seems to have found a niche at tight end this season and will also see time on special teams. "Marvin Payne is a very unselfish person and player," Conley said. "He works really hard and is a very good blocker for being a little undersized."

Marcus Perez is in his fourth year as a Buckeye and continues to be one of the team's top pass rushers. He has increased his strength each season and is in excellent physical condition. Although not listed on the preseason depth chart, Jim Heacock, defensive line coach, said Perez will factor into the scheme this year. "Marcus Perez has really good pass rushing abilities," he said. "I'm going to try and play as many guys as I can. If I can get a guy like him that is really good at pass rushing, I'll definitely use his skills in third-and-long situations."

1999 - Junior Season

Played in all 12 games last year ... did not register a tackle ... played a season-high three minutes against Illinois.

It's only a matter of time for Kenny Peterson. A rising star on the Ohio State defense, Peterson is loaded with upside, according to the OSU coaching staff. He learned tons of invaluable lessons about defensive schemes and offensive fronts the past two years and is now ready to let his natural athleticism take over. Peterson stands out from other defensive ends because of his lightning quick instincts, Jim Heacock, defensive line coach, said. He feels pressure before it gets there and fights through it extremely well. "Kenny is loaded with potential,' Heacock said. "The key for him is getting more experience and more confidence." Peterson is listed as a back-up defensive end on the preseason depth chart but look for him to get plenty of playing time in Ohio State's deep defensive line rotation.

79 Ryan Pickett

Zephyrhills H.S.

Ryan Pickett's value is rising. One of several Ohio State awards candidates on the defensive front four, Pickett owns quick feet, a massive frame and superior strength - a rare combination that will allow him to dominate the trenches. Many believe the strength of a defense is up the middle. If this is the case, Ohio State fans can breathe easy with Pickett's 290-pounds of pass-rushing, run-stuffing mayhem. He has improved noticeably each season and at times seems to improve each game. Off-season workouts brought his weight down 20 pounds, following his freshman year and 10 more pounds after last season, while at the same time improving his strength and quickness and leaving him a muscle-laden 290 pounds. Pickett has been a fixture on the OSU defensive front for two years and owns the longest consecutive-start streak among all defensive players (21 games). After learning the defensive system his rookie season, fellow Buckeyes were amazed at how quickly the massive Pickett came off the line. "He has great instincts," Jim Heacock, defensive line coach, said. "He reacts well to the football and to different blocking schemes. He's one of our best run defenders." Pickett came to Ohio State two years ago with a trophy case overflowing with high school accolades. This might just be the year he starts a new one containing his college awards.

1999 - Sophomore Season

Started all 12 games at right defensive tackle ... an honorable mention all-Big Ten selection by the coaches ... ranked third among defensive linemen and ninth on the team with 48 tackles (34 solos, 14 assists) ... ranked second among all defensive linemen in minutes played with 266, including a season-high 29 against Michigan State ... recorded a season- and career-high seven tackles on two occasions: vs. Cincinnati and vs. Michigan State ... one of only four players on the team to record at least nine tackles-for-loss and three sacks ... ranked fifth on the team with nine TFL and tied for fourth with three sacks ... sacks came against UCLA, Wisconsin and Iowa ... notched at least four tackles in five games ... recorded at least one tackle-for-loss in eight games.

1998 - Freshman Season

Played in all 13 games and started the final nine ... was the only true freshman to start ... played more minutes (150) than any other true freshman ... made his first-collegiate start against Penn State and never lost the promotion, starting each game the rest of the season ... ranked third among defensive linemen and 11th on the team with 22 tackles ... shared the team's first-year defensive player of the year award with fellow tackle Mike Collins ... notched five tackles-for-loss and two sacks ... first career tackle-for-loss came against Penn State ... made a season-high four tackles against Toledo ... improved statistically as the season wore on and recorded three tackles in each of the final three regular-season games: vs. Michigan State, vs. Iowa and vs. Michigan.

83 Vaness Provitt

Split End
6-3, 205, Sr.
Warren, Ohio
Harding H.S.
Sociology

To say that the always reliable and hard-working Vaness Provitt has had an interesting four years at Ohio State would be an Olympic-caliber understatement. It started with a painful pelvic fracture and dislocated hip in the fall of 1998 that had him wondering if he'd ever walk again. After intense rehabilitation, he broke his ankle in the spring of 1999 and required another surgery. More rehab followed, and just when people were beginning to wonder if the all-state high school player would ever play football again, Provitt emerged faster than he had ever been - dropping his 40-yard dash time from 4.6 to 4.4. "The injury he had was a really serious one, yet he came back in the spring and he looked faster than he ever did," Chuck Stobart, offensive coordinator, said, who described the whole ordeal as "mind-boggling." Provitt enters his final season in perfect health and is listed as the second string split end on the depth chart. He'll be a key part of Ohio State's third down and long-yardage attack. "Vaness is a very steady performer. He's very reliable and very accountable," Tim Salem, receivers coach, said.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in 11 games ... made seven catches for 122 yards, the third-highest totals among all receivers on the team ... averaged 17.4 yards per catch ... excelled late in the season, making five catches for 104 yards in his final three games ... had a season-high two catches against Illinois and Michigan ... longest catch of the year was a 41-yard touchdown grab against Iowa ... played a season-high 19 minutes versus Minnesota ... made at least one catch in each of his last four games ... played a total of 58 minutes, the third highest figure among all wideouts on the roster.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Missed the entire season with a pelvic fracture sustained during fall camp ... was behind David Boston at split end prior to the injury.

1997 - Redshirt Freshman Season

Played in eight games ... caught six passes for 56 yards ... made first collegiate reception, a 7-yard catch, against Wyoming in the season opener ... longest catch of the year went for 15 yards against Bowling Green ... made a season-high two receptions for 17 yards against Illinois ... made at least one catch in five of the eight games he played in ... his six catches ranked second among all freshmen receivers.

High School

Attended Harding High School ... a first-team all-state honoree by the Associated Press ... caught three touchdown passes and was the Most Valuable Player of the 1994 Ohio-Pennsylvania Big 33 Classic - the most prestigious high school all-star game in the country ... earned eight varsity letters at Harding, three each in football and basketball and two in baseball ... attended Fork Union Military Academy in 1995 and caught 37 passes for 1,200 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Heath Queen's playing time has improved each season at Ohio State, and this year should be no different. A massive pass rushing specialist, Queen is a lock to always play every down like it might be his last. "He has a great attitude and he always gives us a great effort," Jim Heacock, defensive line coach, said. "He worked hard in the offseason and you can see the improvement." For the first time in his career, Queen has worked his way on to the two-deep entering the season. He's listed as one of two people for the backup spot at defensive tackle, and should be a part of Ohio State's defensive line rotation.

1999 - Sophomore Season

Played in eight games ... totaled 34 minutes, including a career-high 11 minutes against Penn State ... recorded six tackles, the highest single-season total of his career thus far ... started the season with a bang, making four tackles in only six minutes of playing time against Miami (Fla.).

4 Ken-Yon Rambo

Flanker
6-1, 190, Sr.
Cerritos, Calif.
Long Beach Poly
Sociology

Ken-Yon Rambo is one of the most dangerous players in the Big Ten Conference. There is no substitute for speed and Rambo has it. He's been blazing past baffled cornerbacks and safeties since he was a freshman. But after two years behind one of the best receivers in school history and one season as a starter, Rambo's skills - soft hands and precision route-running - are developing at an accelerated rate. "He has the capability of taking the ball 80 yards down the field every play," quarterback Steve Bellisari said. "He can make one guy miss and you're not going to catch him. He has that capability for every play." By the end of the season, Rambo developed into one of Bellisari's favorite targets. Look for that chemistry to continue this season. Rambo's natural athleticism also makes him tough to bring down after the catch. As a senior, he'll be expected to not only be one of the top receivers on the Ohio State roster but one of the top wideouts nationally. "Ken-Yon is one of our more talented players on the offensive side of the football. He's a big-play player and will be a big factor in determining our success this season," Tim Salem, receivers coach, said.

1999 - Junior Season

Started all 12 games at flanker and led all Ohio State wide receivers with 250 minutes played ... made 41 catches and led the team with 833 receiving yards ... an honorable mention all-Big Ten selection by both the media and coaches ... captured the Paul Warfield Award, given annually to Ohio State's top receiver ... ranked fourth in the Big Ten in receiving yards per game (69.4) and all-purpose yards per game (128.3) ... ranked 10th in the conference in receptions per game (3.42) ... posted the eighth- and ninth-biggest receiving days in Ohio State football history, respectively, gaining 181 yards on seven catches against Ohio and 179 yards on seven catches versus Iowa ... also enjoyed a big day against Cincinnati with three receptions for 164 yards ... developed into Ohio State's big-play man with 13 catches in excess of 30 yards and five receptions over 50 yards ... longest catch of the year (and of his career) was a 68-yard touchdown strike versus Ohio ... caught eight passes against UCLA, the most by any OSU player in 1999 ... ranked second on the team with six touchdowns ... carried the ball five times for 34 yards (6.8 yards per carry), all in reverse situations ... as the team's primary kickoff return man, piled on 653 yards on 31 returns (21.1 yard average) ...ranked fifth in the conference in kickoff returns ... recorded a career- and season-long 53-yard kickoff return against Michigan.

California native Jack Tucker likes to surf, but his attitude on the playing field is anything but laid back. Defensive Tackle

Brampton, Ont.
Centennial H.S.
Sport & Leisure Studies

Experience counts for a lot in college football, and no one on the defensive side of the ball is more experienced than Clinton Wayne. A veteran of 36 games, Wayne has the kind of knowledge that will be invaluable to Ohio State's defensive line. "Clinton is a veteran player who has good quickness and gives us great effort," Jim Heacock, defensive line coach, said. "He's a guy that can get to the quarterback." Wayne is listed as a backup at the defensive tackle spot on the two-deep but he's shown the ability to start in the past. Look for him to vie for quality playing time this fall.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in nine games, making four tackles ... two were solos against Ohio and Purdue ... pounced on a loose ball for his first-career fumble recovery against Michigan after Mike Doss crunched Tom Brady to jar the ball loose ... played at least six minutes in eight of his nine games.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in all 12 games and started the first four ... made the switch to defensive tackle after spending the previous two years at defensive end ... most likely would have started more but was hampered by a midseason knee injury ... made 20 tackles (10 solos), the fifth most of any defensive lineman on the team ... notched his first-career sack against Michigan ... made his second-career interception against Northwestern and returned it 17 yards ... recorded two tackles-for-loss ... season high for tackles was three, coming against Indiana, Michigan and Texas A&M.

1997 - Redshirt Freshman Season

Played in all 13 games and started four times ... majority of his playing time, and each of his four starts, came at defensive end ... made 11 tackles (eight solos), the fifth most of any freshman on the team ... recorded a season-high three tackles at Missouri ... made an extremely athletic play against Indiana that made everyone's highlight reel, batting down a pass at the line of scrimmage then grabbing the ball out of the air and returning it 38 yards for a touchdown.

1996 - Freshman Season

Played three games but suffered a stinger and was redshirted.

High School

Attended Centennial High School ... regarded by most recruiting experts as the best player in Canada his senior year.

28 Jonathan Wells

Tailback
6-1, 230, Jr.
River Ridge, La.
John Curtis H.S.
Undeclared

Buckeye fans are quick to compare Jonathan Wells with former great Eddie George. After all, both are big, punishing runners with blazing speed. George broke into the starting lineup as a junior at Ohio State. Wells hopes to do the same this year and write his own legacy. His style is comparable to George's in several ways. Wells can bulldoze over one defender, stiff arm another, jump into an unknown gear and seemingly run away from the pack. He appears to get stronger and stronger as the game wears on. Maybe it was no coincidence that when asked who he admired most on his freshman football player questionnaire two years ago, Wells listed George. Wells has 4.4 speed and Tim Spencer, OSU running backs coach, said has gotten bigger, stronger and faster in the offseason.

1999 - Sophomore Season

Played in nine games and rushed for 292 yards on 51 carries ... suffered an ankle injury in the season opener against Miami that sidelined him for three games and hampered him until late in the year ... led all Ohio State rushers with an average of 5.7 yards per carry ... was at full strength the last two games of the year and ran for a combined 148 yards on just eight carries ... rumbled for a season-high 85 yards in the finale at Michigan, including a career-long 76-yard run ... emerged as a big play threat in the second half of the year, averaging 8.3 yards per carry over the last five games (241 yards on 29 rushes) ... ran for 51 yards on nine carries against Iowa and scored two touchdowns, marking the first multiple-touchdown game of his career ... caught five passes for 17 yards.

1998 - Freshman Season

Enjoyed an outstanding rookie season, playing in all 12 games and rushing 41 times for 197 yards, the third highest total on the team ... carried the ball in 10 of his 12 games ... scored his first collegiate touchdown in his first game, a 7-yard run at West Virginia ... ran for a season-high 48 yards on 10 carries against Toledo ... longest run of the year was a 25-yarder in the win over Iowa ... scored his second touchdown of the season on a 2-yard dive against Illinois ... caught one pass for 11 yards on the year (vs. Minnesota) ... returned three kickoffs for 61 yards.

27 Jerry Westbrooks

Tailback
6-2, 231, Sr.
Boca Raton, Fla.
Pope John Paul II
Economics

Jerry Westbrooks is gifted with incredible natural ability. The fifth-year senior stands a hair above 6-2, is 231 pounds of solid muscle, and has 4.3 speed. Westbrooks has yet to receive the number of carries he would like. That may change this year. Although Derek Combs is listed as the No. 1 tailback on the preseason depth chart, Tim Spencer, running backs coach, predicts heated battles for playing time. "We've got three guys that will wage some interesting battles for playing time at tailback. I see Jerry as a young man that is ready for a coming-out party." The OSU coaching staff has moved Westbrooks, and his multiple talents, from position-to-position over the last four years in an attempt to find an open spot - from tailback to fullback to strong safety followed by a return to tailback. At any position, his potent combination of speed and strength is an asset.

1999 - Junior Season

Played in 11 games and rushed for 70 yards on 17 carries ... ran seven times for 31 yards and his first career touchdown against UCLA ... broke free for a 15-yard gain against the Bruins, the longest run of his career ... the 7-yard touchdown versus UCLA came on his second carry of the game and only the third carry of his career ... rumbled for a season-high 33 yards on just six carries in the win over Iowa ... carried the ball in a total of five games ... played a season-high eight minutes against Penn State ... caught his first pass vs. Ohio.

1998 - Sophomore Season

Played in eight games, mostly on special teams but at times as a reserve tailback ... recorded one carry on the season - the first of his collegiate career - and gained 3 yards against Toledo ... played a total of 15 minutes on the year.

1997 - Redshirt Freshman Season

Played in three games ... began the year as a fullback but was shifted to safety midway through fall camp ... recorded a tackle-for-loss, his lone stop of the year and forced a fumble against Bowling Green.

High School

Attended Pope John Paul II High School...picked as a high school All-America by several publications ... two-time all-state selection ... rushed for 2,968 yards in his career and scored 41 touchdowns ... also an all-state performer in basketball and track ... made 202 tackles and recorded 31 sacks in his four years ... earned a total of 12 varsity letters - four each in football, track and basketball.

35 Matt Wilhelm

Linebacker
6-4, 245, So.
Elyria, Ohio
Elyria Catholic H.S.
Undeclared

Matt Wilhelm seems to impress just about everyone that lays eyes on him. There aren't many young football players with a gigantic 6-4 frame that remain as agile and quick-footed as he is. Wilhelm is a rare breed - a massive and towering linebacker that runs like a defensive back and changes direction like a tailback. "He's one of the most intriguing people we have because of his size," Brian Williams, linebackers coach, said. "He has great potential here. He's a great athlete that can run, jump, and change direction quickly. You just don't get that in guys his size very often." Wilhelm's stock took off near the end of last season and he saw plenty of action at linebacker in the last four games.

1999 - Freshman Season

Played in 11 games on both special teams and as a backup linebacker ... made 16 tackles (eight solos), the second-highest total among all OSU freshmen ... had two tackles-for-loss, including one sack ... the only Ohio State rookie to record a sack last year (vs. UCLA) ... in on a season-high four tackles against Michigan State ... also played a season-high 18 minutes against the Spartans ... made at least one stop in seven of the 11 games he played ... made his first career tackle just seconds after stepping on to the field for the first time as a collegian, dragging down UCLA's Fred Mitchell on the game's opening kickoff.

High School

Attended Elyria Catholic High School ... a first-team all-state selection by the Associated Press ... recorded 100 tackles and 26 tackles-for-loss (including 11 sacks) at linebacker as a senior ... called a "super sleeper" by several recruiting publications ... also played tight end and running back.

John Cooper

John Cooper, now in his 13th season as head coach of the Ohio State University Buckeyes and his 24th season overall, is the architect of one of the most nationally-recognized and powerful football programs in the country. During the past decade, he has established himself as one of the top coaches in the storied history of Ohio State football and, indeed, one of the top head coaches in the nation.

With an Ohio State record of 103-39-4, Cooper is the second-winningest coach in OSU history, trailing only the legendary Woody Hayes, who totaled 205 victories in his 28 years with the Buckeyes. Cooper also has the third longest coaching tenure in Ohio State annals - behind Hayes and John W. Wilce (16).

The Cooper era at Ohio State has been marked by incredible stability.

Last season, Cooper became only the second coach in Ohio State football history to eclipse the 100-win plateau. OSU has not had a losing season in the last 10 years and has become a perennial contender for the Big Ten and National championships. OSU finished the 1990s with 91 wins - one of just two Big Ten schools to win at least 90 games. The 91 wins are the seventh-best win total in the decade among all Division 1-A schools.

A 1998 finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year award and a semifinalist for the Football News Coach of the Year award, Cooper is the sixth-winningest active collegiate coach with a career mark of 185-79-6.

Cooper, the dean of Big Ten coaches, has guided Ohio State teams to five New Year's Day bowl games in the last six years, four of those teams recording at least 10 victories. The Buckeyes made 10-consecutive bowl appearances from 1989-1999.

Just as Cooper's teams have enjoyed success, so, too, have his student-athletes. In the decade of the 90s, no coach had more players win individual honors -- accolades that came both in the classroom and on the playing field.

Under Cooper

20 Buckeyes have earned first-team All-America honors.

104 have been named Academic All-Big Ten

Seven have won National Football Foundation Scholarships.

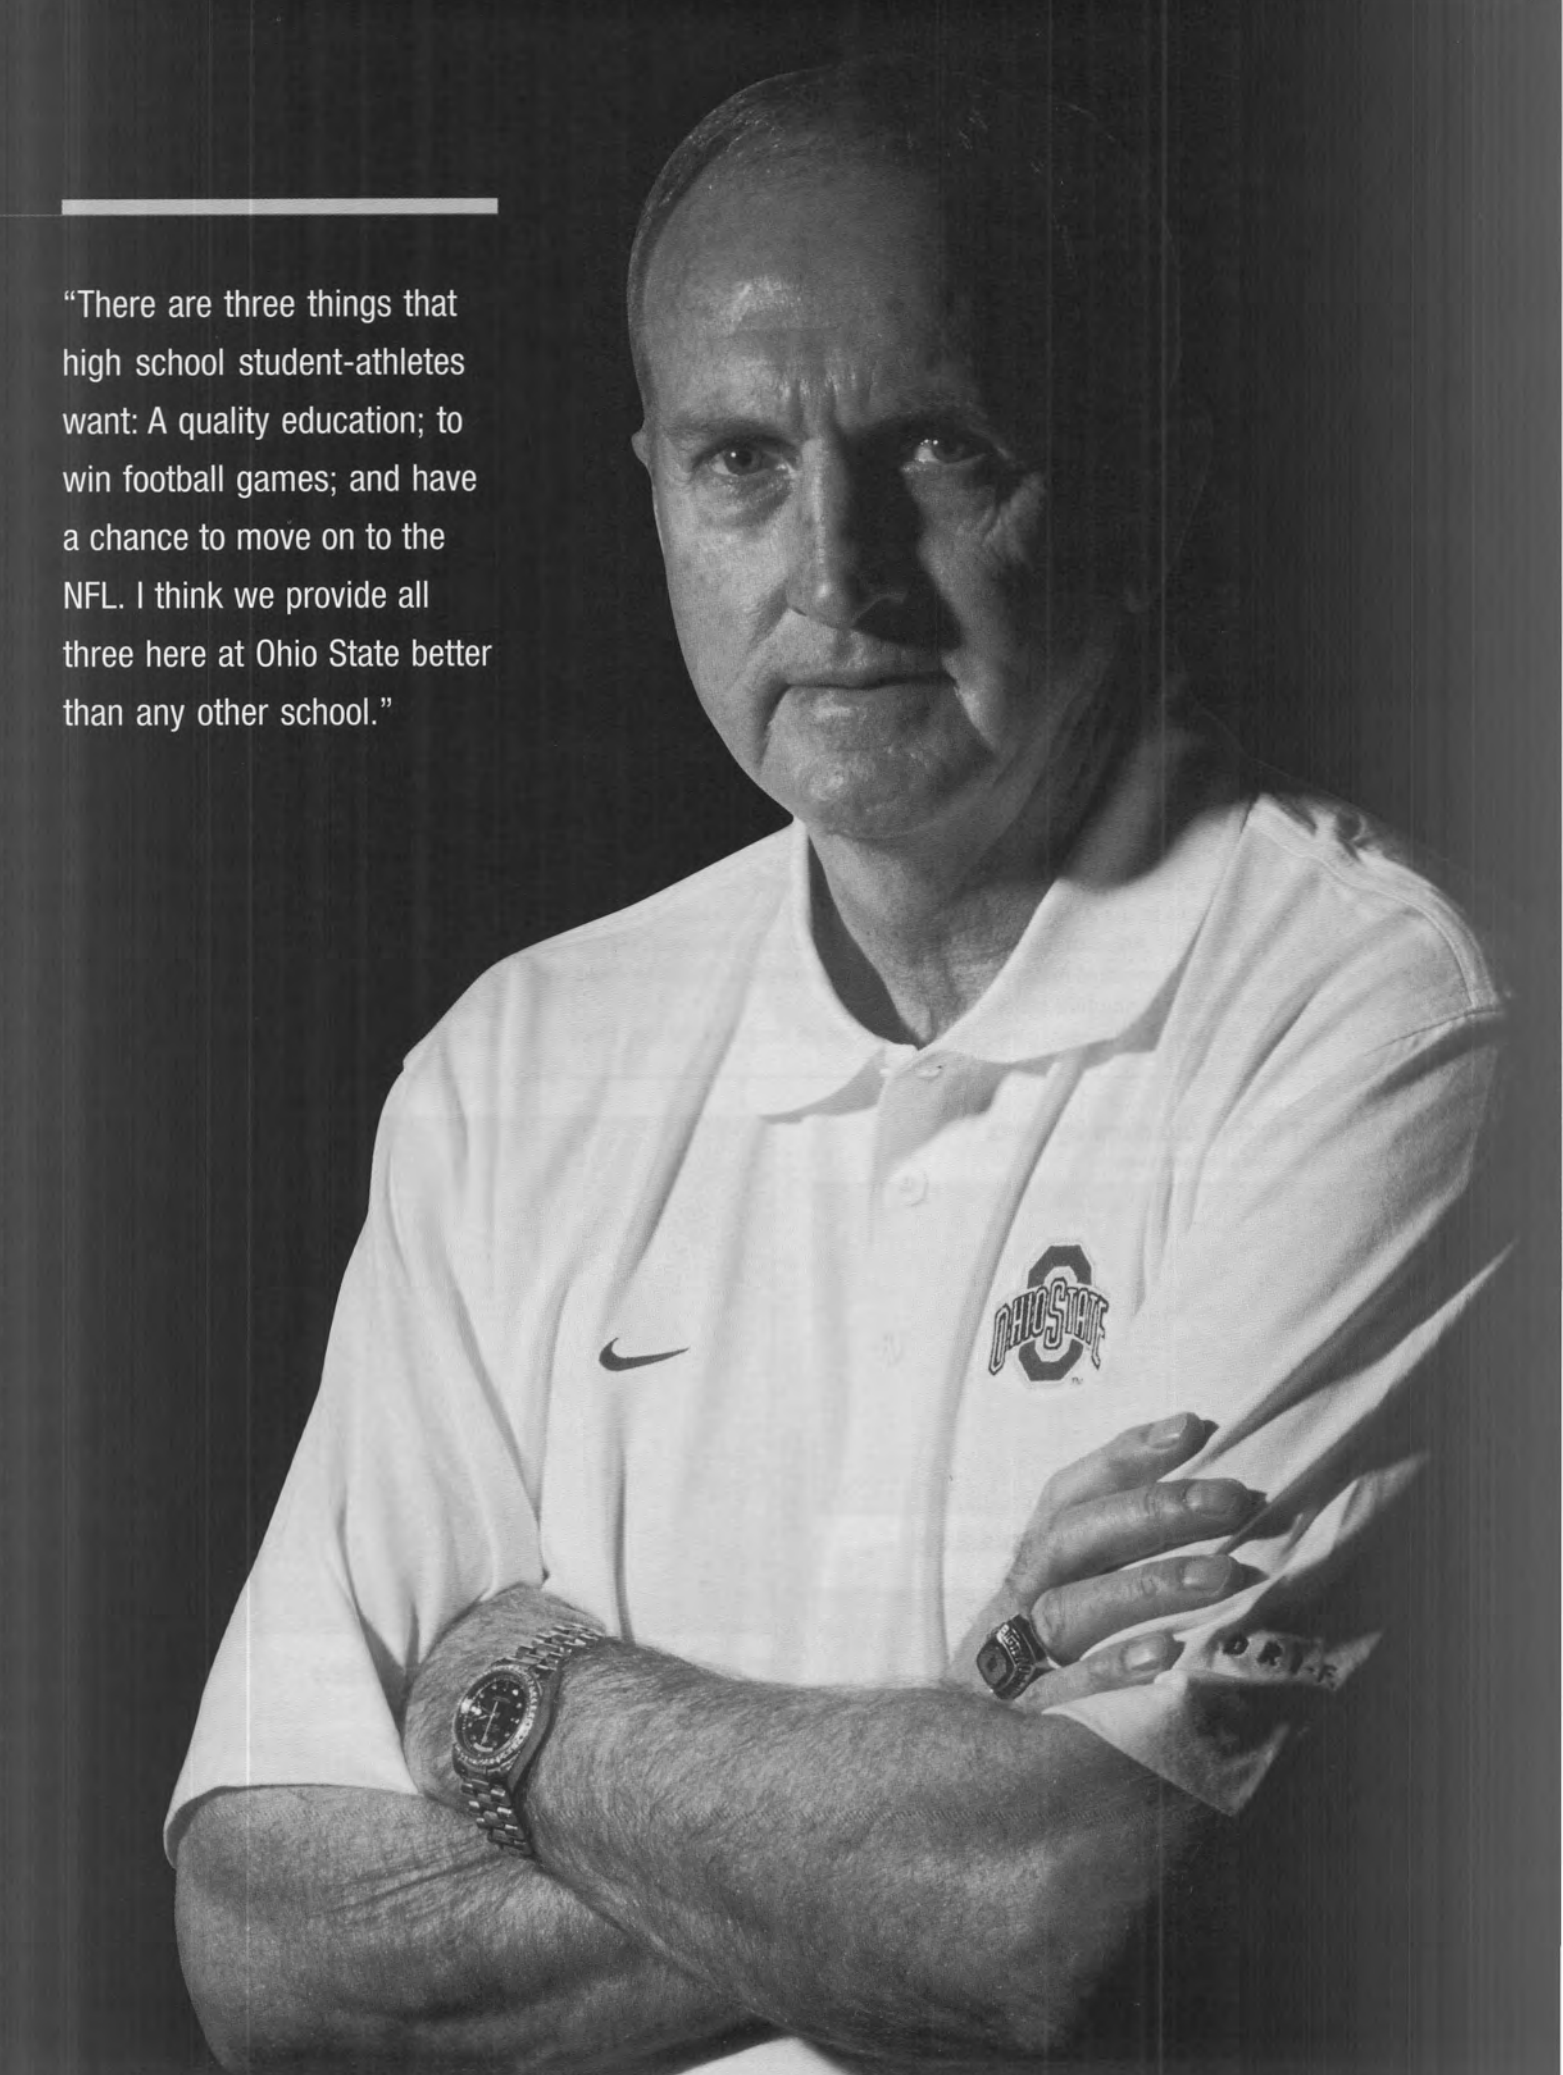
Six have been named first-team Academic All-Americans.

Nine Ohio State players have won major athletic and academic awards in the last five years. Buckeyes have won the Heisman Trophy (Eddie George in 1995), the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award (Bobby Hoying in 1995), the Maxwell Award (Eddie George in 1995), two Lombardi Awards (Orlando Pace consecutively in 1995 and '96, the first to ever accomplish the feat), the Outland Trophy (Pace in 1996), the Biletnikoff Award (Terry Glenn in 1995), the Butkus Award (Andy Katzenmoyer in 1997) and the Thorpe Award (Antoine Winfield in 1998).

Cooper's teams have always fared well in conference play. An 111-39-6 all-time conference record is testament to that fact. His Ohio State teams are 65-27-4 in the Big Ten, including a 42-13-1 mark the last seven years. His three Arizona State teams were 13-6-2 in the Pac-10 Conference and his eight Tulsa teams were 33-6 in the Missouri Valley Conference.

In terms of championships, Cooper has coached nine teams to conference championships (and another five to second-place finishes), including the 1993, 1996 and 1998 Ohio State teams that shared Big Ten titles. The 1996 squad capped a brilliant 11-1 season with a thrilling come-from-behind victory over Arizona State in the Rose Bowl.

By virtue of Ohio State's win over Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl, Cooper became the first head coach to lead teams from both the Big Ten and the Pac-10 conferences to vic-



"There are three things that high school student-athletes want: A quality education; to win football games; and have a chance to move on to the NFL. I think we provide all three here at Ohio State better than any other school."

tories in the Rose Bowl (he coached ASU to a 22-15 win over Michigan at the end of the 1986 season). That 1997 victory vaulted the Buckeyes to No. 2 in the final Associated Press and CNN/USA Today national rankings, the highest finish by an Ohio State team since 1973. It also gave the Buckeyes the prestige of defeating three Top 5 teams in one season, including No. 4 Notre Dame and No. 3 Penn State on consecutive Saturdays. Arizona State was No. 2 heading into the Rose Bowl.

Prior to Ohio State, Cooper coached for eight years at Tulsa (1977-84) and three years at Arizona State (1985-87). He compiled a 57-31 mark at Tulsa, leading the Golden Hurricane to five consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles before moving to Arizona State. He was even more successful at ASU, guiding the Sun Devils to three-consecutive bowl berths, including their first ever appearance in the Rose Bowl, and a three-year record of 25-9-2. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1986 after leading ASU to a 10-1-1 record.

Cooper, born July 2, 1937, grew up in Powell, Tenn., a rural community just northeast of Knoxville. After graduating from high school, he spent two years in the Army and then enrolled at Iowa State. An outstanding high school athlete, Cooper resumed his athletics career at Iowa State, playing four years of football for the Cyclones. He was team captain and MVP as a senior.

Cooper graduated from Iowa State in the spring of 1962. He embarked upon his coaching career the following fall as the Cyclones' freshman coach.

In 1963, Cooper left his alma mater to become an assistant coach at Oregon State under Tommy Prothro. In 1964, the Beavers won the Pac-8 title and played in the Rose Bowl. Following the 1964 season, Cooper accompanied Prothro to UCLA. In his first year there, the Bruins won the Pac-8 championship and again played in the Rose Bowl.

Cooper left UCLA following the 1967 season to become defensive coordinator for Pepper Rodgers at Kansas. He spent five years on the KU staff, including the memorable 1968 campaign in which the Jayhawks won the Big Eight title and played in the 1969 Orange Bowl.

Cooper's final stop as an assistant coach was at the University of Kentucky. He was there from 1972 through 1976, leaving in the spring of 1977 to become head coach at Tulsa.

Cooper quickly breathed new life into the Tulsa program. After a 3-8 record his first year, the rookie head coach led the Golden Hurricane to six-consecutive winning seasons, including five-consecutive Missouri Valley Conference championships between 1980 and 1984.

At the end of the 1984 season, Cooper's record at Tulsa included a 33-6 mark in league play and the Golden Hurricane had won 21-consecutive and 31 of its last 34 conference games.

Having accomplished all he could at Tulsa and eager for a new challenge, Cooper accepted an offer to become head coach at Arizona State University in 1985. As he had done at Tulsa, he quickly established himself at ASU, leading his first Sun Devil team to an 8-4 record and a berth in the Holiday Bowl. A loss on the last Saturday of the regular season cost ASU its first-ever Pac-10 football championship. But the Sun Devils made history the following year by winning that elusive title and making their first-ever trip to Pasadena, where they capped off a storybook season with the win over Michigan.

Despite heavy graduation losses in 1986, Arizona State went to a school-record third-consecutive bowl game in 1987. A win over Air Force in the Freedom Bowl put the wraps on a 7-4-1 season.

With a resume that included a combined record of 82-40-2, six league championships and three bowl appearances, Cooper, on Dec. 31, 1987, became the 21st head football coach in Ohio State history.

Characteristic of his coaching career, he attacked the Ohio State job with relentless enthusiasm and energy. After a 4-6-1 record

John Cooper spent time with New Orlean's football youth while preparing the Buckeyes for the Sugar Bowl. The Buckeyes finished second in the nation in 1998 after defeating Texas A&M.

Cooper is interviewed following one of Ohio State's many televised games.

Fred Pagac

Daring. Dynamic. Destructive. Dominant. These four adjectives adequately describe the Ohio State defenses under the tutelage of Fred Pagac and his defensive staff. After four years as the defensive coordinator, Pagac was promoted prior to this season to the position of assistant head coach. Even with his promotion, Pagac will still have play calling and game planning responsibilities for the defense.

Pagac is the senior member of the Ohio State football coaching staff. Named as the Buckeyes' defensive coordinator prior to the start of the 1996 season, he is an Ohio State graduate and an 18-year veteran of the OSU coaching staff. He has helped create a nationally-recognized image of an attacking-style defense that is regularly one of the most formidable in all of college football.

In three of the last four seasons, Ohio State's defenses were ranked among the Top 8 statistically in the country. In Pagac's first three years as the defensive coordinator, only two opponents topped the 30-point plateau.

In 1996, the Buckeyes led the Big Ten in all four major defensive categories and were first nationally in pass efficiency defense and second nationally in scoring defense. The Buckeyes allowed 131 points, the lowest total surrendered since 1979.

Faced with the loss of eight regulars off the 1996 unit, Pagac reloaded in 1997 and again produced one of the nation's most outstanding defenses, a unit that gave up just 170 points in 13 games and finished second nationally in both pass efficiency and scoring defense.

In 1998, the Buckeyes flirted all season with the No. 1 total defense ranking and ended fourth nationally in total defense. The Buckeyes were, however, the No. 1 defense against the rush and the No. 2 defense vs. the pass.

Bernie, Fred and Jennifer.

Pagac's accomplishments have not gone unnoticed. In 1998, he was one of five finalists for the Frank Broyles Award as the nation's outstanding assistant coach.

A native of Richeyville, Pa., Pagac was a three-year starter at tight end for the Buckeyes during the 1971, '72 and '73 seasons. He led OSU in receptions as a senior in 1973 with nine for 159 yards. During his career, the Buckeyes posted a 25-6-2 record, won 19 of 22 Big Ten games, claimed two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. The 1973 squad posted a 10-0-1 record and came within an eyelash of winning the national championship, finishing second in the final Associated Press poll.

Following his collegiate career, Pagac spent four years in the NFL – the first two with Chicago, where he received the prestigious Brian Piccolo Award as a rookie in 1974, and the last two with Tampa Bay.

Returning to school during the offseason to complete his course work, Pagac received his degree from Ohio State in 1975.

Pagac left the professional ranks after the 1977 season and returned to his alma mater in 1978 as a graduate assistant for his former coach, the late Woody Hayes. In 1982, he was elevated to full-time status by Earle Bruce. When John Cooper took over as head coach of the Buckeyes, Pagac was one of three coaches retained.

Coordinator, Ohio State, 2000-present

Now in his sixth season at Ohio State, Chuck Stobart has taken over the reigns as the offensive coordinator. He is widely respected throughout the college coaching ranks for his innovative and creative play-calling. His college-coaching career has spanned three decades, 11 institutions and three head coaching positions.

"Our offensive philosophy this season is very simple - we want to control the football," Stobart said. "And we will do this by establishing a consistent running game and moving our quarterbacks around the pocket to create a more diverse attack."

In his first four years at OSU, Stobart has primarily coached the receivers and they have flourished as a unit. Last year, the tandem of Ken-Yon Rambo and Reggy Germany combined for 84 receptions for 1,489 yards and seven touchdowns as starters. Stobart already has coached two receivers who were first-team All-Americans and first-round NFL Draft picks (Terry Glenn and David Boston). Glenn earned the 1995 Biletnikoff Award as the nation's most outstanding receiver and Boston was a semifinalist for the 1998 award. A third, Dee Miller, was a sixth-round NFL Draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in 1999.

Stobart is a native of Bradbury, Ohio. Prior to joining John Cooper's Ohio State staff, he spent six seasons as head coach at Memphis. Other stops included head coaching stints at Utah and Toledo, and assistant positions at Arizona, Cincinnati, Marshall, Miami (Ohio), Michigan, Pittsburgh and Southern California.

Stobart received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Ohio in 1959 and 1962, respectively. He played quarterback for the Bobcats between 1956 and 1958 and also played baseball from 1957-58.

Stobart launched his coaching career in 1959 at Berne High School in Sugar Grove, Ohio. He also coached a year at Gallipolis and four years at Mount Vernon before being named offensive coordinator at Marshall in 1965. He moved to the University of Cincinnati in 1966 as quarterbacks coach.

In 1967, Stobart was named quarterbacks coach at Miami under Bo Schembechler. When Schembechler took over at Michigan in 1969, Stobart went with him as offensive coordinator. He stayed seven seasons.

Stobart's first head coaching opportunity came at the University of Toledo in 1977. After a pair of 2-9 seasons, his last three teams were 20-13, including a 9-3 mark in 1981 that included a MAC title and victory in the California Bowl. He was also named the Ohio College Coach of the Year for his efforts in the 1981.

Stobart moved to Utah in 1982 and his three teams there were 16-17-1.

Following the 1984 campaign, Stobart became offensive coordinator at Pittsburgh. He left Pittsburgh after one year to assume the same responsibility at Arizona. In 1987, he began a two-year stint at USC as associate head coach under Larry Smith. At USC, he tutored quarterback Rodney Peete to first team All-America and All-Pac 10 Conference selections in 1988.

Stobart took over the Memphis program in 1989. Faced with another rebuilding task, his first two teams were 6-15-1, but his last three combined for an 18-15 mark. He was at Memphis until he arrived at OSU in 1994.

Jon Tenuta

The players Jon Tenuta has coached in his five years at Ohio State embody basically the same characteristics as their mentor – intense, hard-working, hard-hitting and they love to make the big play. After working with the defensive secondary the past four years and earning a top-three ranking in NCAA pass efficiency in four of them, Tenuta was promoted to defensive coordinator prior to this season. He brings 20 years of coaching experience to the table and has already served as a defensive coordinator for seven years at three different schools.

His impact on the OSU secondary is symbolized by this fact - every player to start for Tenuta has been selected in the NFL Draft. Over the past five years, three players have been selected in the first round, one each in the second and third rounds and two in the fourth round. Cornerbacks Shawn Springs, Antoine Winfield and Ahmed Plummer were all first round selections. Free safety Rob Kelly went in the second round, cornerback Ty Howard went in the third round and strong safety Damon Moore and free safety Gary Berry in the fourth round.

Tenuta simply knows the business of defense and how to get results. Consider these additional accomplishments by OSU defensive backs the last four years:

❖ In 1996, Damon Moore became the first non-linebacker to lead OSU in tackles since 1970. His total included a DB record 19 vs. Wisconsin.

❖ In 1996, Springs, in addition to being named All-America, was named Defensive Player of the Year in the Big Ten.

❖ In 1997, Winfield was the first defensive back ever to be named team MVP and in 1998 he became the first Buckeye to win the coveted Thorpe Award. He also was the first non-linebacker to top 200 career solo tackles.

❖ In 1999, Plummer was named team MVP.

Tenuta takes the successes in stride and deflects credit to his athletes.

Although his hometown is listed as Madison, Wis., Tenuta is a Buckeye. He grew up in the shadow of Ohio Stadium, starring for the football team and graduating from Upper Arlington High School.

He matriculated at the University of Virginia, where he earned a bachelor's of science degree in 1981, and was a starting defensive back for three years and the Cavaliers' Most Valuable Player following his senior season.

Tenuta's first coaching position came at Virginia (1981-82) and he followed that with stops at Maryland (1983), Vanderbilt (1984-85), Marshall (1986-87) and Kansas State (1988). He served as defensive coordinator at Marshall in 1987 and at Kansas State in '88.

Tenuta then spent six years at Southern Methodist University (1989-94). He was the Mustangs' defensive backs coach in 1989 before moving up to defensive coordinator in 1990. While at SMU, his defense ranked third in the Southwest Conference in scoring defense in 1993. His Mustangs led the Southwest Conference in pass defense and allowed less than 20 points in six of 11 games in 1992.

He left SMU following the 1994 season and spent the next season as the defensive backs coach at the University of Oklahoma.

Coaching Career 35th year as collegiate coach (first at Ohio State); Offensive Coordinator, Marshall, 1965-68; Assistant, Denison, 1968-72; Assistant, Miami, 1973; Offensive Coordinator, Colorado, 1974-78; Assistant, North Carolina State, 1979; Offensive Coordinator, Louisiana State, 1980-84; Offensive Coordinator, Indiana, 1985-96; Running Game Coordinator, 1997-99; Assistant, Ohio State, 2000-present.

George Belu, a 35-year veteran of college coaching, enters his first year at Ohio State as the team's offensive line coach.

"We are pleased to make George Belu one of the newest member of this coaching staff," head coach John Cooper said. "He brings a wealth of experience to our team and has been successful at every stop during his career. He's familiar with the Big Ten from his days at Indiana. He did an incredible job at Wake Forest, a team that played in its first bowl game in quite a while. George is well-respected with other coaches across the country. I believe he'll be a great addition to our staff."

Belu completed his third season at Wake Forest in 1999, the last of which was spent as running-game coordinator. Belu was largely responsible for the Demon Deacons' potent ground game, which last year made the second biggest improvement in ACC history. Wake Forest averaged just 65.4 yards rushing per game in 1998, but under Belu gained 175.7 yards per game on the ground in 1999. The Deacons ranked 31st nationally in rushing yardage in 1999 and recorded the highest totals by a Wake Forest team since 1984. Belu helped his team earn a spot in the fifth bowl game in school history last December after earning its first winning season since 1992.

Prior to taking the job at Wake Forest in 1997, Belu served 13 years as offensive coordinator and line coach at Indiana University. Under Belu's scheme, IU running back Anthony Thompson led the Big Ten in rushing for two-consecutive seasons, was a two-time winner of the Chicago Tribune's Big Ten Most Valuable Player Award and was the runner-up for the 1989 Heisman Trophy. The Hoosiers advanced to six postseason games during Belu's tenure, and two Indiana offensive linemen were two-time all-Big Ten selections.

In his career, Belu has produced a total of 12 offensive linemen that were selected in either the first or second round of the NFL Draft.

Overall during a storied coaching career that began in 1965, Belu has been the offensive line coach at six schools and a coordinator at five. His coaching highlights include an 11-0 season at Miami (Ohio) in 1973 and Tangerine Bowl appearance, a Big Eight Conference title and two bowl appearances at Colorado, an Orange Bowl trip at LSU and an ACC Championship at North Carolina State. While with the Wolfpack, Belu coached an Outland Trophy Award winner.

In 1961, Belu earned a bachelor's degree in education from Ohio University and earned a master's degree in education the following year. At Ohio, he was a three-time letterwinner and an all-Mid American Conference selection in 1960. The 1960 Bobcat squad went 10-0 and was crowned the National Small School College Champion.

A native of Lorain, Ohio, Belu was a first team all-Ohio high school selection in football and is a member of the Lorain Sports Hall of Fame.

Belu has been married to his high school sweetheart, Janet, since 1961.

George, Janet, David and his wife Janelle.

Bill Conley

Ohio State recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach Bill Conley is one of the most highly-respected and nationally-recognized people in his profession. In the offseason, The Sporting News named him one of the Top Five recruiting coordinators in the country.

Now in his 14th year at OSU and his 10th year as a member of John Cooper's coaching staff, he began his association with Cooper in 1991, leaving the Ohio high school coaching ranks to become the Buckeyes' recruiting coordinator. He picked up assistant coaching responsibilities the next season - defensive ends - and coached on the defensive side of the football for five seasons before moving to offense in the spring of 1997 to coach the tight ends.

As the recruiting coordinator, Conley knows Ohio State football and he knows football in the state of Ohio. In recent years, Conley's recruiting work has helped the Buckeyes land some of the top high school players and overall classes in the nation, including the 1996 freshman class that was ranked No. 1 nationally and produced two first-round NFL Draft picks: split end David Boston and linebacker Andy Katzenmoyer.

Conley is in his second tour of duty with the Buckeyes. He coached OSU's linebackers between 1984 and 1987, helping to develop a number of outstanding players including All-America linebackers Chris Spielman and Pepper Johnson, both of whom have had long and distinguished NFL careers. Most recently, Conley has overseen the development of Mike Vrabel, who was a two-time winner of the Big Ten's Defensive Lineman of the Year award and a two-time All-American. His other starting defensive end in 1996, Matt Finkes, was a consensus first-team all-Big Ten pick and was a third-team All-American.

Conley is a native of Columbus and a 1972 graduate of Ohio State. He played three years of football for the Buckeyes, walking on as a sophomore and eventually earning two letters as an offensive lineman for Coach Woody Hayes in 1970 and 1971.

Following graduation, Conley launched a highly-successful high school coaching career in the state of Ohio that included stops at London, Groveport and Middletown High Schools and resulted in a 12-year record of 78-39-3.

Regarded as one of the state's top coaches and well versed on the Ohio prep scene, he joined Earle Bruce's staff following the 1983 season. During his first four-year stint at OSU, the Buckeyes won two Big Ten championships and played in three bowl games, including the Rose and Cotton bowls.

Conley left Ohio State following Earle Bruce's final year as coach in 1987 and became head coach at Dublin High School, where he coached from 1988 to 1990. He returned to Ohio State as Cooper's recruiting coordinator in 1991.

Coaching Career 27th year as collegiate coach (fifth at Ohio State); Asistant, Muskingum, 1973-74; Def. Coordinator, Muskingum, 1975-77; Def. Coordinator, Bowling Green, 1978-82; Assistant, Washington, 1983-87; Head coach, Illinois State, 1988-95; Assistant, Ohio State, 1996-present.

The adage a player takes after his coach is never more evident than with fifth-year defensive line coach Jim Heacock. The current group of student-athletes can easily be described as talented, energetic, hard-working and hungry to make a difference – just like their coach. The defensive linemen of OSU are an emerging group with a teacher that brings 27 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Buckeye sideline.

Heacock, who spent the past four years working primarily with the tackles, will coach the entire defensive line this season. He has arguably the best depth of players on the 2000 Ohio State roster, and their goal is simple - punish and wear out the opponents' offensive line from the first snap of every game to the last.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Heacock spent eight years as the head coach at Illinois State University in Normal, Ill. The Redbirds were 1-10 his first season, but, playing an ambitious schedule that included nine Division I teams, the I-AA school won 36 games during Heacock's final seven seasons. His last three teams posted a 16-14-2 overall record.

Heacock (pronounced HAY-cock) is a native of Alliance, Ohio. He graduated from Muskingum in 1970 and is a member of that school's hall of fame. He also has a master's degree from Bowling Green, awarded in 1973.

Following his graduation from Muskingum, where he was a three-time letterwinner as a defensive back, Heacock was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He played with the Packers and the Cincinnati Bengals during the 1970 and '71 seasons, respectively, and then began his coaching career in 1972 as a graduate assistant under Don Nehlen at Bowling Green.

In 1973, Heacock returned to Muskingum as the defensive backfield coach. He was named defensive coordinator in 1975. In 1978, he left his alma mater to become the defensive coordinator at Bowling Green. He remained at Bowling Green for five years and was the assistant head coach during his last three years. Bowling Green won the Mid-American Conference title and played in the California Bowl in 1982.

In 1983, Heacock accepted an offer from Don James to become the defensive line coach at the University of Washington. He spent five seasons in Seattle and during that time the Huskies appeared in the Orange, Sun, Aloha, Freedom and Independence bowls. Under Heacock's direction, the Huskies' defensive front was known for its intensity and tough, physical style of play and was one of the most respected in the Pac 10. It's the same kind of intensity the Ohio State defensive front has shown the past four years.

Tim Salem

The Ohio State University quarterbacks, in the three seasons under the watchful eyes of Tim Salem, have led the Big Ten Conference in passing efficiency twice, eclipsed 11 school records, completed 59.3-percent of their passes and thrown for over 6,200 yards and 52 touchdowns with only 21 interceptions. This season will offer another challenge for Salem, now in his fourth year - he also will serve as the position coach for the receivers.

In his tenure, Salem has helped mold and nurture one of the great pocket passers in school history (Joe Germaine) and his latest protégé (Steve Bellisari) is the prototypical quarterback of the future – multidimensional.

The modern day Ohio State offense has evolved into one of the most dynamic and diverse in college football. Once considered a "three yards and a cloud of dust" attack, the Buckeyes utilize a balanced attack with the ability to dominate a game with not only the run but with the pass. The most impressive statistic of all may be in the attempts. The Buckeyes have attempted 1,095 passes, or 29.6 per game, in the last three seasons. Record-setting quarterback Joe Germaine, who was drafted by the St. Louis Rams in 1999 said: "Things have changed. Now Ohio State is a great passing team with a great system and great athletes to execute that system."

The Buckeyes still run, but go to the air more often and with great success. Much of that can be attributed to the coaching and tutoring of Salem.

In Salem's first year at Ohio State, quarterbacks Stanley Jackson and Germaine shared the responsibilities and combined to complete over 60 percent of their passes and throw for 24 touchdowns and 2,900 yards.

In 1998, Salem tutored Germaine through one of the finest single-season passing campaigns in school history. The Chicago Tribune Silver Football Award winner as the Big Ten MVP and the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, Germaine passed for 3,330 yards and 25 touchdowns, completed 59.9-percent of his passes and threw only seven interceptions.

Regarded as one of college football's bright young offensive minds, the 38-year-old Salem came to Ohio State from Purdue University where he spent six years with the Boilermakers, the first four as quarterbacks coach and the last two as the offensive coordinator. His Purdue offenses annually ranked among the Big Ten's best.

Prior to Purdue, Salem spent two years as a member of Earle Bruce's Colorado State staff. He coached the running backs and also served as special teams coach. In 1990, the Rams were 9-4 overall and finished second in the Western Athletic Conference with a 6-1 mark.

Salem was offensive coordinator at Phoenix Junior College in 1987 and '88. His first coaching position was as a graduate assistant at Arizona State in 1985 and '86 – on John Cooper's staff.

Salem played quarterback at the University of Minnesota between 1980-82 and then at Arizona State between 1983-84. At Minnesota, he set a then-Big Ten record and a still-standing school record for most consecutive pass completions in a game, 13 against Ohio in 1980. Salem earned a bachelor's degree in athletic administration from Arizona State in 1985.

Tim's father, Joe Salem, was Minnesota's head football coach from 1979 to 1983.

1995 Heisman Trophy winning running back Eddie George once said of Tim Spencer: "On a scale of one to 10, I'd rate him an 11 as a coach. He's a great motivator. He's a great teacher. He knows the philosophy of football from a running backs point of view. He played the position. He went to the next level and played the position."

Spencer, Ohio State's seventh-year tailbacks and fullbacks coach does indeed know a few things about running backs. That is why it is no coincidence since he has taken over as the position coach, a Buckeye runner has topped 1,000 yards four times and three have been named first-team all-Big Ten. In 1995, George won virtually every honor bestowed on a college football player, including the Heisman.

Spencer, a former star running back for the Buckeyes, has already coached a number of outstanding runners at Ohio State. This group includes George, who ran for a school record 1,927 yards in 1995. In 1996 and 1997, Pepe Pearson successfully followed by rushing for 2,353 yards in his two years as the starter. For the past two seasons, Michael Wiley, a fifth round selection by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2000 NFL Draft, rushed for 2,187 as the featured Ohio State running back. One should also add Joe Montgomery, a second-round NFL Draft pick of the New York Giants in 1999, to this list.

Tim and Gilda with Cole and Evan.

Spencer is from St. Clairsville, Ohio. A high school All-American, he was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes, earning first-team all-Big Ten Conference honors as a junior and senior. The starting fullback as a sophomore, he moved to tailback as a junior and led the team in rushing with 1,217 yards. As a senior, he amassed 1,538 yards and was the Buckeyes' MVP. He also was the MVP of the Holiday Bowl in 1982, rushing for 167 yards and two touchdowns. He closed his career as the second-leading rusher at Ohio State with 3,553 yards, trailing only the great Archie Griffin (5,589 yards). George (3,768 yards) has since passed his former coach, but Spencer still ranks third in rushing attempts (644) and rushing touchdowns (36).

Following his senior year, Spencer was the second player taken in the USFL draft. He played a year each with Chicago, Arizona and Memphis before going to San Diego, where he started at fullback for the Chargers for four years.

Spencer retired from professional football following the 1990 season. He returned to OSU in 1992 to complete work on his degree, which he received in 1993. While working on the latter, he was a volunteer with the Buckeyes' strength and conditioning program when John Cooper elevated him to his current position.

Brian Williams

One of the bright young coaches in college football, Brian Williams joined the Ohio State football staff as the linebackers coach this past winter. Entering his 13th year of coaching in the college ranks and first at OSU, Williams brings a fiery brand of coaching to the Ohio State linebackers.

"I am extremely excited to be a part of a university so rich in tradition," Williams said. "Ohio State is universally respected as one of the best programs in the country. I am really looking forward to the opportunity to work with coach Cooper, (assistant head coach) Fred Pagac, (defensive coordinator) Jon Tenuta, (defensive line coach) Jim Heacock, and the rest of the offensive coaches."

A native of Middlesboro, Ky., Williams completed his third consecutive season at Pittsburgh in 1999 but his fourth overall. In 1992, he was the outside linebackers coach. Willliams, 35, was instrumental in the improvement of the Panthers' pass rush, which produced 73 quarterback sacks the past three seasons. Pittsburgh finished the season with a 5-6 record in 1999, which marked the fifth best turnaround (three games) in Division IA college football (the Panthers finished 2-9 in 1998). Williams also served as the special teams coordinator. In 1999, the Pittsburgh special teams finished first in the Big East Conference in both net punting and punt returns.

Prior to Pittsburgh, Williams was the linebackers coach at Cincinnati in 1996. He also tutored the linebackers at Fresno State from 1993-95. Following the 1995 season, Fresno State received a berth in the Aloha Bowl. From 1989-91, he served at the University of Pacific as the outside linebackers and special teams coach. His coaching career began in 1988 as a graduate assistant at Tennessee.

In 1996, Williams earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Kentucky, where he also was a four-year standout on the defensive side of the ball. He finished his career ninth in Wildcat history with 350 tackles. In 1985, as a senior, he was a second-team all-Southeastern Conference selection and was an academic all-SEC honoree in 1984. Williams was voted the team's most valuable senior in 1985, and the outstanding lineman his junior and senior years.

Born Nov. 15, 1960

Coaching Career 19th year as collegiate coach (12th at Ohio State); asistant Strength Coach, Nebraska, 1982-88; Strength & Conditioning Coach, Ohio State, 1989-present.

Dave Kennedy has Ohio State University's football strength and conditioning program positioned and respected as one of the best in the nation at developing speed, power and strength. The list of Ohio State All-Americans and NFL Draft selections has grown unlike any major football program over the years. The weight room and conditioning work of Kennedy and his staff can be looked at as a major reason.

"I have not seen and I have not heard of a collegiate football team that has a better conditioning program than Ohio State," head coach John Cooper said. "The fact that Eddie George, Joey Galloway, Shawn Springs, Mike Vrabel, Bobby Hoying, Andy Katzenmoyer, and Robert Smith – and the list goes on-and-on of a who's who in the NFL – come back every summer to work out is proof of how good the program is."

Kennedy, considered a leading authority in the field of strength and conditioning, is in his 12th year on the Ohio State staff. He was hired by Cooper in June of 1989. In addition to his responsibilities with the current Ohio State student-athletes, Kennedy also helps a number of former Buckeyes, many of whom are still competing professionally, develop specialized offseason conditioning programs. And seeing the NFL Buckeyes in the Ohio State weight room during the offseason helps the current members of the OSU squad.

"Our guys learn from being around the professional players who come back, and they see how their work ethic can lead to team as well as personal goals," Kennedy said.

Extremely popular with the Ohio State players, Kennedy received the football team's Admiral's Trophy prior to the 1993 Holiday Bowl. The award is voted on by the players and it goes to the person whose dedication, hard work and spirit has most inspired the team.

Kennedy has designed an individual program for each member of the Ohio State football team. The computerized plan focuses on day-to-day improvement and is designed to enhance the mental and physical development of each player. He also has instituted a year-round conditioning schedule that has significantly increased the overall strength, speed and power of Ohio State's football players.

Prior to coming to OSU, Kennedy spent seven years as assistant strength coach at the University of Nebraska. His responsibilities there included developing and monitoring the conditioning program for the Cornhuskers' football team.

Kennedy, an Omaha, Neb. native, graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1985, earning his degree in exercise science.

Bill Myles

Bill Myles is in his 24th year as a member of the Ohio State Athletic Department. He spent his first eight years at Ohio State as an assistant football coach, hired by the late Woody Hayes, and for the past 14 years he has been an associate director of athletics. His current primary responsibilities are as the Director of Football Operations. In this position Myles is intricately involved in the day-to-day operation of the football program and works closely with head coach John Cooper and associate athletics director Archie Griffin.

Myles joined the OSU staff in 1977 as an assistant football coach under the late, legendary Hayes. He remained in coaching until 1985 and was considered one of the top offensive line tutors in college football during his stay with the Buckeyes.

He left coaching in 1985 to become associate athletics director at Ohio State. From 1985 to 1993, he was in charge of all OSU men's sports and then took on responsibility for a combination of men's and women's sports. Most recently, Myles administered the department's outreach program, which encourages former Ohio State athletes who have not graduated to return to school and receive their degrees. He also coordinated special projects for the Athletic Department and was the departmental liaison with all booster groups.

Fresno State Bulldogs

Located in Fresno, Calif., and serving as central California's major regional university, Fresno State is one of the oldest and most prestigious campuses in the 20-school state system. FS athletic teams first used the name Bulldogs in 1921 after student body president Warren Moody and friends were constantly greeted by a white bulldog outside the main campus building. At a student body meeting, Arids Walker made the motion to adopt the term as the official nickname, and on Nov. 21, 1921, the Morning Republican first referred to Fresno State as "Bulldogs." FS's trademark Cardinal and Blue colors derived from a heated situation. Women at the Fresno Normal School thought they should be represented by blue and white, while men at Fresno Junior College insisted on red and white. A compromise was struck when the school officially adopted red (changed to Cardinal) and blue.

About The Series

Ohio State and Fresno State have met just one time prior to the 2000 season. On Aug. 29, 1994, the Buckeyes rolled to a 34-10 win over the Bulldogs in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic V in Anaheim, Calif. Joey Galloway was spectacular in the win, running for an 8-yard touchdown and hauling in a then career-long 67-yard touchdown catch. OSU led 21-0 at the half against Fresno State and the lead never dwindled to less than 14 points. Eddie George, in the season prior to his Heisman-winning campaign, rushed for 90 yards and two touchdowns. The Fresno State meeting also marked the first collegiate football game for tight end Rickey Dudley, who went on to become a first round selection in the NFL Draft. Tim Patillo, former Buckeye and current assistant director of football operations at OSU, made a key interception in the game.

Arizona Wildcats

The University of Arizona, located in the scenic Sonoran Desert, was founded in 1885 on a 40-acre plot of land donated by two gamblers and a saloon keeper. Arizona football dates back to 1899, when the nickname-less squad played a modest three-game schedule, finishing 1-1-1. The school colors at that time were sage green and silver, but in 1900 football student manager Quintus Anderson found a bargain on red and blue jerseys. The team wore the new uniforms the next year, and the colors were an instant hit with the student body. In 1914, the Arizona football team performed so well against heavily favored Occidental College that Los Angeles Times reporter William M. Henry was moved to write, "...the Arizona men showed the fight of wild cats." The students were ecstatic about the new moniker and immediately adopted it permanently.

About The Series

The 2000 meeting between Ohio State and Arizona will mark only the fourth game ever between the two teams, but the third in the last 10 years, as well as the first game between the teams not to be played in Ohio Stadium. In 1967, the Wildcats took the inaugural meeting 14-7 as Ohio State fumbled four times (losing two) and was held to 104 yards on the ground. David Brungard led the Buckeyes with 55 yards rushing and a touchdown pass. Butler By'not'e stole the limelight in the 1991 meeting, rushing for a series record 189 yards on just 26 carries. Defensive back Brian Cook led the Buckeyes with 11 tackles in that game, in which OSU scored 21 second-half points en route to a 38-14 win. Andy Katzenmoyer made everyone's highlight reel in the 1997 meeting, making an agile interception in the second quarter and returning it 20 yards for a touchdown. The quarterback tandem of Stanley Jackson and Joe Germaine combined for 222 yards and a touchdown, a 28-20 win.

Miami RedHawks

Founded in 1809, Miami University is the seventh-oldest state-assisted university in the nation and the second-oldest state institution west of the Allegheny Mountains. In the early 1900s, Miami's athletic teams were known as The Miami Boys, the Big Reds, or the Reds and Whites. In 1928, The Miami Student began using Big Red full-time for the university's nickname, but in 1930, MU publicity man Ralph McGinnis announced the name would be changed to Redskins to avoid confusion with the Denison University athletic teams. At the urging of the Oklahoma-based Miami Tribe, for whom the school is named, the Miami Board of Trustees voted Sept. 25, 1996 to discontinue the use of Redskins as the nickname. More than 3,000 new nickname suggestions poured in from alumni and current members of the Miami community. Three finalists were chosen – RedHawks, Thunderhawks and Miamis – and on July 1, 1997, RedHawks officially went into effect.

About The Series

Ohio State and Miami (Ohio) have not met on the football field in nearly 90 years, and little is known about the two previous meetings in 1904 and 1911. The 80-0 OSU win in 1904 still remains in the Buckeye record book, however. The 80-point margin of victory is the second highest in school history and the 80 total points scored is the fourth most ever. Ohio State was under the direction of first-year coach E.R. Sweetland in 1904 and finished 6-5-0 that season. When Miami and Ohio State met again in 1911, the Buckeyes were under the direction of another first-year mentor – Harry Vaughn, who came to Columbus from Yale University. Vaughn may have led the squad to a 3-0 win over Miami, but otherwise the 5-3-2 season was a disappointment. Vaughn retired immediately following the season to resume law studies at Yale. Statistics from both of the previous Ohio State-Miami games are unavailable.

Penn State Nittany Lions

Penn State is the newest member of the Big Ten Conference. The longtime independent officially joined the Big Ten in 1990 and began competing in sports other than football in 1991. The Nittany Lions' first year of conference football was 1993. Penn State is located in the middle of State College...the classic "college town". The campus is renowned for its beauty, charm and youthful lifestyle. Chosen by the students in 1906, PSU's mascot is a mountain lion once believed to have roamed the mountains of central Pennsylvania. Penn State is believed to be the first college to adopt a lion as its mascot. Since the school is located at the foot of Mount Nittany, the mascot was designated the Nittany Lion.

About The Series

The 2000 game between Ohio State and Penn State will represent the eighth-consecutive year the two teams have met since Penn State's decision to join the Big Ten in 1993. The rivalry has become one the nation stops and watches. In three of the last four years, each team has come into the game unbeaten and ranked nationally in the Top 10. Over the last seven years, both Ohio State and Penn State have come into the game unbeaten and ranked in the Top 10 five times. The game returns to Columbus this year. The home team has gone 6-1 in this series since 1993. The Buckeyes picked up the only road win in 1995 with a dramatic 28-25 win. Recent series history has been marked by offensive fireworks. The Nittany Lions rolled to a series-high 572 yards in 1994 and the Buckeyes picked up 565 yards in both 1996 and 1997. Defenses dominated in the rain in 1998, with Ohio State securing a 28-9 win behind the strength of a sack and a blocked punt that each resulted in touchdowns. The Buckeyes gave then No. 1 Penn State all it could handle last season, trailing just 13-10 at the half but eventually falling 23-10.

Wisconsin Badgers

The University of Wisconsin dates back to the early days of Wisconsin statehood. Just 58 days after becoming a state, the Wisconsin legislature approved the incorporation of the university. The Badger nickname came about because of a mining boom in the 1820s, not the number of badgers in the state. Many of the miners did not have houses to live in and were forced to "live like badgers" in holes tunneled into hillsides and mine shafts. Wisconsin then became known as the Badger State.

About The Series

Ohio State will head to Madison, Wis., for the first time since 1995 this year, marking the 68th all-time meeting between OSU and Wisconsin. The Badgers are coming off back-to-back Big Ten championship seasons. Ohio State defeated Wisconsin 21-consecutive times from 1960 to 1980. In the game last year, Ohio State jumped to a 17-6 halftime lead only to see the Ron Dayne-led Badgers storm back for a 42-17 win. Prior to last year, OSU and Wisconsin had not met since 1996. The Buckeyes won that tight game with Dimitrious Stanley's 199 receiving yards sparking the 17-14 victory. He and Joe Germaine, who had come in off the bench, hooked up on a 48-yard touchdown reception with 8:51 left to play to give OSU a come-from-behind win. The Badgers, behind 81 rushing yards from Carl McCullough (Ron Dayne didn't begin starting for the Badgers until the following week), and 206 passing yards from Mike Samuel, and a solid defense, had build a 14-10 lead in the fourth quarter. Kevin Huntly's 36-yard fumble return for a score gave UW a 14-10 lead and had silenced Ohio Stadium. The completion to Stanley was Germaine's only one of the day. Starting quarterback Stanley Jackson had one of his best days as a passer, completing 18-of-25 passes for 265 yards.

Dimitrious Stanley notched the fourth-highest receiving total in the Ohio State record book with 199 yards against the Badgers in 1996.

Minnesota Golden Gophers

The 2,000-plus acres of the University of Minnesota are centrally located in the cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul. The state of Minnesota first received its dubbing as the Gopher State after the "five million dollar loan" for the building of railroads was submitted by the legislature in 1858. The bill was bitterly opposed. As a humorous break from the monotonous hearings, someone passed around a satirical cartoon showing a "gopher train" pulled by nine striped gophers with human heads. The humorous drawing permanently labeled Minnesota with the nickname Gopher State. During the school's championship football seasons, the press described the teams as the "golden-shirted horde" and the "golden swarm" in reference to the switch to gold jerseys. Thus, Golden Gophers, was born.

About The Series

Ohio State is on a 15-game winning streak (Cooper is 9-0) against Minnesota, the longest streak in series history. The Buckeyes also have won 27 out of the last 28 meetings between the two teams. Minnesota's last win came in 1981, 35-31 in Minneapolis, behind a 28-point second-half. The Golden Gophers threw for 444 yards in wiping out a 21-3 halftime deficit. The loss spoiled a fine day by Tim Spencer, who rushed for 135 yards and two touchdowns. Ohio State has since won seven in a row in Minneapolis. In 1998, the Buckeyes set a series record with 586 yards of total offense in the 45-15 win. David Boston caught 10 passes for 191 yards and two touchdowns in the game. Na'il Diggs stood out on defense, recording three sacks against the Gophers for the second year in a row. Ahmed Plummer had eight solo tackles, an interception and four pass-breakups.

Greg Frey's 362 yards passing against the Gophers in 1989 remains third on Ohio State's single-game passing ledger.

Iowa Hawkeyes

The University of Iowa is located in Iowa City, a community of 60,000 inhabitants in eastern Iowa. The name Hawkeye originally belonged to a hero in James Fenimore Cooper's 1826 fictional novel The Last of the Mohicans. Judge David Rorer suggested to newspaper editor James Edwards that Iowa be known as the Hawkeye State. Edwards wrote about this proposal in his newspaper, the Ft. Madison Patriot, and the two men began a campaign to popularize the name. During the fall of 1838, territorial officials formerly met and recommended the name Hawkeye for the territory. The nickname was later adopted as the official University of Iowa name.

About The Series

The Buckeyes have defeated the Hawkeyes the last five times the two teams have played, including 41-11 last year and 23-7 in Columbus in 1997 when Iowa came in ranked No. 8 nationally. Between 1963 and 1980 Ohio State knocked off Iowa 16-consecutive times. Archie Griffin led the Buckeyes to a 55-13 win in 1973 with 246 yards and a touchdown. Since winning three of the first four games and tying in the other between 1922-25, Iowa has not defeated the Buckeyes consecutively. A reserve running back has hurt the Hawkeyes in each of the last three years. In 1996, Joe Montgomery came off the bench to rush for 160 yards. In 1997, Michael Wiley rushed for 85 yards and two scores. And in 1998, Montgomery rushed for 144 yards including an 80-yard touchdown. The OSU defense set a school record in last year's win with 11 quarterback sacks. John Cooper's Buckeyes are 7-1-1 vs. the Hawkeyes.

Ken-Yon Rambo caught seven passes for 179 yards and one touchdown in the Iowa game last year.

Purdue Boilermakers

Purdue was established in 1869 on 100 acres of land donated by local citizens with funds primarily coming from local entrepreneur John Purdue. Indiana legislators named the university after him in appreciation of his generosity. Purdue became known as the Boilermakers after a football game against Wabash in 1889. After Purdue's victory the Wabash players used the name as an insult to the Purdue players. The players actually liked the name and it has been Purdue's nickname ever since.

About The Series

The Buckeyes have defeated the Boilermakers seven-consecutive times. Ohio State also has won 19 of the last 22 meetings dating back to 1968. The top passing performances for each team in the series came in 1981. Art Schlichter led Ohio State to a 45-33 win by completing 19 of 33 passes for 336 yards while Scott Campbell paced Purdue as he completed 31 of 52 attempts for 516 yards. In the 1996 meeting, the visiting Buckeyes spotted the Boilermakers a 14-point lead on pass plays of 87 and 55 yards, but then roared back with six unanswered touchdowns en route to a 42-14 win. Fullback Matt Keller, had one of many big plays for the Buckeyes, a 63-yard touchdown reception off a screen pass from Stanley Jackson. The play was the longest of Keller's career. The Boilermakers threw for 342 yards on the day and had just 72 rushing yards.

Michigan State Spartans

Located three miles east of the state capitol in East Lansing, Michigan State University is located on both sides of the Red Cedar River. Originally Michigan Agricultural College, MSU's first nickname, Aggies, was changed to The Michigan Staters and finally to Spartans after George S. Alderton, then sports editor of the Lansing State Journal, decided that The Michigan Staters was too cumbersome for newspaper writing. The school's new name would actually have its beginning many miles away from the East Lansing campus in Fort Benning, Ga., during the university's first southern baseball training tour. Alderton began using Spartans sparingly in copy dealing with the baseball team, then ventured into using it in newspaper headlines.

About The Series

Michigan State returns to Columbus – where the Buckeyes have won seven out of the last nine games – for this simmering rivalry that boiled over in 1998 with Michigan State shocking the 9-0, No. 1 ranked Buckeyes, 28-24 in Columbus. The Spartans also knocked off No. 1 Ohio State in 1974. In the 1998 contest, a third-quarter interception return for a touchdown by Damon Moore had given OSU a 24-9 lead but the Spartans rallied in rain and the late autumn darkness for 19-consecutive points. Kicker Paul Edinger's five field goals broke Ohio State. The Michigan State win snapped a five-game OSU winning streak in the series, the longest since the Buckeyes reeled off eight wins in a row from 1975 to 1984. Eddie George ran for a series-high 219 yards in Ohio State's 23-7 win in 1994.

As a senior, Mike Tomczak threw for 256 yards against Michigan State.

Illinois Fighting Illini

Located in east central Illinois in the twin cities of Urbana and Champaign, Illinois is the state's flagship public university. One of the most colorful traditions in college athletics is the performance of Chief Illiniwek, the IU symbol. Illiniwek (pronounced "ill-EYE-nih-wek") was the name of the loose confederation of Algonquin tribes that once lived in the region. The French changed the ending to "ois" in naming what became the state of Illinois. Illiniwek means "they are men." The Chief's current outfit was purchased in 1983 from Sioux Chief Frank Fools Crow, and is topped by a headdress of turkey feathers.

About The Series

Illinois is one of two Big Ten schools to have better than a .500 record against John Cooper-coached Ohio State teams. The Illlini are 7-5 vs. Cooper's Buckeyes, and won last year's meeting in Ohio Stadium, 46-20. The Buckeyes downed the Fighting Illini 15-consecutive times from 1968 to 1982. OSU also won 11 in a row over Illinois between 1935-45. The top two rushing performances in Ohio State history have come against Illinois. Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George ran for a school-record 314 yards in 1995 and Keith Byars ran for 274 yards in 1984, breaking Archie Griffin's school record of 246. Byars also scored five touchdowns in that 1984 game – a 45-38 win after OSU trailed 24-0 – to tie Pete Johnson's school record. One of his scores, a 67-yard run in the third quarter, featured Byars outrunning the Illinois secondary for 40 yards after he lost his shoe.

Cris Carter snared seven receptions for 147 yards and two touchdowns in the 1985 game at Illinois.

Michigan Wolverines

Since the earliest days of recorded history, the students and alumni of the University of Michigan have been referring to themselves as "Wolverines" which are carnivorous, usually solitary mammals. The simplest reason for the wolverine nickname would be that the animal was abundant in Michigan. However, all the evidence points otherwise as there has never been a verified trapping inside the state's borders, nor have skeletal remains of a wolverine been found. Instead, the reason for the nickname concerned the trading of pelts at Sault St. Marie for many years. Because many of the furs were in fact wolverine pelts, the traders referred to them as "Michigan wolverines."

About The Series

The Ohio State-Michigan rivalry is unquestionably one of the most storied in college football history. The two national powers have met for 81-consecutive seasons – the 10th longest current streak in NCAA Division IA history – and 95 times overall since 1897. From 1972 to 1981 the Ohio State-Michigan game determined the Big Ten champion and the conference's Rose Bowl representative. Although Michigan holds a 19-game lead in wins over Ohio State, over the last 47 games the series is tied 23-23-2. David Boston caught a Michigan opponents' record 217 yards worth of passes in 1998, including touchdown receptions of 30 and 43 yards. The Ohio State defense was dominant, limiting the Wolverines to 4 yards rushing for the game. The win was only the third by Ohio State in the last 13 meetings. Some additional series notes: The Ohio State vs. Michigan game was moved to the final Saturday of the Big Ten season in 1935. The Ohio Stadium dedication game in 1922 was against Michigan and the Michigan Stadium dedication game in 1927 was against Ohio State. Ohio State has snapped Michigan's Big Ten winning streaks of 16-consecutive games (1998), 15 (1972) and 11 (in 1970). Michigan has snapped Ohio State Big Ten winning streaks of 17, 16 and 15 games in 1976, 1969 and 1980, respectively.

Ohio State vs. Michigan

The Greatest Rivalry of the 20th Century

When Ohio Stadium opened in 1922, Michigan spoiled the party with a 22-0 victory. The rivalry was heated in the early days as both have been long-time college football powers. But it got hotter in 1969, when Bo Schembechler took over as Michigan's coach and upset Woody Hayes' No. 1-ranked, undefeated Buckeyes. Four times in the next six years, both teams were ranked in the Top 5 when they met. In 1970 and 1973, both were undefeated (tied 10-10 in '73). From 1970 through 1975, Michigan entered without a loss every year. The Wolverines won just once. Ohio State was 9-0-1 in 1993, 11-0 in 1995 and 10-0 in 1996. The Buckeyes lost each time.

That is rivalry. (source: espn.go.com)

A game so moving and meaningful it evokes joy that can't be described, pain that is burned into the walls of the soul and memories that last a lifetime.

Ohio State vs. Miami (Fla.)

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – The Ohio State Buckeyes opened the 1999 season against the Miami Hurricanes with a young and inexperienced team. Ten new starters were in the lineup, including Austin Moherman at quarterback and wide receivers Reggie Germany and Ken-Yon Rambo.

The Hurricanes struck on their first possession. Starting tailback James Jackson took a sweep to the right side of the field and sprinted 44 yards for a touchdown, the longest touchdown run in over two years against OSU.

The Buckeyes fired back just two minutes later. Senior tailback Michael Wiley turned an off-tackle play into a 69-yard run. The run led to a Dan Stultz 23-yard field goal that cut the Miami lead to 7-3.

Three plays later, OSU linebacker and preseason All-American Na'il Diggs sacked UM quarterback Kenny Kelly and forced a fumble. OSU defensive end Rodney Bailey scooped up the ball at the Miami 19 and returned it to the Miami 6-yard line. Two plays later, Moherman found Wisniewski for a 6-yard touchdown connection (the extra-point was missed) to give OSU its first lead of the game.

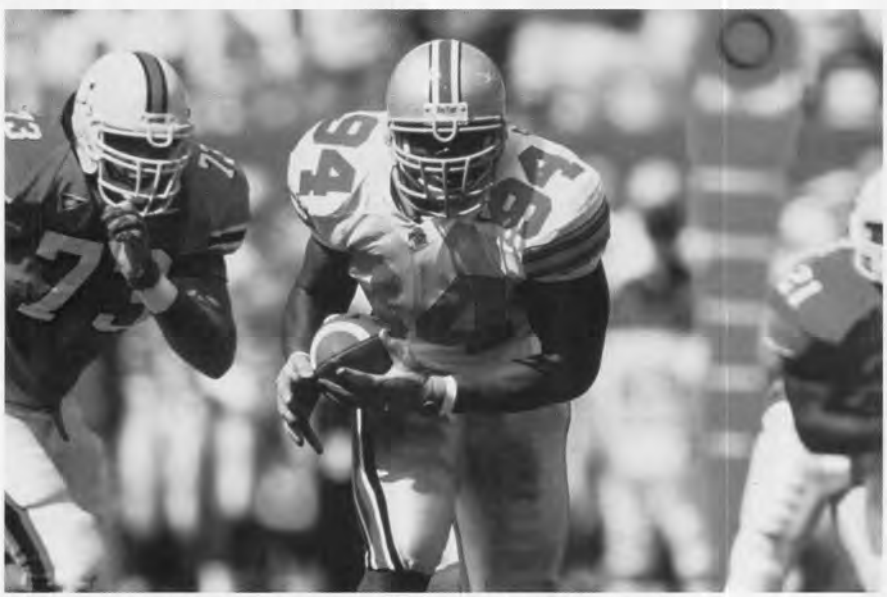
But the 9-7 lead was short-lived. With 3:14 remaining in the first half, the Hurricanes took a 15-7 lead on a seven-yard bootleg by Kelly.

Then with eight seconds left in the half, Kelly found Santana Moss on a 67-yard touchdown pass that was too much for the young Buckeyes to deal with. With the PAT, Miami led 23-9.

In the second half, OSU managed only a third quarter 24-yard field goal by Stultz. Neither team scored the remainder of the game.

On defense, Nate Clements and Gary Berry led the Buckeyes with 14 tackles each. Diggs tallied a team high four tackles-for-loss for a minus 14 yards. James Cotton and Rodney Bailey each recorded a sack.

The game marked OSU's first season-opening loss since 1986, when Alabama defeated the Buckeyes, 16-10, in the Kickoff Classic.



Ohio State took a 9-7 lead after Rodney Bailey recovered a fumble and rumbled to the Miami 6-yard line.

COLUMBUS – The fourth night game in Ohio Stadium history brought more electricity than expected as the No. 13 Ohio State Buckeyes defeated the No. 14 UCLA Bruins, 42-20.

Down 10-7 with 8:58 left in the second quarter, head coach John Cooper brought his second quarterback into the game to give the UCLA defense a different look. Sophomore Steve Bellisari did not disappoint as he electrified the sellout crowd of 93,283 with his accurate passing and hard running. He punctuated the evening with a decleating block late in the game.

On his first drive of the game, Bellisari led OSU on a five-play, 60-yard march that resulted into a Ken-Yon Rambo touchdown reception. Two plays prior to the touchdown, Bellisari found a leaping Reggie Germany streaking down the left sideline for a 39-yard reception to put the Buckeyes at the UCLA 7-yard line. Germany finished the contest with seven catches for 115-yards. Derek Combs scampered 5-yards to bring the ball to the UCLA 2, which set the stage for the Bellisari to Rambo connection.

Steve Bellisari electrified the crowd with his passing, running and blocking against the Bruins.

On the Buckeyes next possession, Bellisari marched OSU on an 11-play, 58-yard drive. The key play of the drive happened on a third and eight at the UCLA 28 yard line. On a quarterback draw, Bellisari juked his way for an 11-yard gain. Three plays later, Michael Wiley rushed in from 5 yards to score his second touchdown of the evening and give OSU a 21-10 lead going into halftime.

The Bruins scored on their opening drive of the third quarter. DeShaun Foster capped off a seven-play, 73-yard drive with a 7-yard touchdown run to cut the OSU lead 21-17.

But the OSU defense responded the remainder of the game as the Foster run became UCLA's last touchdown of the contest.

With 1:11 left in the third, linebacker Jason Ott flushed UCLA quarterback Drew Bennett out of the pocket. Bennett lost control of the ball and Ott pounced on it at the UCLA 30-yard line. Three plays later, sophomore Jamar Martin rumbled in for a 3-yard touchdown rush to extend the OSU lead to 28-17.

The highlight of the evening came on the third play of OSU's ensuing drive. Rambo took a reverse from Wiley and rushed for a 12-yard gain. On the reverse, Bellisari leveled UCLA defensive end Rusty Williams bringing the sellout crowd to its feet.

UCLA added a field goal with 9:30 remaining and OSU's Jerry Westbrooks scored his first rushing touchdown, an 8-yard run, to bring the score to 42-20.

Ohio State vs. Ohio

COLUMBUS – The Ohio State Buckeyes used a dominating second-half performance to outdistance the Ohio Bobcats 40-16 in front of 93,222 at Ohio Stadium. The game marked the first meeting between the two schools since 1902.

After a field goal by both teams, the Bobcats took their only lead of the game with 4:26 remaining in the first half on Chad Brinker's 3-yard touchdown run.

Down 10-3, starting quarterback Steve Bellisari led the offense on an eight-play, 55-yard drive that culminated with a 15-yard touchdown reception by Ken-Yon Rambo. The two teams went into the half tied at 10.

Ohio State took control after intermission, erupting for 24 points in the third quarter. On their first possession, the Buckeyes marched 80 yards on seven plays to take the lead on a Michael Wiley 2-yard touchdown rush.

On Ohio's next possession, the Buckeye defense flexed its collective muscle. On first down, defensive end Rodney Bailey stopped Bobcat quarterback Dontrell Jackson for a 2-yard loss. On second down, defensive end James Cotton stuffed fullback Chad Brinker for another 2-yard loss. On third down, linebacker Na'il Diggs bulldozed running back Joe Fondale after he caught a swing pass out of the backfield. On fourth down, the Bobcats attempted a fake punt that was foiled by OSU's Tony Locke for a 9-yard loss, putting the ball on the Bobcats 15-yard line.

Kurt Murphy and the offensive line paved the way for Ohio State's 449 yards of offense against the Bobcats.

Michael Wiley picked up 98 yards rushing on the day and scored on runs of 1 and 15-yards.

On OSU's first play from scrimmage, Wiley scampered for a 15-yard touchdown rush and increased the team's lead, 24-10.

On the Buckeyes' next possession, Bellisari and Rambo connected again for a 68-yard touchdown reception.

OSU's Dan Stultz added a 31-yard field goal to increase the lead to 34-10 after three.

The Bobcats reached the scoreboard a final time with 8:31 remaining in the game. Jamel Patterson scored on a 10-yard touchdown run to cut the OSU lead 34-16. Ohio failed on its two-point conversion attempt.

Ohio State added its final points on Derek Combs' 15-yard touchdown rush.

COLUMBUS – The Cincinnati Bearcats stepped on the Ohio Stadium field with the reputation as a proven giant killer after an upset win over Wisconsin, a week earlier. UC immediately set out to prove its win was not a fluke and jumped to an early 17-3 lead in the second quarter. But No. 12 Ohio State weathered the storm and scored 31 unanswered points to earn a hard-fought 34-20 win.

The Buckeyes opened the game on the right foot of kicker Dan Stultz. OSU's opening drive resulted into a 38-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead.

The Bearcats immediately answered. Jon Ruffin tied the game with a 46-yard field goal with 4:58 remaining in the first quarter. With 2:27 left in the quarter, LaDaris Vann caught a ball past the outstretched arms of OSU free safety Gary Berry for a 75-yard touchdown reception. UC increased its lead to 17-3 on Kenner's 35-yard touchdown run on a quarterback draw.

The momentum of the game changed with 8:57 remaining in the half. With the opportunity to add three points to their lead, Ruffin missed a 33-yard field goal attempt.

On OSU's next possession, quarterback Steve Bellisari connected with flanker Ken-Yon Rambo for a 59-yard touchdown strike to cut the UC lead, 17-10.

Later in the quarter, Bellisari and Rambo connected for a 55-yard reception, setting up Michael Wiley's 3-yard touchdown run. The two teams went into halftime tied at 17.

Early in the second half, OSU linebacker Jason Ott recorded his first career interception to set up the next Buckeye scoring drive. Ott finished the game with a career-high 11 tackles, which also tied him for the team high. Two plays later, tailback Derek Combs exploded for a 39-yard rush. On the following play, Combs rushed for a 5-yard touchdown to give OSU a 24-17 lead.

Later in the third quarter, Rambo found himself on the receiving end of another long bomb, this time from Wiley. On a tailback option, Wiley found Rambo for a 50-yard connection, putting the ball on the OSU 6-yard line. Rambo, who injured his ankle on the play, finished the game with three catches for 164-yards. Two plays later, Bellisari found the endzone for his first-career rushing touchdown to extend the OSU lead 31-17.

Early in the fourth quarter, Berry intercepted a Kenner pass and returned it to the Cincinnati 44-yard line. Stultz fired a 41-yard field goal for OSU's final points of the afternoon.

OSU cornerback Nate Clements tied with Ott to lead the Buckeyes with 11 tackles. Linebacker Na'il Diggs chipped in with 10, including three tackles-for-loss.

Head coach John Cooper notched his 100th career win at Ohio State (100-34-4). Only the legendary Woody Hayes has topped the mark, with 205 wins during his 28-year coaching tenure.

Ken-Yon Rambo scored on a 59-yard strike from Steve Bellisari and also turned a Michael Wiley option pass into a 50-yard gain.

Ohio State vs. Wisconsin

COLUMBUS – Led by Ron Dayne's four touchdowns and 161-yards rushing, the Wisconsin Badgers upset No. 12 Ohio State, 42-17.

The Buckeyes jumped ahead of the Badgers early in the first half. On its second possession, OSU manufactured an eight-play, 72-yard drive that led to Michael Wiley's 1-yard touchdown run. Wiley set up the touchdown on the prior play with a 17-yard completion on a halfback option to Steve Wisniewski.

OSU continued to play well on its next possession. Dan Stultz capped off a five- play, 30-yard drive with a 35-yard field goal, giving OSU a 10-0 lead.

The Buckeyes added another touchdown on their next possession. Quarterback Steve Bellisari hooked up with split end Reggie Germany for an acrobatic 40-yard touchdown reception.

Jason Ott recorded a career-high 15 tackles.

But the Badgers chipped away at the lead as Vitaly Pisetsky kicked field goals of 42 and 25 yards to cut the lead to 17-6 at halftime.

The second half proved to be all Wisconsin, or all Dayne. UW scored on six of its seven possessions. On the second half kickoff, OSU fumbled at the 14-yard line. Two plays later, Dayne scored his first touchdown of the afternoon, a 3-yard run, to trim OSU's lead to 17-12 (the two-point conversion failed).

COLUMBUS – The No. 21 Ohio State Buckeyes and the No. 17 Purdue Boilermakers engaged in a classic Big Ten battle in wet and rainy conditions in Ohio Stadium. The game featured five lead changes and a blocked field goal by OSU defensive end Brent Johnson in the final minute that gave OSU a 25-22 win.

On the opening kickoff, Purdue's Larry Shyne fumbled at the 17-yard line. Ohio State's Gary Berry pounced on the ball at the 30. Five plays later, tailback Derek Combs, in his first-career start, scampered 5-yards into the endzone to give OSU an early 7-0 lead.

Later in the quarter, Purdue bounced back. Adrian Beasley intercepted a pass by OSU quarterback Steve Bellisari to put the ball at the OSU 22-yard line. Three plays later, wide receiver Vinny Sutherland took a handoff from quarterback Drew Brees, faked a sweep around the right end and threw the ball back to a wide-open Brees on the left sideline for a 12-yard touchdown, tying the score at seven.

In the second quarter, the Boilermakers took their first lead of the afternoon. With 12:43 remaining in the half, Travis Dorsch nailed a 40-yard field goal, giving PU a 10-7 lead. With under a minute left in the half, Dorsch added another field goal, this time a 32-yarder, to give PU a 13-7 halftime edge.

Gary Berry recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff that led to a Derek Combs touchdown and an early 7-0 Ohio State lead.

But the Purdue lead was short-lived. The Buckeyes answered with 8:45 remaining in the third quarter. OSU went to its bag of tricks and executed the halfback option to perfection when Michael Wiley found tight end Darnell Sanders in the back of the endzone for a 7-yard touchdown. The reception and score were both firsts in Sanders' career.

On its next drive, OSU increased its lead to 17-13 on Dan Stultz's 45-yard field goal.

A minute into the fourth quarter, the Boilermakers cut OSU's lead to 17-16 on Dorsch's 22-yard field goal. Two plays into OSU's next drive, Bellisari tossed his second interception of the afternoon, this time to Willie Fells. Fells intercepted the ball at the OSU 34-yard line and returned it 29-yards to the OSU 5-yard line. On the next play, Montrell Lowe rushed in from 5-yards out to give Purdue its second lead of the afternoon, 22-17 (the two-point conversion failed).

But with 5:13 remaining in the game, Ohio State tailback Jonathan Wells capped a 13 play, 76-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run. Wiley converted the two-point conversion (rush) to give OSU a 25-22 lead.

Brees drove his team 68-yards on 12 plays to set up a 29-yard field goal attempt for Dorsch with under a minute left in the game. Johnson fired through the line to record the first blocked kick of his career.

Ohio State at Penn State

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. – The No. 17 Ohio State Buckeyes and the No. 2 Penn State Nittany Lions played an intense and physical 60-minutes of football in a key Big Ten Conference matchup. PSU limited Ohio State to 143-yards total offense while OSU countered with a pair of blocked field goals and a fumble recovery for a touchdown.

PSU stormed out of the gates early. On its second play from scrimmage, tailback Eric McCoo rumbled 53 yards to the Ohio State 6-yard line. Two plays later, quarterback Kevin Thompson found fullback Mike Cerimele for 6-yard touchdown connection.

On Ohio State's third play from scrimmage, quarterback Steve Bellisari was sacked at the OSU 19-yard line by Courtney Brown and fumbled the ball. PSU's Brandon Short recovered the ball to put the Nittany Lions inside the red zone. With its back to the wall, the OSU defense stiffened, with Jason Ott blocking a 39-yard field goal attempt.

On OSU's next possession, Bellisari scrambled for 44-yards to set up Dan Stultz's 47-yard field goal, cutting the PSU lead, 7-3.

But the Nittany Lions added a pair of field goals by Travis Forney for a 13-3 lead.

After another stalled drive by the Buckeyes, Penn State began a drive at the PSU 6-yard line with 3:40 remaining in the half. Two plays later, OSU linebacker Na'il Diggs blitzed passed the right side of the PSU offensive line and sacked Thompson and forced a fumble in the endzone. An alert Gary Berry pounced on the ball to cut the PSU lead to 13-10 going into the half. On the sack, Thompson was knocked out of the game with an injured shoulder.

In the second half, PSU played even tighter defense, shutting out the Buckeyes the final two quarters. After a three-and-out by the OSU offense, the Nittany Lions increased their lead to 20-10. PSU quarterback Rashard Casey's 5-yard touchdown run capped a seven-play, 61-yard drive.

With 13:27 remaining in the game, Forney kicked a 28-yard field goal for the final margin of victory.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. – The No. 22 Ohio State Buckeyes, capitalized on a pair of fourth quarter field goals by Dan Stultz to defeat No. 24 Minnesota, 20-17, in the Metrodome.

The Buckeyes took a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter. Cornerback Nate Clements intercepted a pass by Golden Gopher quarterback Billy Cockerham and returned the ball to the UM 5-yard line. Two plays later, Michael Wiley scored on a 3-yard run.

Early in the second quarter Cockerham capped off a seven-play, 53-yard drive with a 9-yard touchdown run.

Five minutes later, UM increased its lead to 10-7 when Dan Nystrom kicked a 30-yard field goal.

The score remained unchanged until midway through the third quarter. With 9:06 remaining, Austin Moherman entered the game for OSU at quarterback and proceeded to march the team downfield. The sophomore quickly went 2-for-3 for 27 yards to set up Wiley's second score of the afternoon. The senior tailback exploded through the Minnesota defense for a 44-yard touchdown rush, giving OSU a 14-10 lead.

A Moherman fumble that put the ball on the UM 48-yard line set up the Gopher's final score. Tailback Thomas Hamner culminated a five-play, 52-yard drive with a 7-yard touchdown run, giving UM a 17-14 lead going into the fourth quarter.

With 8:13 remaining, starting quarterback Steve Bellisari re-entered the game. On his first play from scrimmage, OSU ran a trick-play. Wiley took a half-back option sweep over the right side. Bellisari proceeded to slip down the left side of the field, where Wiley connected with him for a 28-yard completion. Four plays later, Stultz connected from 43-yards to tie the game at 17-17.

After the UM offense went three-and-out, OSU began its drive from their own 38-yard line. The Buckeyes then marched down the field with a 10-play, 40-yard drive to set up Stultz's heroics. With just 1:15 left in the game, Stultz hit a 40-yard field goal to give OSU the lead for good.

Defensively for Ohio State, Ahmed Plummer and James Cotton led the team with seven tackles each. Cotton along with Mike Collins and Joe Cooper each recorded a quarterback sack.

Steve Bellisari caught a 28-yard option pass from Michael Wiley.

Ohio State vs. Iowa

COLUMBUS – The No. 21 Ohio State Buckeyes used a season-high 534 yards in total offense and a solid defensive effort to defeat the Iowa Hawkeyes in convincing fashion, 41-11.

Iowa quarterback Scott Mullen led his team on a six-play, 57-yard march that resulted in an 18-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Kasper. UI fullback Rob Thein followed with a rush for the two-point conversion to give the Hawkeyes an 8-0 lead.

The Buckeyes answered immediately.

On OSU's first possession, tailback Jonathan Wells capped an 11-play, 71-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run. Dan Stultz kicked the extra point to cut the lead to 8-7.

Bellisari made it 14-8 on a nifty 18-yard quarterback draw. Later, his three-yard pass to tight end Kevin Houser made it 21-8 and took the wind out of the upset-minded Hawkeyes.

OSU kept the pressure on after the intermission. Wells's second touchdown, this one a three-yard run, gave the Buckeyes a 28-3 cushion.

After a 28-yard field goal by Tim Douglas, the OSU defense put a strangle hold on the Hawkeyes. An onside-kick gave Iowa the ball on the OSU 47-yard line. But two plays later, OSU cornerback Ahmed Plummer intercepted his team-high fourth pass of the year.

The Hawkeyes next possession finished with the same results, this time with defensive end Kenny Peterson recording his first career interception. On a first-and-10 at the OSU 29-yard line, Mullen scrambled and was hit by linebacker Joe Cooper as he released the ball. An alert Peterson snared the ball and returned it 31-yards to the OSU 38-yard line. Three plays later, Bellisari connected with Rambo for a 40-yard touchdown, giving the Buckeyes a 35-11 lead.

Na'il Diggs led the OSU defense with 11 tackles. Ahmed Plummer chipped in with eight, one interception and a pass breakup. Joe Cooper also recorded his first-career interception in the fourth quarter.

Ken-Yon Rambo caught seven passes for 179 yards and one touchdown against Iowa.

EAST LANSING, Mich. – Behind a stellar defensive effort, the No. 19 Michigan State Spartans defeated the No. 20 Ohio State Buckeyes, 23-7 in Spartan Stadium. The MSU defense limited OSU to just 79 yards of total offense.

The Buckeyes moved the ball 54 yards on eight plays to the MSU 26-yard line on their first possession. But a pair of sacks by MSU defensive lineman Julius Peterson and an incomplete pass stalled the drive and moved the Buckeyes out of field goal range. The drive accounted for three of OSU's four first downs the entire game.

OSU limited the Spartans to just 38 yards on 12 plays in the first quarter. But with 10:45 remaining in the second quarter, the Spartans took a 3-0 lead and never looked back. Paul Edinger capped an 11-play, 41-yard drive with a 35-yard field goal.

After a three-and-out by the Ohio State offense, the Spartans took over with the ball at the Ohio State 45-yard line. Seven plays later, quarterback Bill Burke found Plaxico Burress open in the left corner of the endzone to stretch the MSU lead to 10-0.

After another three-and-out by the OSU offense, the Spartans took over again in Ohio State territory. MSU immediately drove to the OSU 4-yard line on six plays. On fourth-and-goal, Burke eluded the Ohio State blitz and found Chris Baker open in the endzone to increase the MSU lead to 17-0.

In the third quarter, OSU reached the scoreboard for its first and only time of the afternoon. On MSU's second drive of the half, Plummer intercepted a Burke pass attempted for Burress and returned the ball 37-yards to the MSU 14-yard line. Three plays later, quarterback Steve Bellisari connected with tailback Michael Wiley for a 4-yard touchdown reception to cut the MSU lead to 17-7.

On the next series, the Spartans put together a 13-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in Edinger's second field goal of the afternoon. The 33-yard boot increased the MSU lead 20-7.

MSU added another field goal in the fourth quarter.

Defensively, the Buckeyes were led by Gary Berry's 13 tackles. Freshman Michael Doss contributed a career-high 12 tackles and middle linebacker Jason Ott chipped in with 10.

The Buckeye defense did its best to contain the Spartan offense.

Ohio State vs. Illinois

COLUMBUS – Entering the game, Ohio State had won the last four-consecutive meetings against Illinois by a 171-9 margin of victory. But the Fighting Illini turned the tables on the Buckeyes by scoring the second-highest point total by an opponent in Ohio Stadium with a 46-20 win.

Illinois took a 6-0 lead in the first quarter off a pair of field goals by Neil Rackers. He hit from 24 and 47 yards, respectively.

In the second quarter, Illinois ran away with the game by outscoring OSU 23-7. Less than a minute into the quarter, Kurt Kittner capped a seven-play, 73-yard drive with a 30-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Lloyd. UI failed on the two-point conversion but had a comfortable 19-0 lead. The Buckeyes scored their only points in the half with 6:59 remaining. Senior Michael Wiley rumbled for a 35-yard touchdown run to cut the UI lead to 19-7.

With 47 seconds remaining in the half, Rackers tied a career best with a 50-yard field goal to stretch the UI lead to 22-7. Ohio State fumbled the ensuing kick and the ball was recovered by UI's Antonio Harris at the OSU 1-yard line. Three plays later, Kittner connected with Josh Whitman for a touchdown reception. UI went into halftime with a 29-7 lead.

Michael Wiley rushed for 128 yards including a 35-yard touchdown scamper.

COLUMBUS – The Ohio State Buckeyes traveled north to face their bitter rivals, the No. 10 Michigan Wolverines. And although a conference championship was not on the line, much was at stake as OSU needed a win to finish the season above .500 and earn a possible berth to a postseason bowl game. For the Wolverines, a win could lock up a berth in a Bowl Championship Series game.

On OSU's second possession, the team put together an impressive seven-play, 51-yard drive that resulted into a six-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Steve Bellisari to tight end Kevin Houser.

In the second quarter, the Wolverines tied the game at seven with an 11-play, 70 yard drive that resulted in a 1-yard touchdown run by tailback Anthony Thomas.

The Buckeyes immediately went back to work. Another short touchdown pass by Bellisari, this time to fullback Jamar Martin capped a 12-play, 80-yard drive. OSU went into halftime with a 14-7 lead.

In the third quarter. Michigan's Hayden Epstein kicked a 42-yard field goal with 11:22 remaining in the quarter to cut the OSU lead 14-10.

The Buckeyes again found a quick answer on their next possession. With 8:13 remaining in the quarter, Dan Stultz connected on a 27-yard field goal to increase OSU's lead, 17-10.

The chess match continued later in the quarter. With 44 seconds remaining, Michigan's Ian Gold intercepted a Bellisari pass at the OSU 25-yard line and returned it to the OSU 17. One play later, UM tied the score when quarterback Tom Brady rolled out of the pocket and found Shawn Thompson for his second touchdown of the game.

With 5:01 remaining, Brady hit Marquise Walker on a 10-yard touchdown reception. UM kept the 24-17 lead for the remainder of the game.

Offensively, the Buckeyes outgained the Wolverines 368 yards to 252. Wiley finished with 22 carries for 92-yards rushing.

Defensively, cornerback Nate Clements led the Buckeyes with nine tackles. Linebacker Jason Ott, safety Mike Doss and linebacker Na'il Diggs chipped in with seven each.

Defensive end James Cotton recorded a pair of sacks.

Ernie Godfrey

Ohio State has had several outstanding assistant coaches down through the years. But perhaps none has had more of an impact than the legendary Ernie Godfrey, who spent 33 years on the Ohio State staff, assisting seven different head coaches. Ernie joined the Ohio State ranks in 1929 as an assistant for Sam Willaman. He would go on to work for Francis Schmidt, Paul Brown, Carroll Widdoes, Paul Bixler, Wes Fesler and Woody Hayes before retiring in 1961. After retirement, at the urging of Hayes, he spent 11 years working with the Buckeyes' kickers. An Ohio State graduate, he lettered in football in 1914 with the Buckeyes. Godfrey, who was on the coaching staff of five national championship teams and six Rose Bowl squads, is a member of the National Football Fourndation and Hall of Fame. The Columbus chapter of that organization is named after him.

Ohio Stadium

Stately Ohio Stadium, one of the true citadels of college football, is now in its 79th year as the home of the Ohio State Buckeyes. Completed in 1922, the unique horseshoe-shaped structure currently is undergoing a three-year preservation and renovation project that will ensure its longevity well into the twenty-first century.

Nestled snugly on the banks of the Olentangy River, the Stadium had an original capacity of 66, 210. When the current renovation project is completed – prior to the start of the 2001 season – capacity is expected to be between 96,000 and 99,000.

Over the years, more that 33 million fans have passed through the Ohio Stadium archways. Between 1951 and 1973, Ohio State led the nation in attendance 20 times and finished second the other two years. On Sept. 30, 1995, a record-crowd of 95,537 jammed the Horseshoe to witness a long awaited rematch between Notre Dame and Ohio State, won 45-26 by the Buckeyes. In 1996, the Buckeyes, on the way to a brilliant 11-1 campaign that included a heart-stopping victory over Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, averaged a school record 94,028 fans in six home games. Last season, in seven home games, the Buckeyes attracted 654,192 fans, the second highest one-season total in school history.

Funded largely through private donations, the original cost of the Stadium was approximately $1.5 million. Skeptics openly scoffed at the original cavernous size, but were quickly silenced when an overflow crowd of 71,385 attended the dedication game against Michigan on Oct. 21 1922.

Listed in the National Registry of Historic Places, Ohio Stadium has undergone numerous changes over the years, including the addition of field and box seats, and later the south stands. Artificial turf replaced the original grass surface in 1971 and a second artificial carpet was installed in 1979. The current surface of Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) was put down in 1990.

A new scoreboard with computer graphics capabilities was installed at the south end of the stadium in 1984 at a cost of $2.6 million – nearly double the original cost of the stadium. That scoreboard was removed following the ing the 1999 season and has been replaced by a state-of-the-art board, which features a video screen that is 30 feet high and 90 feet wide. The latter will have replay capabilities and can show up to three games at once.

Other changes this year, include the lowering of the playing field 14 feet, six inches and the addition of 10 rows of new seating around the field ("AA" Deck). Additionally, 19 new rows have been added to the east side of "C" Deck and the South Stands have been replaced by a permanent structure. New locker rooms for both the home and visiting teams also have been completed.

The outbuild to "C" Deck on the west side is a work in progress and will be completed prior to next season, adding 19 rows on that side. Additionally, three levels of hospitality suites and a new press box will be ready in time for the 2001 season. When completed, Ohio Stadium will be completely up-to-code in all areas, including disability seating, aisle width, concession areas and men's and women's restrooms. Wider concourses on all three levels, and the addition of escalators and elevators, will make it much easier for fans to get to-and-from their seats.

The cost of this project is expected to approach nearly $187 million – 80-percent of which will be paid for through the sale of the 82 Hospitality Suites and 2,500 Club Seats. But this is the first major renovation ever undertaken on the Stadium and was absolutely necessary in order to preserve this storied structure for future use.

In November of 1997, Ohio State officials announced that Ohio Stadium, the home of Buckeye football since 1922, would undergo an extensive renovation. After more than 75 year of faithful service, the Horseshoe was badly in need of repair.

Some work began the following spring, but it wasn't until the end of the 1998 football season that the area in-and-around the stadium became inundated with construction equipment and an army of workers wearing hardhats.

Since then, the pace has been frantic. But the three-year, $187 million project is right on schedule and will be ready in time for the 2001 season. When it is, Ohio Stadium, already on the Register of National Historic Buildings, will be even more of a college football icon.

Fans will notice a number of changes this year, including a field that is 14'6" lower than it was after the end of the 1999 campaign, ten new rows of stands immediately around the field, 19 new rows above "C" Deck on the east side, new South Stands that are now permanent in nature, and a new video board that is an absolute marvel in terms of the latest technology.

There is more, including new seat covers in all of "C" Deck, new and expanded concession areas, greatly increased handicapped seating, additional restrooms ("C" Deck will have restrooms and concessions for the first time ever) and new locker rooms and training rooms for both teams.

But there is still more to do.

The third and final phase of the renovation will be ongoing through the 2000 season and will continue right up until August of 2001. That phase includes all new seats in "A" Deck, the addition of 19 new rows on the west side of "C" Deck, three levels of hospitality suites on the west side and a new press box.

Amazingly, this project is being funded without the use of any tax dollars, university or state monies, or student fees or tuition increases. Instead, the 82 hospitality suites and the 2,500 Club Seats that will be located on the west side of "A" Deck will finance 80 percent of the project. The remaining 20 percent will come from money generated from ticket and concession sales.

Just how many additional seats there will be when the stadium is completed has not yet been determined (estimates range from 96,000 to 99,000). Whatever the number, Ohio State fans will be able to enjoy one of the most modern facilities in all of college football and, thanks to this project, enjoy it for years to come.

Ohio State Football History

To quote authors Marv Homan and Paul Hornung, who co-wrote "Ohio State – 100 Years of Football:"

"Ohio State University has experienced an overwhelmingly eventful, colorful, often controversial, ever-intriguing and, above all, enormously successful football history." Much of the information in this section, which peeks at various seasons of Ohio State football between 1900 and 1999, was supplied with permission from "Ohio State – 100 Years of Football."

Some things never change. Fans packed the stands at Ohio Field to catch a glimpse of the Buckeyes.

1899

The Buckeyes notch a 9-0-1 record, their first unbeaten season.

1901

Football crowds and support grow at an alarming rate. Columbus newspapers begin devoting more space to football and most importantly, for the first time after 12 seasons of football, the sport turned a modest profit for the ever-struggling university athletic association.

1904

E.R. Sweetland became the school's first year-round football coach. Expectations were high for the 1904 team, driving the athletic association to purchase 1,500 additional bleacher seats to be installed on the east side of University Field. Unfortunately, the team and the expected crowds fell way short of all expectations. Ohio State won just six times in 11 tries. Ticket prices ranged from 25 cents to a dollar for "deluxe" games with Michigan and the Carlisle Indians.

1906

Chillicothe native and former Michigan player Al Herrnstein takes over as head coach. Herrnstein, who coached at Purdue in 1905, was instrumental in proving a non-eastern coach could be successful in college football.

1910

The construction of new bleachers increases the capacity of Ohio Field to 10,000. Football season tickets are sold for $2.50. Howard Jones, an All-American from Yale, is named head coach.

1911

On the recommendation of Howard Jones, the athletic board hires Harry Vaughn, also from Yale, as head football coach. Vaughn shows little interest in coaching and resigns after leading Ohio State to a 5-3-2 season.

1912

The athletic board, growing tired of the constant turnover, decides to try a new approach and make the head football coach also serve as the director of athletics. Weary of choosing eastern coaches, the Board hired John Richards, a former Wisconsin coach, to assume both roles. The strategy backfires, as Richards goes 6-3 and resigns after one season. With five minutes remaining in the Penn State game and OSU trailing 37-0, Richards took the Buckeyes off the field because of alleged rough play and PSU was awarded a 1-0 win. Ohio State joins the Western Conference, which later became the Big Ten, but could not compete in the conference in football until 1913.

Only after Carl Rothgeb of Colorado College declined to accept the position, John W. Wilce, a former three sport star at Wisconsin, was named head football coach at Ohio State. Wilce went on to a storied 16-year career at OSU, leading the school to three Big Ten Championships. The Buckeyes made their football debut in the Western Conference, creating a wave of electric enthusiasm throughout Columbus. Ohio Field's capacity had been increased to 14,000 in anticipation of joining the conference. Ohio State collected its first league win Nov. 13 with a 58-0 trouncing of Northwestern.

Ohio State produced its first All-America, end Boyd Cherry, and went 5-2. Interest in football at the school continued to skyrocket.

1915

Varsity manager William A. Dougherty wrote the fight song "Across the Field." The song was dedicated to Coach John Wilce and was first performed at the Illinois game.

1916

Ohio State went a perfect 7-0 and captured its first Western Conference title – sort of. For a reason still unknown, the conference did not officially recognize football championships in those days. Highlights of the championship season included a school record 128-0 win over Oberlin, the first win over Wisconsin (14-13), and a season-ending 23-3 victory over Northwestern that decided the conference championship. Chic Harley earned the first of what would become three All-America awards. He was OSU's first three-time All-American and one of only six in school history.

1917

A powerful Ohio State team finished 8-0-1, capturing its second-consecutive Western Conference championship. Strangely enough, two postseason games were played that year. Ohio State tied Auburn, 0-0, in a game played in Montgomery, Ala., to benefit the Ohio National Guard training in the South. Another game not originally on the schedule was played the next weekend, as Ohio State rolled over Camp Sherman, a team from Chillicothe. Harley earned All-America honors for the second- consecutive season, and more importantly, became the talk of the Midwest. Fans turned out in record numbers to see Harley, one of the most versatile players in the country, pass, punt, rush, return punts, drop-kick extra points, and play stellar defense. The legendary Walter Camp, who selected the only official college All-America team in those days, made a personal visit to Columbus to watch Harley play.

1919

Ohio State outscored its opponents 176-12 and went 6-1. OSU recorded its first win over Michigan, 13-3. The admittance of Ohio State to the Western Conference and the dramatic success of the football team under coach Wilce magnified the inadequacy of Ohio Field.

1920

A landmark year for Ohio State football. Professor Thomas E. French, a member of the athletic board, and Director of Athletics Lynn Wilbur St. John decided it was time to take advantage of the soaring interest in Ohio State football. An extensive stadium campaign was launched in the fall, with hopes of building a new football facility. The campaign opened Oct. 18, 1920, with a goal of reaching $600,000, a figure considered unrealistic by many. By Nov. 26, 1920, over $923,000 had been pledged. With the campaign in full force, coach Wilce's team kept interest levels high by finishing the regular season 7-0 and capturing the school's third Western Conference title. The undefeated season drove Ohio State football into the national spotlight and caught the eye of the Tournament of Roses Association in Pasadena, Calif. At the conclusion of the regular season, Ohio State received an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl against California Jan. 1, 1921. After heated discussions between members of the athletic board and St. John, the football team was granted permission to play in the game.

1921

The fact Ohio State went 5-2 and collected its third-consecutive win over Michigan was dwarfed by the construction occurring just a few blocks from Ohio Field in 1921. On Aug. 3, Ohio Governor Harry Davis joined a crowd of over 2,500 to officially break ground on the new stadium. The massive project was scheduled to take only 14 months and originally was to be completed at a cost of $1,341,017. After speculation the new stadium would seat about 35,000, it was officially announced it would actually seat over 60,000, a figure that drew harsh criticism from many. Upon completion, the final cost of the stadium exceeded $1,500,000. Over $1,000,000 of that cost had been pledged by proud and dedicated Ohio State football fans.

Those that cited concerns of Ohio Stadium being too large looked on in awe as the stadium was dedicated prior to the Michigan game Oct. 21. Temporary stands were erected in the south end of the stadium, and a crowd of 72,500 was estimated. The dedication game against the Wolverines was actually the third game played in Ohio Stadium. Ohio State christened its new home with a 5-0 win over Ohio Wesleyan in front of 25,000 people. OSU won the first two games in Ohio Stadium, but finished the season with a disappointing 3-4 mark.

L.W. St. John announces all stadium debt has been paid, a remarkable achievement considering the facility had been standing for only eight short years. Coach Wilce announces his resignation, to take effect in June, 1929, citing the desire to enter the private practice of medicine. After capturing three Western Conference Championships and producing 14 All-Americans, Wilce left football and did post-graduate research at Harvard and Columbia before becoming the Director of the Ohio State University Student Health Services in 1934.

Lynn Wilbur St. John

Sam Willaman, an assistant on Wilce's staff and a 1913 Ohio State graduate, was named the 13th head coach in the history of Ohio State football. He led the team to a 4-3-1 finish in his first season.

1930

Wes Fesler becomes only the second three-time All-America in Ohio State history, captaining the Buckeyes and leading them to a 5-2-1 record. He also is the first recorded winner of the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Fesler, one of the school's top all-time all-around athletes, earned nine total varsity letters – three each in football, basketball, and baseball.

1933

Fueled by an incredible defense, Ohio State finished 7-1, dropping only a 14-0 decision to Michigan. The Buckeyes allowed only 26 points the entire season, while scoring 161.

1934

Francis Schmidt is named the head football coach at Ohio State, ushering in not only a new era but also a new style of football. With an offensive scheme dubbed "razzle-dazzle" by the press and featuring double and triple reverses, laterals, and passes, Schmidt's inaugural team scored 267 points – the second most in OSU history at that point. Schmidt's off-the-field antics were just as colorful as his on-field plays, making him an instant hit with the community. After accepting the coaching position, he was asked how he expected to cope with the OSU nemesis from Ann Arbor. Dressed in his inevitable bow tie, his matter-of-fact answer developed into a cliché: "They put their pants on one leg at a time same as everybody else." Schmidt's comment leads to the formation of the "Gold Pants Club," which awarded miniature gold football pants to all players who had a hand in a victory over the Wolverines. The tradition of an annual Captain's Breakfast, where all former grid captains are invited to a breakfast and welcome the current team captains, also began.

1935

Ohio State collected its second-consecutive 7-1 season under Schmidt, claiming the school's first Big Ten title in 14 years. The Buckeyes capped the year with a 38-0 season-ending win over Michigan. That season finale launched the now famous season-ending rivalry. Since then, Ohio State has ended its regular-season schedule with a battle against the Wolverines every year but one. Also in 1935, Ohio State and Notre Dame play what was hailed as the "greatest college game ever played," for many years after. The Buckeyes held a 13-0 lead entering the fourth quarter, but Notre Dame scored three times in the final stanza – twice in the last two minutes – for an 18-13 win.

1936

The Ohio State Marching Band performed "Script Ohio" for the first time at the Indiana game. OSU dropped its Big Ten opener to Northwestern, 14-13, but steamrolled through its remaining conference schedule with four shutouts in four games.

1941

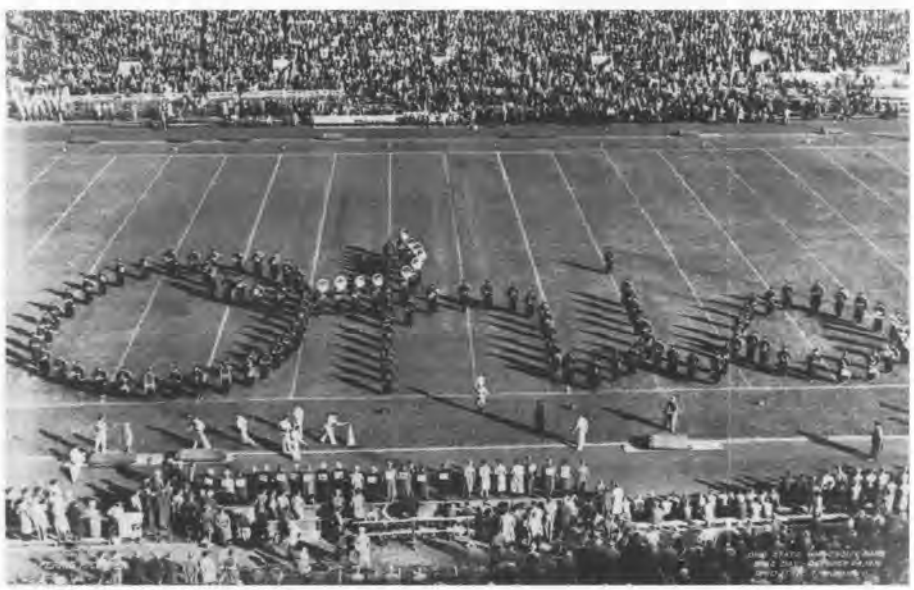
After a dominant high school coaching career in Massillon, Ohio, Paul Brown was named Ohio State's 15th head coach. An incredibly organized, meticulous man, Brown led Ohio State to a 6-1-1 mark in his debut season. He also earned OSU's first west coast win, a 33-0 trouncing at Southern California in only Brown's second collegiate game. The season ended with a 20-all tie at Michigan.

1942

Though World War II loomed over the nation, Ohio State football fans reveled in one of the most glorious seasons ever. The Buckeyes captured the school's first national championship as well as a Big Ten title, finishing the year 9-1 and ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. Led by a star-studded backfield that included Les Horvath, Paul Sarringhaus, and Gene Fekete, OSU rolled to 337 points, a record that stood until 1969. The only loss of the season, a 17-7 decision at Wisconsin, even had an asterisk. Several key players and coaches caught a debilitating virus from a drinking fountain on the train from Chicago to Madison.

1943

With a game apparently ending in a 26-26 tie, Ohio State and Illinois left the field. But the teams were called back 20 minutes later when it was discovered the Illini were called for a penalty on the Buckeyes' final play. With little of the crowd remaining, John Stungis kicked a 27-yard field goal – the first of his career – for a 29-26 OSU win. Brown, a Lieutenent Junior-Grade, left Ohio State for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in April of 1944.



The first Script Ohio, Oct. 24, 1936.

Carroll Widdoes, an assistant of Paul Brown's at Massillon and Ohio State, was named acting head coach. In his first season, the Buckeyes finish 9-0 and claim the Big Ten championship, but finish No. 2 in the Associated Press behind Army. OSU fans claim an unofficial "civilian national championship." Les Horvath became the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. Ohio State received an invitation to the Rose Bowl, but faculty representatives from around the Big Ten disallow the trip.

1946

In one of the program's more unique coaching moves, offensive coordinator Paul Bixler and head coach Carroll Widdoes switch roles prior to the season. Warren Amling earns All-America honors at tackle, just a year after being named an All-America guard. Following the season, Bixler turns in his resignation.

1947

In the same meeting Bixler announces his intentions to resign, L. W. St. John proposes to the athletic board that Wes Fesler be the next head coach at Ohio State. The board concurs, and Fesler, a three-time All-America at Ohio State in the 1930s, becomes the program's fifth head coach in eight years. In one of the stranger games during the 1900s, Ohio State was afforded three plays after time had expired because of Northwestern penalties and came away with a 7-6 victory in Ohio Stadium.

1949

Ohio State captures a share of the Big Ten championship and collects its first Rose Bowl win, beating California, 17-14.

1950

Vic Janowicz puts on arguably the greatest individual display in college football history against Iowa. He sent two kickoffs out of the endzone for touchbacks, recovered two fumbles on defense, scored on an 11-yard touchdown run, returned a punt 61 yards for a touchdown, threw a 12-yard scoring strike, and kicked three extra points – all in the first five minutes of the game. The famous "Snow Bowl" game with Michigan was played in late November. Somehow, between the swirling winds and zero visibility, Janowicz boots a 38-yard field goal in what would later be called one of the "Greatest Feats in American Sports" by a panel of sportswriters. To no one's surprise, Janowicz wins the Heisman Trophy. On Dec. 9, Fesler submits a lengthy resignation statement.

1951

After a highly-scrutinized selection process, Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes begins his 28-year tenure as head coach. A tireless worker, meticulous planner, and a Lt. Commander in the Navy, Hayes led his initial Buckeye team, which struggled to adjust to his T-formation style, to a 4-3-2 finish. Many thought Hayes' days at Ohio State were numbered. They were wrong.

1954

Ohio State claims its second national championship with a perfect 10-0 season, beating Southern Cal, 20-7, in a rainy, mud-soaked Rose Bowl game. The rift between west coast writers and Hayes is born when the OSU coach criticizes the Tournament of Roses Association for not covering the field before the game and allowing the bands to perform at halftime.

1955

Ohio State uses a 17-0 blanking of Michigan to claim its second-consecutive Big Ten Championship. Howard "Hopalong" Cassady becomes Ohio State's third Heisman Trophy winner. During the season, Hayes voices his displeasure over the fact several other football conferences had started awarding scholarships to student-athletes, but the Big Ten had failed to follow suit. After a series of meetings and heated debates, the conference adopts a complicated grant-in-aid program based on financial need, marking the first form of athletics scholarship available at Ohio State.

1956

Ohio State sets a Big Ten record with 17-consecutive victories, breaking Michigan's previous mark of 15. Offensive guard Jim Parker became the first OSU player to win the Outland Trophy.

1957

After dropping the season opener, the Buckeyes win nine-consecutive games to capture the school's third national championship – the second under Hayes. OSU knocked off Oregon 10-7 in the Rose Bowl for its third-consecutive win in Pasadena.

1961

Ohio State finishes 8-0-1, defeats Michigan, 50-20, wins the Big Ten and is named national champions by the Football Writers. A bitter dispute among the school's faculty council erupted when a Rose Bowl invitation arrived. By a narrow margin, the council voted not to accept the invitation and skip the bowl game. A livid Hayes claimed for years the decision hampered his recruiting efforts.

1963

Ohio State defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor, 14-10, marking the fourth-consecutive Buckeye win over the Wolverines. The game was delayed a week as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy. The attendance of 36,424 was the smallest at Michigan Stadium in 20 years.

Billy Ray Anders, a true walk-on that did not play high school football, set an OSU record with 55 receptions. The record would stand until Cris Carter's arrival in 1985.

1968

Arguably the finest Ohio State team in history uses a dominating 50-14 win over Michigan and a 27-16 come-from-behind victory over Southern California in the Rose Bowl to earn the school's fifth national championship. Before the final polls crowning the Buckeyes champions are released, Coach Hayes departs for Vietnam for a volunteer trip to talk football with U.S. servicemen. Later, the Sporting News called this team one of the 10 greatest college football teams of all-time.

1969

A squad Coach Hayes called "the best team we ever put together, probably the best team that ever played college football," rolled easily to a 9-0 record, but a season-ending loss to Michigan ended OSU's 22-game unbeaten streak and bid for a second-consecutive national title.

1970

Jim Stillwagon wins both the Outland and the first-ever Lombardi Award. Ohio State rolls to nine-consecutive wins – including a 20-9 triumph over Michigan that has been called one of the most emotional games in Ohio Stadium history – before falling to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State still was awarded a national championship by the National Football Foundation. A senior class featuring six All-Americans and nine all-Big Ten selections leaves OSU with a three-year mark of 27-2.

1972

Freshmen are cleared to play for the first time, signaling the start of the Archie Griffin era. Against the better judgment of Coach Hayes but after strong urging from backfield coach Rudy Hubbard, Griffin comes off the bench against North Carolina and rushes for a then-Ohio State record 239 yards in only his second collegiate appearance. OSU uses two goal lines stands – one in each half – to beat Michigan 14-11 and claim a share of the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

1973

Ohio State goes unbeaten, finishing 10-0-1 including a 42-21 trouncing of USC in the Rose Bowl. OSU becomes the first school to own three of the Top 5 vote-getters in the Heisman Trophy balloting. With five Big Ten titles, two national championships, and four Rose Bowl trips all in a six-year span, Ohio State football popularity hits an all-time high. Columbus becomes known as the "Capital of College Football."

Woody Hayes

On June 5, Coach Hayes suffers a heart attack, but pledges to return by OSU's opener Sept. 14. The fiery coach, who by this point had become larger-than-life in Columbus, did return and led OSU to its third-consecutive Big Ten championship and yet another Rose Bowl. Archie Griffin won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the fifth non-senior to win the award.

1975

Hayes gives west coast reporters a now famous quote about Archie Griffin: "He's a better young man than he is a football player, and he's the best football player I've ever seen." Griffin becomes the first two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy, leading the Buckeyes to their conference-record fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl. He also becomes the NCAA's all-time leading rusher in a midseason game against Purdue.

1976

Just one year after the Big Ten changes the rule to allow more than just the conference champion to attend a bowl game, the Buckeyes notch a share of the Big Ten championship and beat Colorado, 27-10, in the Orange Bowl.

1979

Former Ohio State player and assistant coach Earle Bruce is named head coach. The Buckeyes finish the regular season 11-0 and come within a point of a national championship, falling 17-16 to Southern California in the Rose Bowl. Bruce is named the Big Ten and National Coach of the Year in his first season.

1980

Ohio State and Illinois combined for 1,057 yards and 91 points in a 49-42 OSU win.

1981

The Buckeyes capture their second Big Ten championship in three years under Bruce and top Navy in the Liberty Bowl. Art Schlichter completed 31 of 52 passes for 458 yards – all OSU records – against the Florida State Seminoles.

1984

After a five-year absence, Ohio State returns to the Rose Bowl with an undisputed Big Ten championship. Chris Spielman makes his debut a memorable one in the season opener against Oregon State, making 10 tackles in the second half after coming off the bench. Keith Byars rushes for a then school-record 274 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 45-38 win over Illinois. Byars' memorable day also included a 67-yard touchdown run where he lost one shoe 35 yards from the goal line.

1985

The first night game in Ohio Stadium history – thanks to portable light standards – ends in a 10-7 Ohio State win over Pittsburgh. Flanker Mike Lanese becomes the first OSU football player to win a Rhodes Scholarship. A preseason foot injury to Heisman Trophy favorite Keith Byars dampens Ohio State's hopes for a championship season.

1987

Linebacker Chris Spielman wins the Lombardi Award and the season ends with a thrilling 23-20 win at Michigan. College football fans everywhere mourn the death of Woody Hayes. President Richard Nixon, joined by a crowd of over 10,000, speaks at Hayes' memorial service.

1988

John Cooper, then head coach at Arizona State, was named the school's 21st head football coach after an intense search conducted by new Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

1989

Ohio State celebrates its 100th season of intercollegiate football. The Buckeyes overcome a 31-0 deficit to win 41-37 at Minnesota, equaling the largest comeback in NCAA history. OSU competes in the Hall of Fame Bowl, its 10th different postseason bowl appearance.

1990

Natural grass returns to Ohio Stadium. Robert Smith gains 1,126 yards to break Archie Griffin's OSU freshman rushing record.

1991

Thanks to 5,000 new bleacher seats, home total (654,500), average home (90,500) and single game (95,357 vs. Iowa) attendance records fall.

1993

OSU records its best record since 1979 by going 10-1-1, capturing a share of the Big Ten title and winning the Holiday Bowl.

1994

The Buckeyes defeat Michigan 22-6, ending a six-game winless streak against the Wolverines.

1995

Ohio State dominated college football's individual awards. Eddie George becomes OSU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner. Orlando Pace becomes the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award, and Terry Glenn wins the Biletnikoff Award. The Buckeyes tie a school record with 11 wins and play in the Citrus Bowl. OSU sets a school record that still stands with 475 points scored. An Ohio Stadium record crowd of 95,537 is on hand for Ohio State's 45-26 win over Notre Dame.

1996

The Buckeyes win their 27th Big Ten title and defeat Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, winding up No. 2 in both national polls. Orlando Pace repeats as the Lombardi Award winner and wins the Outland trophy. It marks the fourth-consecutive season Ohio State has finished among the nation's Top 10 in one of the major polls.

1998

Ohio State notched its fourth-consecutive 10-win season. The Buckeyes spend 10 weeks as the No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll and cap the season with a 24-14 win over Texas A&M in the Sugar Bowl. Joe Germaine wins the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, and the Buckeyes go a perfect 5-0 against teams ranked in the Top 25. Antoine Winfield wins the Thorpe Award.

1999

Athletics Director Andy Geiger announces the retirement of Archie Griffin's No. 45 at the Sept. 30 Iowa game. It is the first number retired in any sport in Ohio State history.

Led by All-Americans John Brockington, Jim Stillwagon, Jack Tatum and Mike Sensibaugh, the Ohio State Buckeyes claimed the Big Ten title and their most recent National Championship, the National Football Foundation crown, with a 9-1 record.

The national championship was Woody Hayes' fifth with the Buckeyes and the Big Ten championship was the third in a string of nine championships in 10 years. Some say the senior class of 1970 may have been the school's greatest ever. In three years, the team won 27 of 29 games, three Big Ten championships and a pair of national championships.

OSU rolled through the regular season 9-0 with a 7-0 Big Ten mark, but stumbled in a 27-17 loss to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Still, the NFF selected the Buckeyes No. 1, while UPI had OSU No. 2 and the Associated Press had the Buckeyes No. 5.

Brockington led the OSU offense with 1,142 yards rushing and 17 touchdowns. Quarterback Rex Kern passed for 470 yards and three touchdowns and also rushed for 597 yards and seven touchdowns. Jan White was the team leader with 17 catches for 171 yards.

Tatum, Stillwagon and Sensibaugh led a defense that allowed only 263.2 yards per game and forced 32 turnovers. Stan White led the team with 106 tackles.

Ohio State opened the season with a 56-13 romp over the Texas A&M Aggies in front of 85,657 fans in Columbus. OSU totaled 513 yards of offense to only 321 for the Aggies. Seven different players found paydirt for the Scarlet and Gray.

In week two, the Buckeyes dropped their second non-conference opponent with a 34-10 win over the visiting Duke Blue Devils. Ohio State once again dominated the statistics with 481 yards to 249 for the Blue Devils. Leo Hayden rushed for 165 yards while Brockington and Kern added 117 and 113 each.

The Hayes-led Buckeyes rolled through the Big Ten schedule. OSU opened with a 29-0 win over Michigan State in East Lansing followed by a 28-8 win over the Minnesota Golden Gophers. In the Minnesota game, Brockington rushed for 187 yards and two touchdowns.

One week later, the Buckeyes' offense rolled up the big numbers in a 48-29 win at Illinois. Brockington scored three times in the game and Ohio State totaled 475 yards of total offense.

Ohio State continued with wins over Northwestern, Wisconsin and Purdue. In the Northwestern game, Brockington rushed for 161 yards and a touchdown, while Kern rushed for a pair of scores. Brockington added three more scores a week later against the Badgers and he scored the Buckeyes' only touchdown in the Purdue game.

In an emotional Michigan game, Ohio State, much to the delight of a delerious Ohio Stadium crowd, avenged their only loss of 1969, downing the Wolverines 20-9. OSU limited the Wolverines to 155 yards and 10 first downs.

In the Rose Bowl, Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett led Stanford to 14 fourth-quarter points to clinch a victory. Plunkett was 20-of-30 for 265 yards and a touchdown. It was the only blemish on an otherwise perfect season.

Led by an amazing class of sophomores that included quarterback Rex Kern, defensive back Jack Tatum and defensive lineman Jim Stillwagon, Ohio State rolled to a 10-0 record and the 1968 National Championship when it defeated Southern California in the Rose Bowl, 27-16.

The team compiled numbers that boggle the mind and beat teams it wasn't supposed to beat. The Woody Hayes-led squad averaged 32 points and 440 yards per game, impressive numbers for that time, and the defense was stingy, allowing 15 points and 292 yards.

Eleven players from the team earned All-America honors during their careers and six were drafted in the first round of the NFL draft in either 1969 or 1971.

Jim Otis led the Buckeyes' rushing attack with 985 yards and 17 touchdowns, while Kern was the passing leader with 972 yards and seven touchdowns. Sensibaugh led the defense with five interceptions and Mark Stier recorded 87 tackles.

The unknown and young Buckeyes opened the season at home with a 35-14 victory over Southern Methodist. Despite an NCAA record performance from SMU quarterback Chuck Hixson, the Buckeye defense forced six turnovers and allowed only 50 yards on the ground.

OSU then rolled past Oregon 21-6 before playing perhaps the most important game of the season. With a 2-0 record, but still a questionable reputation, the Buckeyes hosted the No. 1 ranked Purdue Boilermakers. It was this game that probably made the biggest difference in the season.

The Ohio State defense throttled a Purdue offense led by All-America candidates Mike Phipps and Leroy Keyes, allowing only 186 yards and no points. The defense also scored the Buckeyes' first touchdown as Ted Provost picked off a Phipps pass and cruised 35 yards into the end zone. Quarterback Bill Long added a 14-yard run in the third quarter giving the Buckeyes a 13-0 victory and a piece of the national limelight.

From that point on, the momentum snowballed. The next week Hayes' squad drilled Northwestern 45-21 in Columbus on the strength of 565 yards of total offense. On Oct. 26 it was the Fighting Illini that took it on the chin when Kern and Otis combined for 129 yards and four touchdowns on the ground as OSU jumped out to a 24-0 halftime lead.

The Buckeyes defeated Michigan State, Wisconsin and Iowa before hosting the Michigan Wolverines Nov. 23 in Ohio Stadium. In a game that clinched the Big Ten Championship and a Rose Bowl berth, the Buckeyes scored 29 second-half points for a 50-14 win. Otis had 143 yards on the ground and four touchdowns and Kern added 96 yards and two scores as OSU tallied 421 yards and seven TDs on the ground.

The win over Michigan set up a showdown between No. 1 OSU and No. 2 Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

In one of the great games of all time in Pasadena, OSU overcame a 10-0 deficit and rolled to a 27-16 win. Though he scored on an 80-yard run, Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson was held to 91 yards on 27 carries the rest of the way.

1961 Champions

Led by an explosive offense that averaged nearly 30 points per Big Ten game, the Buckeyes won their 10th undisputed Big Ten Championship and were awarded the Football Writers' Association National Championship.

The Buckeyes scored 40 or more points two times and passed the 30-point plateau one other time. Just as they had in 1957 with an 18-14 win in Columbus, Texas Christian's Horned Frogs denied the Buckeyes a perfect season with a 7-all tie, but it was the only time all season an opponent was within one touchdown of the mighty Scarlet and Gray.

The offense was led by three outstanding running backs (Matt Snell, Bob Ferguson and Paul Warfield). Ferguson led the Big Ten in rushing with 671 yards in conference games, while Warfield was fourth with 307 in Big Ten contests. Ferguson finished his career ranked second on the OSU all-time rushing list with 2,162 yards and was runner up to Ernie Davis for the Heisman Trophy that year.

Still, the Buckeyes did not play in the Rose Bowl when the OSU Faculty Council voted to reject the bid. The Buckeyes ended the season ranked No. 2 in both the UPI and AP polls, one slot behind Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide.

After the TCU tie, the Buckeyes defeated the eventual Pac-8 Champions, UCLA, 13-3 in Columbus. OSU scored all 13 points in the fourth quarter on rushing touchdowns by Snell and Warfield. While the offense took its time getting warmed up, the defense was smoking, holding the high-powered Bruin offense to 166 yards and a field goal.

One week later, the Buckeyes destroyed Illinois 44-0, outgaining the Illini 424-180 and forcing four turnovers. Eight Buckeyes rushed for 10 or more yards in the game, including quarterback John Mummey (63) and Warfield (62). Ferguson totaled only 45 yards on the ground, but had four scores.

The Buckeyes beat Northwestern and Wisconsin before hosting a homecoming thriller against the Iowa Hawkeyes. Holding a slim 12-7 lead at the end of the third period, the Buckeyes scored on each of their first three possessions in the final stanza to tally a 29-13 win and keep their undefeated season intact. Ferguson rushed for 144 yards and a score and Joe Sparma passed for 88 yards and two scores, both to Charles Bryant, who caught four passes for 94 yards.

Hayes' squad posted wins over Indiana and Oregon for wins six and seven before traveling to Ann Arbor for the annual battle with arch-rival Michigan.

OSU led 21-12 entering the fourth quarter. The Buckeye offense then exploded for 29 points and a 50-20 win. Ferguson rushed for 152 yards and four touchdowns and Warfield added 122 yards and a score as OSU totaled 512 yards of offense in chalking up all-time win No. 400.

This edition of the Buckeyes had everything, including an offense ranked 11th nationally and a defense that allowed only 9.2 points per game. Don Clark led the rushing attack with 655 yards and eight touchdowns, but seven players had at least 195 yards rushing and nine Buckeyes scored touchdowns. Ohio State was particularly tough late in the game as it allowed only six points in the fourth quarter all season.

Clark, Aurealius Thomas and Leo Brown earned all-Big Ten recognition and Thomas was an All-American for Woody Hayes' second national championship team. Jim Parker was drafted in the first round by the Baltimore Colts after the season.

Following the loss to the Horned Frogs, the Buckeyes went on the road to battle the Washington Huskies and came away with a 35-7 victory. A week later, the Buckeyes opened the Big Ten season with a 21-7 win over Illinois and followed that win with a 56-0 pasting of the Indiana Hoosiers.

OSU faced a stern test the next week at Wisconsin, but came out on top, 16-13. Don Sutherin's third-quarter field goal provided the margin of victory.

After relatively easier wins over Northwestern and Purdue, the Buckeyes had their hands full in week eight against Iowa. Trailing 13-10 in the fourth quarter, OSU put together a patented Hayes march that culminated with a 5-yard touchdown plunge by Bob White and a 17-13 triumph.

The next week OSU headed north to Ann Arbor to battle Michigan. The Buckeyes trailed 14-10 entering the second half, but took control after intermission and downed the Wolverines 31-14 to earn a trip to the Rose Bowl.

After the win over the vaunted Wolverines, the Buckeyes met Pac-8 Champion Oregon in the Rose Bowl. The Buckeyes scored first, when Frank Kremblas scored on a 1-yard dive over the center, but the Ducks tied the score with a 5-yard run in the second quarter. The game remained tied through the third quarter and into the fourth, but the quarter that was so kind to the Buckeyes all season was good once again.

On a drive that started with more than five minutes remaining in the third period, the Buckeyes drove 56 yards in 14 plays to take a 10-7 lead on a 34-yard field goal by the surefooted Sutherin.

From then on, it was the defense as the Ducks were unable to get an offensive attack going and the Buckeyes grabbed their third national championship.

It didn't take Woody Hayes long to put his mark on the Ohio State Buckeyes. In his fourth season at the OSU helm, Hayes pushed his team to the limit and came away with the ultimate prize, his first national championship.

It would be the first of five for Hayes, who won 205 games at OSU. His 1954 team was the first in Ohio State history to win 10 games and had one of the Buckeyes' best players in Howard "Hopalong" Cassady.

Cassady, who won the Heisman trophy the next season, accounted for 849 yards and earned first-team All-America honors in 1954. He led the team with 609 rushing yards and 12 receptions. End Dean Dugger also earned All-America honors and four other players earned all-Big Ten recognition, as the Buckeyes ran roughshod over their opponents that season, outscoring the opposition 249-75.

The defense was led by Jim Parker, who became an All-America guard the next two years, won the Outland Trophy as a senior and was a first round NFL draft pick of the Baltimore Colts. On the year, Ohio State held its foes to 7.5 points and 110 rushing yards per game, recovered 17 fumbles and had 18 interceptions and did not give up more than two touchdowns in a game.

OSU opened the season with a 28-0 victory over Indiana in Columbus. Quarterback Will Leggett rushed for 45 yards and passed for another 64 to lead the way.

The Buckeyes defeated western powerhouse Cal 21-13 the next week in Columbus as Cassady rushed for 104 yards and had touchdown runs of 29 and 26 yards. He also led the squad with four catches for 50 yards.

OSU drilled Illinois 40-7 the next week and then beat Iowa, Wisconsin and Northwestern in its next three outings. Robert Watkins had a pair of big games in that span, rushing for 112 and 105 against Illinois and Iowa, respectively.

Wins over the Pitt Panthers, 26-0, and the Purdue Boilermakers, 28-6, preceeded the annual Michigan finale.

The Buckeyes and the Wolverines battled to a 7-all tie through the first three quarters and neither team could gain an edge. But, led by the running of Cassady and the passing of Leggett, Ohio State scored 14 fourth-quarter points for a 21-7 victory. Cassady ended the day with 94 rushing yards while Leggett had 42 and 58 yards passing. Leggett accounted for the first two Buckeye scores with passes to Frederick Kriss and Richard Brubaker, and Cassady iced the game with a 1-yard dive late in the game. Ohio State was 9-0 and headed to Pasadena.

The Rose Bowl was a titanic battle between the Scarlet and Gray and the Southern California Trojans. The Buckeyes played flawless football with 22 first downs, 370 yards and no fumbles lost, and they rolled to a 20-7 victory over the Trojans who had seven fumbles and just six first downs.

National Champions – Associated Press; Won 9, Lost 1

It was an amazing squad that grabbed the National Title with an overwhelming offense and a smothering defense.

Coached by Hall of Famer Paul Brown, the offense averaged 33.7 points while piling up 281.2 rushing yards per game and 5.2 yards per carry. The defense, on the other hand, allowed only 114 points and held its opponents to seven or fewer points four times in the 10-game season.

End Robert Shaw, tackle Chuck Csuri and guard Lindell Houston earned All-America honors, and seven players earned all-Big Ten accolades. It was truly a team of stars. Fullbacks Gene Fekete and Paul Sarringhaus were among the conference leaders in rushing with 916 and 672 yards, respectively. Fekete led the Big Ten in scoring with 92 points, while Sarringhaus was second with 72. On defense, George James and Tom Lynn each ranked among the Top 10 in the Big Ten with five interceptions.

The amazingly talented team rolled through the regular season with only a single blemish (a 17-7 loss to Wisconsin) and finished the season ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

OSU opened the 1942 season with a 59-0 pasting of Fort Knox. Fekete and Dick Palmer scored two touchdowns each as the Buckeyes rolled up 440 yards rushing to minus-14 for the service squad. The Buckeyes had 19 first downs to only one for Fort Knox. OSU poured it on in the second half with 20 points in both the third and fourth quarters.

Ohio State battled Big Ten rival Indiana the next week, grabbing a 32-21 win in front of the home crowd. Fekete rushed for 132 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Buckeyes back from a 21-19 third-period deficit to victory.

OSU rolled to easy wins over USC, Purdue and Northwestern before making the trip to Madison for the battle with the Badgers. In that game, Wisconsin All-Americans Elroy Hirsch, Marlin Harder and Dave Schreiner dominated the Buckeyes, with Hirsch and Harder combining for 212 yards and 11 points. OSU narrowly avoided a shutout with a fourth-quarter touchdown run by Sarringhaus.

The Buckeyes rebounded from the loss with a 59-19 dismantling of the Pittsburgh Panthers. A week later, they pounded Illinois to set up a showdown with the Michigan Wolverines. The Wolverines, who had beaten Notre Dame a week earlier, were heavy favorites, but the Buckeyes dazzled the Maize and Blue with three passing touchdowns and prevailed 21-7. The win gave them the Big Ten title.

One week later, the Buckeyes clinched the national championship with a 41-12 win over the Iowa Seahawks.

Woody Hayes

Between 1951 and 1978, while Woody Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won five national titles (and narrowly missed out on four others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. Twice the Buckeyes won a conference record 17-consecutive league games.

Under Hayes, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four-consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972-73-74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first-team All-America honors. Additionally, he coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six-consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

The list of former Hayes assistants includes Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Lou Holtz, Bo Schembechler, Earle Bruce and Joe Bugel, just to name a few.

Hayes recorded a lifetime record of 238-72-10. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. And during the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second in each of the other seven years.

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, Ohio, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami (Ohio) for two.

Hayes was a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the offseason. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes was born Feb. 14, 1913, in Clifton, Ohio. He died March 12, 1987, but his influence lives through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. Woody Hayes holds a special place in college football history.

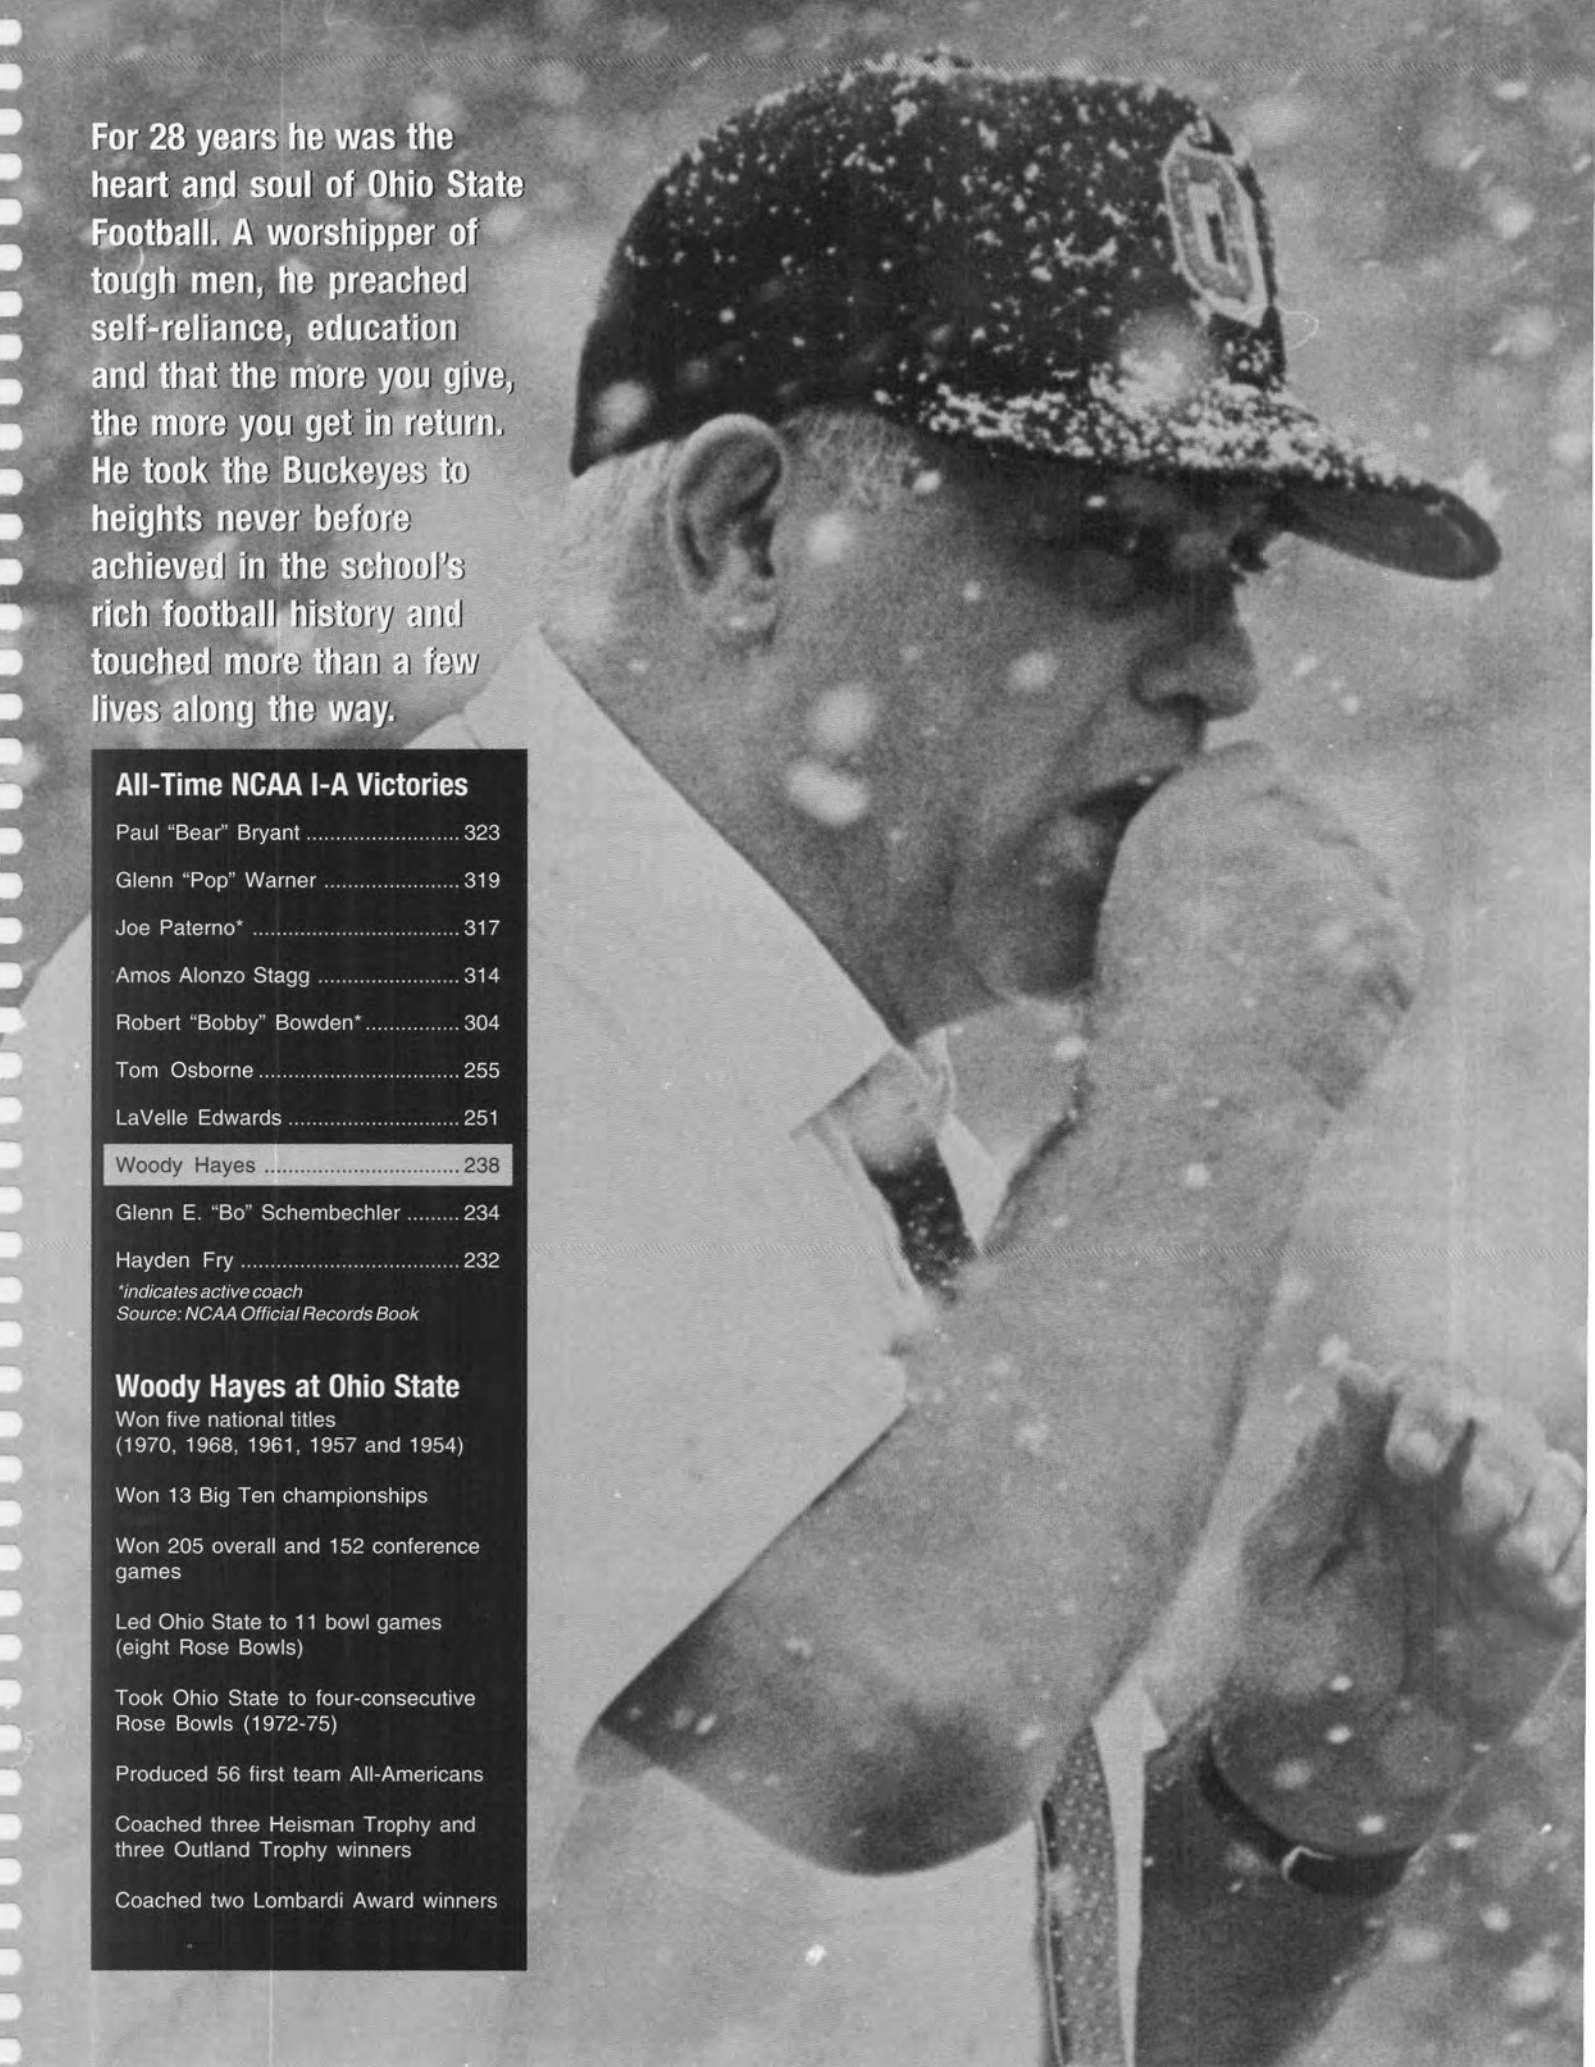
Hayes gave a stirring winter quarter commencement address in 1986.



For 28 years he was the heart and soul of Ohio State Football. A worshipper of tough men, he preached self-reliance, education and that the more you give, the more you get in return. He took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history and touched more than a few lives along the way.

Archie Griffin

1974, 1975 Heisman Trophy Winner

In 1974, Ohio State tailback Archie Griffin became just the fifth junior ever to win the Heisman Trophy. In 1975, Griffin became the first player ever to win a second Heisman. Twenty-five years later he is still the only player to have two of the coveted bronze statues, which go annually to the nation's top college football player.

But even though more than two decades have passed, honors continue to befall Griffin, now an associate director of athletics at his alma mater.

Most recently, Griffin was selected to the National High School Hall of Fame. He was inducted into that organization in the fall of 1996. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Rose Bowl halls of fame and, of course, belongs to the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Griffin was the Buckeyes' starting tailback for four years, leading Ohio State to a 40-5-1 record and four Big Ten titles between 1972 and 1975. He started in four-consecutive Rose Bowls, the only player ever to do so, and was a three-time first-team All-American.

At 5 feet 9 inches and 180 pounds, Griffin was small by college football standards even then, but he played with the heart of a lion and no football accomplishment was beyond his reach.

In just the second game of his freshman year, Griffin ran for a school record 239 yards. It was the start of a brilliant career that would see him amass an OSU record 5,589 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Excluding bowl games, Griffin rushed for 5,177 yards on 845 carries. The former figure ranks him fifth among all NCAA career ball carriers and Griffin rarely played more than half a game, his coach, Woody Hayes, always opting to take his star out as soon as the Buckeyes were in control.

Between his sophomore and senior seasons, Griffin ran for 100 or more yards in 31 consecutive regular-season games. That, too, is still an NCAA record, as is his 33 career 100-yard games.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also has a pair of Silver Footballs. The latter award is presented annually by the Chicago Tribune to the Big Ten's MVP. He is one of just three players to win that award twice. Griffin also was a two-time pick as National Player of the Year by both United Press International and the Walter Camp Foundation. He won those honors as a junior and senior.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership. It is the highest award the NCAA can bestow.

After graduation, Griffin was a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals. He played eight years of professional football, before returning to Columbus and joining the staff at Ohio State.

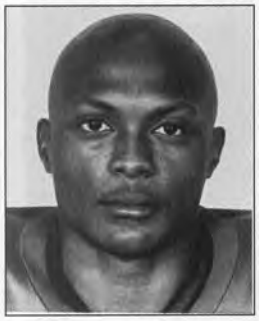
Eddie George

1995 Heisman Trophy Winner



At the start of the 1995 season, Eddie George was, at best, a longshot contender for the Heisman Trophy. By season's end, he was a runaway choice, easily outdistancing runnerup Tommy Frazier of Nebraska and third place finisher Troy Davis of Iowa State for college football's most coveted award.

In becoming Ohio State's sixth Heisman recipient, George etched his name into the OSU record book by rushing for a school-record 1,927 yards and 24 touchdowns. Included in that yardage total were three 200-yard games, one of which was an Ohio State record 314 yards against Illinois on Nov. 11, 1995.

The 6-3, 227-pound George wound up the 1995 campaign leading the country in scoring with an average of 12.1 points per game. He also finished fourth in all-purpose running (185.4) and fifth in rushing (152.1).

A native of Philadelphia, George carried the ball 328 times in 1995, an average of 5.9 yards per try. He also set a school record for receptions by a running back with 47 catches.

George burst onto the national scene by rushing for 219 yards against Washington, the first of 12-consecutive 100-yard games for the big tailback. When he stunned Notre Dame with 207 yards, the national press started talking "Heisman." His record-setting performance against Illinois was the icing on the cake.

George's other honors in 1995 included the Doak Walker Award, the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Big Ten MVP. He also was a team co-captain.

George, who attended Abington High School and then Fork Union Military Academy, played only sparingly his first two years at Ohio State. Given the chance to start, he rushed for 1,442 yards as a junior and completed his career as the second leading rusher in Ohio State history with 3,668 yards.

Selected by the Houston Oilers in the first round of the NFL Draft, he was the 1996 NFL Rookie of the Year.

Howard Cassady

1955 Heisman Trophy Winner

It didn't take Ohio State fans long to realize why Howard "Hopalong" Cassady was something special. In his first collegiate game, the season opener against Indiana in 1952, the 150-pound freshman came off the bench to score three touchdowns and lead the Buckeyes to a 33-13 victory. From then on, "Hop" was a regular in the OSU lineup, playing in 36 of a possible 37 games and leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 29-8 during the next four years.

In 1954, Cassady won unanimous All-America honors, rushing for 701 yards and six touchdowns and averaging 5.7 yards per carry. He also caught 13 passes for 148 yards in helping the Buckeyes to a perfect 10-0 record and the first of five national championships for Coach Woody Hayes. The '54 season concluded with a convincing 20-7 win over Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl.

Cassady again won All-America acclaim in 1955, when he rushed for 958 yards and 15 touchdowns. At the end of the year, Cassady's list of accolades included the Heisman Trophy and recognition by the Associated Press as the 1955 Athlete of the Year.

Cassady, who also was an outstanding defensive back, finished his collegiate career with 2,466 rushing yards. That total still ranks 10th on the all-time OSU rushing list.

Cassady, who prepped at Columbus Central and as a boy would sneak into Ohio Stadium to see the Buckeyes play, also played baseball at OSU, starting at shortstop for three years.

After graduation, Cassady was a first round pick of the Detroit Lions. He played defensive back with Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia before retiring.

"Hop" lives in Tampa, presently, but spends his summers in Columbus as a coach for the Columbus Clippers, the Yankees' AAA farm club.

Vic Janowicz

1950 Heisman Trophy Winner

How good was Vic Janowicz? Good enough to win the 1950 Heisman Trophy as a junior on a team that posted a modest 6-3 record. And good enough that to this day most historians consider him the greatest athlete ever to play football at Ohio State.

Rich, but deserved, praise for Janowicz, who, in addition to being a triple threat on offense, also played safety on defense.

In the words of his former coach, Wesley Fesler: "Vic excelled in every phase of the game. He not only was a great runner, passer and blocker, he also did all of our kicking, including punting, field goals, quick kicks, kickoffs and extra points. He was one of the finest, most versatile athletes I have ever seen."

Janowicz enjoyed his finest year in 1950, accounting for 16 touchdowns and 875 yards in total offense. He also led the Buckeyes in scoring with 65 points. In an 83-21 win over Iowa, he ran for two touchdowns, passed for four more and set a Big Ten record with 10 extra points. He completed five of six passes for 128 yards against the Hawkeyes.

Perhaps even more remarkable was a 27-yard field goal against Michigan in the now famous 1950 Snow Bowl. That kick, into a driving snow storm with the goal post barely visible, is one of the greatest individual accomplishments in Ohio State sports history.

Janowicz, who was a consensus All-America in 1950, also set two more records in the Snow Bowl, punting 21 times for 685 yards.

After graduation, Janowicz played two years of professional baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates, even though he had been away from the game nearly six years. He returned to football in 1954, signing with the Washington Redskins and winning the starting job at halfback as a rookie. In 1955, Janowicz barely missed out on the NFL scoring title, losing the crown on the last day of the season. His pro career was cut short the following fall, when he was involved in a near fatal car accident that left him unconcious for 30 days.

A member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Hall of Fame, Janowicz died in February of 1996.

Les Horvath

1944 Heisman Trophy Winner

In 1944, Les Horvath made Ohio State history by becoming the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. With Horvath at the controls, the Buckeyes posted a perfect 9-0 record and won the Big Ten championship.

Horvath enjoyed a brilliant senior campaign in 1944. In addition to leading the Big Ten in rushing (669 yards) and total offense (953 yards), the Parma, Ohio native also accounted for 1,248 all-purpose yards.

Horvath, who played both quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense, was the Big Ten's MVP in 1944. Shortly after being accorded that honor, he became the first of six Buckeye Heisman recipients.

Ironically, Horvath almost didn't play in 1944. After helping lead the 1942 Buckeyes to a 9-1 record and the school's first national championship, Horvath entered dental school at Ohio State and did not play in 1943. But when Coach Carroll Widdoes went to him prior to the 1944 season, the 23-year-old Horvath, who had an extra year because of wartime rules, agreed to return to the gridiron.

"At first I wasn't sure I wanted to play," said Horvath on one of his last visits to Columbus. "Dental school was quite taxing. But Coach Widdoes said I wouldn't have to practice all the time and agreed to fly me to the games, both of which gave me more time to study."

Horvath is the only Heisman winner who did not play the previous season. The layoff obviously did not bother him. He set a Big Ten rushing record in his final year.

Horvath, who finished his Ohio State career with 2,055 yards of total offense, went on to play professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns. Following his professional career, he returned to Los Angeles and practiced dentistry.

Horvath, who died in November of 1995, belonged to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

As Ohio State's first Heisman winner, he will always hold a special place in the hearts of Buckeye fans.

Orlando Pace

1996 Outland Trophy Winner

Orlando Pace broke into the starting lineup the first day of preseason camp his freshman year and started every game the next three years before passing up his senior season to enter the NFL draft. During his stay at Ohio State, the 6-6, 330-pound left tackle became recognized as one of the most dominant offensive linemen ever to play the game.

Playing one of the most challenging positions in football, Pace did not allow a sack in either of his last two years. In 1995, he made college football history by becoming the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award. As a junior, he again made history by becoming the first two-time winner of that trophy. He also won the Outland Trophy and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a junior. The latter was the highest finish by a lineman since a second-place finish by Ohio State's John Hicks in 1973.

Other honors for Pace included consensus all-Big Ten and All-America honors in both 1995 and '96. He was the Football News Offensive Player of the Year and the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year in 1996. He also received the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten.

Pace was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1994 and the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in 1995 and '96. He also was a finalist for the Maxwell Award in 1996. A native of Sandusky, Ohio, Pace was selected by his teammates as Ohio State's MVP in 1996.

Pace made the "Pancake Block" famous his junior year, finishing the season with 80 of those blocks (knocking his defender to the ground and on his back). He also literally redefined the role of an offensive lineman with his amazing downfield blocking.

Taken by St. Louis as first overall pick in the 1997 NFL draft, Pace was a member of the Rams' 1999 Super Bowl championship team.

1996 Heisman Trophy Voting

Pl.	Name	Pos.	School
1.	Danny Wuerffel	QB	Florida
2.	Troy Davis	TB	Iowa State
3.	Jake Plummer	QB	Arizona State
4.	Orlando Pace	OT	Ohio State

Noteworthy

Drafted in 1997 by St. Louis, Orlando Pace became the first offensive lineman chosen No. 1 in the NFL Draft in 30 years (last was Ron Yary in 1968). He was the Rams second-highest pick since Eric Dickerson was chosen second overall in 1983.

John Hicks

1973 Lombardi Award Winner
1973 Outland Trophy Winner

John Hicks came within an eyelash of pulling off one of the biggest triple plays in college football history in 1973. That year Hicks, a 6-3, 258-pound offensive tackle, won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award as the nation's best interior lineman and also finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting.

How close did Hicks come to becoming the first interior lineman ever to win the Heisman? Well, while he finished second that year, teammates Archie Griffin and Randy Gradishar were fifth and sixth, respectively, in the balloting. By combining Ohio State's total votes, Hicks would have had enough votes to move ahead of winner John Capaletti.

Hicks enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1969. Freshmen were not eligible that year, but it didn't take the Ohio State coaching staff long to figure out the Cleveland native was destined for greatness.

Hicks became a starter as a sophomore in 1970, helping the Buckeyes gain a Rose Bowl berth. He suffered a major knee injury at Illinois and missed the last six games of the season and all of the 1971 season.

But he returned in 1972 and was a starter the next two years, winning All-America honors both of those seasons and playing a major role in the Buckeyes' two Big Ten championships and two Rose Bowl appearances. During his two years as a starter, Ohio State posted a combined record of 19-2-1. Hicks is the first player ever to start in three Rose Bowl games.

Hicks, a fiery, emotional leader, was a first-round draft choice of the New York Giants following the 1973 campaign. His promising career was cut short by injury, however, and he returned to Columbus to enter private business.

1973 Heisman Trophy Voting

Pl.	Name	Pos.	School
1.	John Cappelletti	RB	Penn State
2.	John Hicks	OT	Ohio State
3.	Roosevelt Leaks	RB	Texas
4.	David Jaynes	QB	Kansas

Noteworthy

Hicks was such a force that he finished second in Heisman Trophy balloting above three skill position players. One of them happened to be his teammate, Archie Griffin, who finished fifth. A third Buckeye, LB Randy Gradishar, rounded out the list of vote-getters that year, finishing sixth.

Jim Stillwagon

1970 Outland Trophy Winner

Jim Stillwagon made college football history in 1970 by becoming the first player to win the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award in the same year.

Stillwagon, a three-year starter at middle guard for the Buckeyes between 1968 and 1970, was a unanimous All-America as a junior and senior.

During "Wagon's" three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes compiled a 27-2 record, won three Big Ten championships, played in two Rose Bowls and won a pair of national championships.

With Stillwagon clogging the middle, the Ohio State defense simply shut down opposing offenses. In 1969, the Buckeyes gave up just 93 total points. In 1970, only two opponents scored more than 13 points and five were held to under 10 points.

Tough, strong, aggressive, intelligent, relentless. All are adjectives that can be used to describe Stillwagon. He was quite simply the best defensive lineman in college football in 1970. No one was surprised when he walked off with the Outland and Lombardi awards. The surprise would have come if someone else had been chosen.

After graduation, Stillwagon was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He chose instead to play in the Canadian Football League and was one of the premier defensive linemen in that league before retiring.

Stillwagon, a member of the College Football and Ohio State halls of fame, is president of Stillwagon Enterprises in Columbus.

Noteworthy

Jim Stillwagon was a fixture at middle guard for the Buckeyes during the 1968, '69 and '70 seasons. In addition to winning the Outland Trophy in 1970, he won the first Lombardi Award, also in 1970.

Chris Spielman

1987 Lombardi Award Winner

Chris Spielman is in the Ohio State records book for a number of reasons. He led the Buckeyes in total tackles in 1986 and 1987 and he is Ohio State's all-time leader in solo tackles. He also holds the OSU record for most total tackles in a game. A three-time all-Big Ten choice and a two-time All-America, Spielman concluded his brilliant career in 1987 by winning the Lombardi Award.

But it was not so much what he did as the way he did it. Intense and competitive almost beyond description, Spielman played every down of every game as if the national championship were on the line. Few players have ever been as focused when they stepped onto the playing field.

Spielman was a three-year starter and would have been a four-year regular were it not for two s prained ankles that greatly limited his playing time as a freshman. Still, he collected 546 career tackles, a total that places him third on the all-time OSU list behind Marcus Marek (572) and Tom Cousineau (569).

Spielman's tackle total includes a school-record 283 solo stops. The Massillon, Ohio, native had his best year in 1986 as a junior, recording 205 total stops, including an OSU record 105 solos. His best game that year was a school record-tying 29 total tackles against Michigan.

Spielman's Ohio State teams won two Big Ten titles. He played in the Rose and Cotton bowls and was defensive MVP in the latter as a senior.

Upon leaving Ohio State, Spielman became recognized as one of the NFL's top players after finishing his 12-year career in 1999 with the Cleveland Browns.

Those people who claim "You can't measure heart," never saw Spielman play.

Chris Spielman set standards on how to be a football player and a human. When asked why he would take a year off from professional football to be with his wife who was battling breast cancer, he said, "What kind of a man would I be if I didn't? If I did not do what I did for my family, I would not be a man. I would be a fraud."

Jim Parker

1956 Outland Trophy Winner

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. He also is the player by which his former coach, the late Woody Hayes, measured all other offensive linemen.

"Jim Parker was the greatest offensive lineman I ever coached. I'm not sure there has ever been a better offensive guard," said Hayes upon Parker's induction into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. "He was everything an offensive lineman should be."

Indeed, Parker could do it all. A tremendous athlete, the 6-2, 200-pounder could pull and run block with the best of them. And on the relatively few occasions when the Buckeyes decided to throw the ball, getting around the agile, quick-footed Parker was next to impossible.

Parker was a three-year starter and two-time All-America for the Buckeyes. He won the Outland Trophy as a senior in 1956. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State won 23 of 28 games, captured the 1954 National Championship and won back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1954 and '55.

Parker, who was born in Macon, Ga., but played his last two years of high school football in Toledo, Ohio, was the Buckeyes' MVP in 1956.

A first round pick of the Baltimore Colts the following spring, he went on to enjoy a distinguished career in the NFL as a perennial all-pro pick.

In addition to being a charter member of the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame, Parker also is a member of the College Football and the Professional Football halls of fame.

His play set a standard of excellence for all future Ohio State linemen.

Andy Katzenmoyer started the first game of his freshman year in 1996 and was a regular for 37 consecutive games. He opted for an NFL career at the end of his junior season. He won a plethora of awards, including the Butkus Award and consensus All-America honors as a sophomore in 1997, the 1996 Football News and Big Ten Freshman of the Year He was a three-time All-Big Ten selection and a two-timw finalist for the Lombardi Award.

He was twice named the team's Randy Gradishar Award winner as best linebacker (1997-98). He scored twice on interceptions, vs. Minnesota as a freshman and vs. Arizona as a sophomore, tying a school-record for interception return TDs. He also tied the school record with five tackles-for-loss in a game (vs. Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl).

As a junior in 1998, Katzenmoyer was a finalist for the Maxwell Football Club's Defensive Player of the Year Award (in addition to the Lombardi Award) and he anchored the nation's top-ranked defense against the run and second-ranked unit in total defense.

He was a consensus All-American as a sophomore in 1997 and became only the second sophomore ever to win the Butkus Award as the nation's outstanding linebacker. He was a Lombardi Award finalist, ranking second on the team with 97 tackles, including 13 tackles-for-loss. He clinched the Arizona win with a 20-yard interception return touchdown. He had 11 tackles against both Arizona and Iowa. In 1996 he became the first freshman to ever start every game at linebacker for the Buckeyes and finished second on the team with 85 tackles and paced the team with 23 tackles-for-loss and sacks (12), both school records for a linebacker.

Antoine Winfield

1998 Thorpe Award Winner

Antoine Winfield, a team captain as a senior, is one of the all-time great cornerbacks in Ohio State history. A two-time All-American, he was a consensus choice as a senior in 1998, Winfield's career was peppered with firsts. He was the first Buckeye to win the coveted Thorpe Award as the nation's outstanding defensive back; the first non-linebacker (and only the fifth player total) to record at least 200 solo tackles; the first defensive back in Ohio State history to be voted team MVP (following the 1997 season); and the first cornerback in recorded history to lead the team in tackles when he did so in 1997.

A two-time all-Big Ten Conference selection, he closed his career with 278 tackles, including 224 solo stops, 22 tackles-for-loss, 29 pass break-ups and three interceptions. He played in four bowl games, including the 1996 Citrus Bowl when he came in as a true freshman and recorded seven tackles. He played in 50 games during his career and he started 29 times.

As a senior in 1998, he was one of five finalists for the Football News' Defensive Player of the Year Award. He was named first-team All-America by the Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, the Football Writers and the Football News. He was named the Buckeyes' Bill Willis Defensive Player of the Year award winner. He totalled 75 tackles, third-best on the team, including nine solo tackles in a win over Michigan to close the season.

As a junior in 1997, Antoine was voted by his teammates as the team MVP after a season in which he totalled 100 tackles, 12 pass break-ups and two interceptions. He had 82 solo tackles, the fifth-highest solo tackle total in school history, and made the Football Writers and Football News All-America teams. He led the team in tackles five times, including a magnificent 10-tackle performance against Michigan and a career-high, 13-tackle effort against Missouri.

Terry Glenn

1995 Biletnikoff Award Winner

Anyone who saw Terry Glenn play in 1995 would never know that he has a fear of flying. Glenn repeatedly rose to new heights during the '95 campaign, gracefully soaring through the air to gather in one clutch reception after another in a record-breaking year that resulted in the 5-11, 185-pound flanker becoming the school's first ever recipient of the Fred Biletnikoff Award.

Glenn finished the season with 64 receptions for 1,411 yards and 17 touchdowns. His reception total is third-best in school history (it was five behind Cris Carter's 69 in 1986 and has since been topped by David Boston's 85 in 1998). His touchdown total is still a school record but his yardage record has since been topped by Boston's 1,435 yards in 1998.

Glenn, who had just 15-career receptions for 266 yards and no TDs entering the 1995 campaign, led the nation in yards per catch, was fourth nationally in yards per game and eighth nationally in scoring in 1995, his final year as a Buckeye.

In addition to winning the Biletnikoff Award, Glenn, a native of Columbus and a product of Brookhaven High School, joined Carter as just the second wide receiver in Ohio State history to win first-team All-America honors.

Glenn caught nine passes for 253 yards and four touchdowns at Pittsburgh, shattering the school records for single-game receiving yardage and tying the mark for TD catches. The Pitt game was one of seven 100-yard games for Glenn, which is yet another OSU record. He also had nine receptions, all of the acrobatic and clutch variety, in the Buckeyes' 28-25 win at Penn State.

A big-play athlete, Glenn had eight catches of 45 or more yards, including a memorable 82-yard catch-and-run TD grab against Notre Dame. He had touchdown receptions in nine of the 12 games he played in, and his numbers might have been even better had he not played the last three games of the season with a badly bruised shoulder.

At the end of the season, Glenn opted to leave school early and was taken in the first round of the NFL draft by the New England Patriots. He set an NFL record for catches (90) by a rookie, helping the Patriots to the Super Bowl in a sensational first year.

Major Awards

Heisman Memorial Trophy

The Heisman Memorial Trophy was originally presented in 1935 as the DAC Trophy by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York City. It was awarded to the best college player east of the Mississippi River; but, in 1936, that rule was changed to include players from across the country. Also in that year, the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy to honor former outstanding college coach and DAC Director of Athletics John W. Heisman. Heisman died Oct. 3, 1936. The award has since been given annually to the outstanding college football player in the United States.

David Boston

Split End 1996-98

In three seasons, David Boston set or tied 12 Ohio State receiving records, including most receptions (191), yards (2,855) and touchdowns (34) in a career and most receptions (85) and yards (1,435) in a season (1998). His 13 school records also includes most 100-yard receiving games in a career (13) and season (8 in 1998). In 1998, he earned first team All-America honors. But what may separate him from other receivers in school history is the way he shined in big games. With 19 seconds left to play in the 1997 Rose Bowl, he caught the game-winning touchdown in one of the most thrilling games in OSU history. In the 1998 Michigan game, he torched the Wolverines with 10-receptions for 231-yards and two touchdowns. He capped off his career by being named MVP of the 1999 Sugar Bowl.

Noteworthy

Boston scored the first time he touched the ball as a collegian, racing 58 yards after catching a pass from Stanley Jackson.

Keith Byars

Tailback 1982-85

Keith Byars earned First Team All-America honors, was the Big Ten MVP and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy (to Boston College's Doug Flutie) in 1984, when he rushed for a then-school record 1,764 yards and 22 touchdowns. That season, he led the nation in rushing, scoring (144 points) and all-purpose running (2,441). Included in those totals were 274 yards and five TDs against Illinois in one of the most brilliant individual performances in OSU annals. The Fighting Illini led 24-0, but Byars' fourth TD was a spectacular 67-yard run in which he completely reversed his field and lost a shoe at the Illinois 35, but still outran the Illini secondary. His fifth touchdown of the day was the game winner. Byars, who missed most of his senior year with a foot injury, is still fourth on the all-time rushing list with 3,200 yards.

Noteworthy

Byars acquired a $1-million insurance policy before his senior year to protect himself in case of injury before the NFL draft. It turned out to be a wise move since he broke his right foot during fall camp, missing most of the 1985 season.

Cris Carter

Split End 1984-86

In his three seasons as a starter, Cris Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His hands were exceptional, his route running was precise, his ability to stay in-bounds was uncanny and he possessed the ability to out-jump his defenders. He made the diving, leaping, acrobatic catch look routine. In 1985, he set a Rose Bowl record with nine receptions for 172 yards. In 1996, Carter put together one of the great seasons in OSU annals. He was named first team All-America with 69 receptions for 1,127 yards, both numbers rank third in school history. He left OSU with the career reception and touchdown records (since broken by David Boston) and his yardage figure is the third highest total in OSU history. He is without question one of the greatest receivers in OSU and Big Ten history.

Noteworthy

Carter stopped practices with his spectacular catches, often drawing an applause from his teammates. Carter also was named the National Football League's Man of the Year for the 1999 season.

Tom Cousineau

Linebacker 1975-78

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. In 1977, he was named the Top Defensive Player in the Orange Bowl. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stands as a single-season school record. Against Penn State in 1978, Cousineau was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an Ohio State record that has since been tied by Chris Spielman. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game, 16 against SMU in 1978. Six of the Top 10 single game tackle performances in school history are held by Cousineau. He ranks second on both the all-time OSU tackle list with 569 (three behind Marcus Marek) and on the career solo tackles list with 259. Cousineau became OSUs first ever, first overall pick in the NFL Draft when he was selected in 1979 by the Buffalo Bills.

Noteworthy

Tom Cousineau is the only Ohio State player to record 100 or more solo tackles on two separate occasions.

Wesley Fesler

End 1928-30

Wes Fesler was Ohio State's second three-time All-America, winning first-team recogniton at end in 1928, '29 and '30. Fesler, who also played fullback for the Buckeyes, was team captain as a senior. He also was the Ohio State and the Big Ten MVP in 1930.

Fesler, a superb all-around athlete, earned nine letters, three each in football, basketball and baseball. In basketball, he won all-Big Ten honors in 1931. In baseball, he spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

After graduating, Fesler served one year as an assistant on the OSU staff and then was head football coach at Princeton and Penn. In 1947, he returned to his alma mater as head coach and spent four years, compiling a 21-13-3 record and winning the 1949 Big Ten Championship and the 1950 Rose Bowl.

Noteworthy

Fesler was labeled as one of the greatest athletes in the history of Ohio State by Paul Hornung, sports editor of the Columbus Dispatch for 25 years.

As a coach, there was a bit of confusion that led to Fesler's 17-14, last-minute 1950 Rose Bowl win over California. Ohio State drove inside the 15-yard line in the final minute of the game. Fesler sent in the field goal unit, but in the tense moment, quarterback Pandel Savic sent them back to the sideline which resulted in a 5-yard delay of game penalty. Place-kicker Jimmy Hague made the winning field goal, giving Fesler a Rose Bowl coaching win. "He chided me pretty good," Savic said, "but I said 'Wes, it did give us a better angle."

John Frank

Tight End 1980-83

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar. All-Big Ten as a junior and senior, Frank ranks fourth on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns. The receptions and yardage totals are the most in school history by a tight end. He was a three-year starter, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983, still a record total for tight ends. He was voted the team MVP as a senior. In the classroom, Frank was a two-time Academic All-American and was a Rhodes Scholar nominee as a senior. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco 49ers, Frank returned to Ohio State to continue his medical studies. He received his doctor of medicine in June of 1992.

Noteworthy

John Frank holds the Ohio State record for receptions by a tight end with 45 (1981 & '83). But it was his fight and determination after his catches that made him so popular with Buckeye Fans.

Buckeye Greats

Joe Germaine

Quarterback 1996-98

Joe Germaine proved in two seasons as a backup that he was a fine quarterback. But it was his senior year as the starter and team co-captain, when he set 11 school records while throwing for 3,330 yards and 25 touchdowns, that separated him from other OSU quarterbacks. He was the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award winner as the Big Ten MVP that year and he led OSU to the No. 1 national ranking for a school-record tying 10-consecutive weeks. He also was named by the conference coaches as the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year. No Ohio State fan will ever forget his heroics in the 1997 Rose Bowl as he calmly directed the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays in the final 1:40 for the winning touchdown (a 5-yard touchdown pass to David Boston with 19 seconds left). Germaine threw for 6,370 yards and 56 touchdowns in three seasons.

Noteworthy

After alternating with Stanley Jackson for two years, Joe Germaine led the Buckeyes to an 11-1 record as a senior in 1998. His 56 career TD passes are just one shy of Bobby Hoying's school record 57.

Randy Gradishar

Linebacker 1971-73

Randy Gradishar was referred to by Woody Hayes as "the best linebacker I ever coached at Ohio State." He was a two-time All-American and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter between 1971 and 1973 and recorded 320 total tackles. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points. After graduation, he played 10 years with the Denver Broncos. During his career, he was a seven-time Pro Bowler, the second most by any Bronco at the end of his career, and he also is the all-time leader in tackles for Denver with 1,958. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992. In December of 1998, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Noteworthy

Randy Gradishar played in two Rose Bowls and was the cornerstone of the 1973 Ohio State defense which allowed 64 points all year. Gradishar, who grew up in Champion, Ohio, proved to be just that at Ohio State.

Chic Harley

Running Back 1916-17, 1919

Charles "Chic" Harley was Ohio State's first three-time All-American. Harley won All-America honors as a running back in 1916 and '17. He spent 1918 in the military but then returned to OSU in 1919 and picked up where he had left off, again winning All-America acclaim. In addition to running the football, he also punted, kicked extra points (he used the drop kick) and played defense. Fans turned out in record numbers to watch Harley play. Harley led the Buckeyes to their first-ever Big Ten title in 1916, a repeat championship in 1917 and a second-place finish in 1919. In 1919, he was named team captain. During his three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 21-1-1. The Buckeyes played at old Ohio Field during the Harley era. But largely because of his play, Ohio Stadium was built in 1922 and has been known as the "House that Harley built."

Noteworthy

Harley lost only one game as a Buckeye...his last, 9-7, to Illinois. He stayed up all night before the game walking the campus to try and ease the pressure. He scored every point but took the loss personally, crying in the dressing room. The team couldn't get him out until near midnight.

There was only one game in Harley's career that he did not start. Jack Farcasin started the 1919 Purdue game instead. Harley started the second half and on the first play from scrimmage he ran 37-yards for a touchdown. Ohio State was offside, but called the same play and Harley took the ball 42-yards for the score. The final tally was 19-0 with Harley scoring every touchdown and the extra-point. Coach John Wilce never explained the switch.

Bobby Hoying

Quarterback 1992-95

Bobby Hoying was a three-year starter for OSU, leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 30-7-1. As a senior, Hoying earned first-team all-Big Ten honors, was named team captain and rewrote the OSU records book by throwing for 3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns. He also set school records for completion percentage (.580) and passing efficiency (163.4) that year. Additionally, his 57 career TD passes is a school record, as are the 16 games in which he passed for 200 or more yards. Hoying led the Big Ten in total offense as a senior and wound up second nationally in passing efficiency. His 7,232 passing yards (most of which came his last two years) rank second in OSU annals. Hoying also was an exceptional student. In 1995, he won the National Football Foundations's Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior student-athlete in college football.

Noteworthy

Heading into his junior season, Hoying's backup was the same person who was his understudy in high school...his brother, Tom. It marked the first time at Ohio State that brothers were 1-2 at the quarterback position. The two also were college roommates.

Rex Kern

Quarterback 1968-70

With Rex Kern at the helm, Ohio State rolled to a 27-2 record, won the 1968 National Championship, captured two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. To win the national championship, Kern led OSU to a 27-16 win over Southern California in the Rose Bowl. He was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. Additionally, the Buckeyes narrowly missed out on the 1969 and '70 wire service national championships, losing the final game of the year in both of those years after being ranked No. 1 going into their respective season finales. In 1969, he was named an All-American. In 1970, he was elected team captain. Kern's statistics, as impressive as they were, tell just half the story. The fiery redhead was an emotional leader who displayed a penchant for making big plays when most needed. He was a winner in every sense of the word.

Career Statistics

Noteworthy

In 1969, against SMU, it was fourth-and-10 at midfield. Woody Hayes ordered a punt. Kern waved away the punt team and scampered 16-yards for the first down. "I changed a lot of the plays Woody sent in after that," said Kern. "But had I not made it that first time, I probably never would have played again."

Pepper Johnson

Linebacker 1982-85

Thomas "Pepper" Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982 and 1985, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. In the 1984 and '85 seasons, Johnson led the squad in tackles and teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. A born leader, Johnson was elected team captain and voted defensive MVP in both his junior and senior seasons. He also was named all-Big Ten in both of those years. He was a member of two Super Bowl Championship teams with the New York Giants. Johnson was named to the Pro Bowl twice in his career and built a reputation as one of the most feared hitters in professional football.

Noteworthy

The nickname "Pepper" was given to him by an aunt who watched him sprinkle pepper on his cereal, and then eat it. He was 2 at the time. When he repeated the procedure, he had a new name.

Buckeye Greats

Pete Johnson

Fullback 1973-76

Pete Johnson was the Buckeyes' starting fullback for three years, leading the way for tailback Archie Griffin in 1974 and 1975 and for Ron Springs and Jeff Logan in 1976. But the 6-1, 247-pound Johnson was much more than a just a blocking back. He also was proficient at lugging the pigskin, rushing for 2,308 yards and a school-record 58 touchdowns during his career. To say "Big Pete" had a nose for the goal line would be an understatement. He led the nation in scoring as a junior, tallying a school and Big Ten record 26 touchdowns. He also rushed for 1,059 yards and converted 34 of 44 third-down tries. Johnson set a school record that year with five TDs against North Carolina. In 1976, playing almost the entire season with two sprained ankles, Johnson still rushed for 724 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 156 points in 1975 and 348 career points are still school records.

Total	42	548	2,308	4.2	8-78	58

Noteworthy

Johnson's real name is, Willie James Hammock. He was called Pete because he loved Peter Pan ice cream and his father's last name was Johnson. When he used Pete Johnson at the time of enrollment, the registrar's office couldn't find his application.

Jim Lachey

Offensive Guard 1981-84

Jim Lachey entered his senior season with just four career starts. But in his final year, Lachey established himself as one of the top linemen in all of college football and was named to a first team All-America berth. Blessed with unusual speed and strength for a man his size, Lachey played guard for the Buckeyes, but could easily have played tackle. Lachey played a key role in the Ohio State offense in 1984, paving the way for junior running back Keith Byars. Byars led the nation in rushing (1,764 yards), scoring (24 touchdowns) and in all-purpose running (2,441 yards) that year. In 1995, the San Diego Chargers selected Lachey, a St. Henry, Ohio, native, with the 12th pick in the first round. In 1991, he started at left tackle for the Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins. In his 11-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three-times and established himself as one of the game's top linemen.

Noteworthy

Lachey grew up in the tiny Western Ohio town of St. Henry, also the home of Buckeye quarterback Bobby Hoying and Hoying's grandfather, Cincinnati Reds slugger Wally Post.

As a freshman, the athletic Lachey won the 800-meter run during fall camp, out-distancing the rest of the squad including the supposedly faster "skilled players."

Tom Skladany

Kicker 1973-76

OSU's most recent three-time All-America, Tom Skladany, was a punter and kicker between 1973 and 1976 and he was the first kicking specialist ever to receive a football scholarship at Ohio State. He proved his worth immediately, landing the job as the Buckeyes' No. 1 punter as a freshman. He also kicked off as a freshman and sophomore. As a junior and senior, he added PATs and field goals to his list of responsibilities. Skladany averaged 45.6 yards per punt as a sophomore and was named to the Football Writers All-America Team. He was a consensus All-America choice the next two years, again leading the country in 1975 with a 46.7 average. As a senior, he averaged 42.3 yards per kick and finished his career with a 42.7 average on 160 punts. That's good for second on the all-time list, as is his yardage figure of 6,838. Skladany was co-captain of the 1976 squad, the only specialist ever chosen as a captain.

Noteworthy

Once in high school, Skladany kicked a 43-yard FG, threw a 20-yard TD pass, ran for 75 yards, had a 54-yard punt that was downed inside the 3-yard line and lost three footballs on kicks that went over a fence situated 30-yards past the goalpost.

Shawn Springs

Cornerback 1994-96

In 1996, Shawn Springs was one of the top cornerbacks in college football and the dominant defensive player in the Big Ten - despite not recording an interception. Most teams simply chose not to test him. The 1996 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (selected by the conference head coaches) was named to the first-team Walter Camp, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Football News All-America teams. He finished the year with 39 tackles and a team-high 15 passes broken up. In his final game as a Buckeye, he held Arizona State receiver Nathan Poole to just one catch for 10 yards in the Rose Bowl. He finished that game with five tackles and four passes broken up. Springs finished his career as a two-time all-Big Ten selection. The Seattle Seahawks selected him with the third overall selection in the 1997 NFL Draft. He already has been selected to the Pro Bowl.

Noteworthy

Springs verbally committed to Michigan. Then he visited Penn State where Suzanne Paterno baked him a batch of cookies and he almost stayed in Happy Valley (Paterno was also hot after Springs' father, Ron, in 1974). But after a lot of thought, he opted to attend Ohio State like his father before him.

Jack Tatum

Defensive Back 1968-70

Jack Tatum was one of the dominant defensive players and most intimidating forces in college football during his career at Ohio State. A three-year starter, a two-time All-American and the National Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, he was known for his tenacity and fierce style of play. The 6-1, 208-pound Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back, but moved to defense in the spring of his freshman year. He was a mainstay of the defense for the next three years as OSU rolled up a 27-2 record and won the 1968 National Championship, two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. The Oakland Raiders selected him in the first round of the 1971 NFL Draft. In his nine-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three-times and was a member of the 1976 Super Bowl Championship team.

Noteworthy

Jack Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back. After watching him in practice, coach Woody Hayes moved him to monsterback on defense. The move turned out to be brilliant. Tatum was honored in 1970 as the National Defensive Player of the Year.

Steve Tovar

Linebacker 1989-92

Steve Tovar is another in the great line of Ohio State linebackers. A two-time All-America selection in 1991 and 1992, he has the distinction of being the first of 19 players recruited by John Cooper to earn All-America status at Ohio State. Tovar led Ohio State in tackles for three-consecutive seasons between 1990-92, one of only two Buckeyes ever to accomplish that feat (Marcus Marek, 1980-82, is the other). In his senior year, Tovar was elected team co-captain and earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors (selected by the conference coaches) after recording 128 tackles. A three-time all-Big Ten selection, Tovar ranks fourth in school history with 414 total tackles and 239 solo tackles. The Elyria, Ohio native was a third round selection by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1993 NFL Draft.

Total	48	239	175	414	35-87	7.0-44

Noteworthy

Tovar is one of just two Ohio State defenders to lead the team in tackles three years in a row (1990-92). The other player to do so was Marcus Marek (1980-82).

Buckeye Greats

Mike Vrabel

Defensive End 1993-96

Mike Vrabel, a two-time All-America selection, made his mark as one of the most tenacious and feared pass rushers in Ohio State history. He owns every OSU season and career sack record. In 1996, he set a single-season school record with 13 sacks for minus 101 yards. His 36 career sacks for minus 245 yards also are Buckeye standards. Vrabel also finished his career as OSU's all-time career leader in tackles-for-loss with 66. In his junior and senior years, Vrabel was named the Big Ten Conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year. He also was a three-time first team all-Big Ten selection. Vrabel helped lead the 1996 Buckeyes to national rankings of No. 2 against the pass, No. 3 in scoring defense and No. 7 in total defense. The Akron, Ohio, native was a third round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1997 NFL Draft.

Noteworthy

Vrabel was so skilled that after his first 10 days as a freshman, he slid into the No. 2 spot at right DE, causing roster and depth chart realignment. NG LeShun Daniels was moved to OG and DE Preston Harrison was switched to LB.

Dan Wilkinson

Defensive Tackle 1991-93

Dan Wilkinson played just two years of football for Ohio State, but in those two seasons he established himself as one of the best defensive linemen ever to wear the Scarlet and Gray. Redshirted as a true freshman in 1991, the 6-5, 300-pound Wilkinson, known as "Big Daddy," started as a sophomore in 1992 and won all-Big Ten honors. Blessed with an incredible combination of size, strength and speed, he finished his rookie year with 46 tackles, including 10.5 tackles-for-loss and 6.5 sacks. As a sophomore in 1993, Wilkinson was the dominant defensive linemen in college football, winding up the year with 44 tackles and 13 tackles-for-loss. No one could block him one-on-one. At season's end, he again won all-Big Ten laurels and was a consensus All-America pick. The Cincinnati Bengals made him the first selection in the NFL draft in April of 1994.

Noteworthy

Dan Wilkinson is the second of three Ohio State players to be the first player taken in the NFL draft. Wilkinson, who played just two years for the Buckeyes, was drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in April of 1994.

Bill Willis

Lineman 1942-44

Considered one of the all-time great athletes ever to play for Ohio State, Bill Willis, has the unique distinction of belonging to the Ohio High School, the College and the Professional Football halls of fame. He also is a member of The Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame. Willis was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes between 1942 and 1944, playing both offense and defense. A willowy 6-2 and 215, he was a devastating blocker on offense and a punishing, relentless tackler on defense. Willis earned All-America honors in 1943 and 1944, becoming Ohio State's first African-American All-America. He went on to a distinguished career with the Cleveland Browns following college. A native of Columbus, he is generally considered the first African-American starter in professional football. After his pro career ended, he returned home and served as director of the Ohio Youth Commission.

Noteworthy

More than 50 years after his graduation, Willis remains committed to Ohio State as a board member of the Varsity "O" association.

Each year, the National Football Foundation awards a scholarship to the Top 13 seniors in college football. The $18,000 grant for graduate work is based upon combined excellence in athletics and academics. Over the years, Ohio State has produced 18 recipients, including Bobby Hoying in 1995. At its annual awards banquet, the Foundation also presents the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award to the top senior in the group. The 1995 winner of that prestigious award, based on athletics, academics and community involvement, was Hoying (above).

1921 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – California finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924. Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time a Big Ten team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the first game in 1902.

1950 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-all tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns were called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

1955 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

1958 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from 1 yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-7 before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio State 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

1969 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern California. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Ohio State answered with a 1 yard run by Jim Otis and a 26-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final 4 yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

Kern was named the outstanding player of the game, rushing for 35 yards and passing for 101 and a pair of touchdowns. Otis and Hayden combined for 191 yards, while Simpson closed his career with 171 yards rushing and eight receptions for 85 yards.

1971 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over favored and previously unbeaten OSU in the 1971 Rose Bowl.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and both Buckeye touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final quarter. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

An interception of Kern on the next OSU series set up a Plunkett to Randy Vataha 10-yard scoring toss that sealed the win.

1973 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Led by tailback Anthony Davis, USC broke a 7-all tie at halftime tie with three third quarter scores to sideline the Buckeyes. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third quarter, Cunningham going in twice and Davis once from 20 yards.

The third quarter overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. The Buckeyes' Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half.

OSU appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third period and a 5-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with 44 seconds to play in the game.

1974 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground for the day.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the quarter for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining in the game by dashing 47 yards over right tackle for his only score of the day.

Greene was good on six of eight passing attempts for 129 yards and helped OSU to a 449-406 advantage in total offense. The USC passing attack, led by Pat Haden, netted 239 yards.

1975 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final 3 yards himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

Southern Cal outgained OSU 461-286 in total offense. Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin was held to 75 yards rushing.

1976 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – All-America quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big Ten MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Trophy Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, the Buckeyes held the UCLA offense to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth consecutive Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run to up the margin and close out the scoring.

A last ditch drive by the Buckeyes ended after an incompletion on fourth-and-17 at the Ohio State 46.

1977 Orange Bowl

MIAMI, Fla. – After Colorado jumped to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald came off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes went on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from 3 yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth quarter, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing. Skladany, who handled all the placement and punting chores, was good on two of four field goal tries, missing only from 56 and 53 yards.

1978 Sugar Bowl

NEW ORLEANS, La. – In the first meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a 3-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

1978 Gator Bowl

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – The Clemson Tigers won their 10th straight game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of four yards, in the drive.

OSU freshman quarterback Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from 4 yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point kick was blocked, but Ohio State had the lead, 9-7.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and Ohio State's hopes were dashed.

OSU won the statistical battle, outgaining Clemson 355-331 in total offense. Schlichter outdueled Fuller, 205-123 in the air and 70-38 on the ground.

1980 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Unranked in the preseason polls, the Buckeyes posted an 11-0 regular season record, but thanks to Charles White, their fairy tale season came to an end in the Rose Bowl.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top-ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the 1 for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

USC outgained OSU, 519-412, in total offense.

1980 Fiesta Bowl

TEMPE, Ariz. – A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

1981 Liberty Bowl

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four consecutive bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third quarter.

Ohio State finally opened a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

1982 Holiday Bowl

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh consecutive game and their second consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

OSU broke the game open with 17 points during a three-minute stretch beginning at the 8:57 mark of the third quarter.

BYU quarterback Steve Young threw for 341 yards and two TDs, but he was intercepted once and sacked four times.

Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

1984 Fiesta Bowl

TEMPE, Ariz. – Ohio State and Pittsburgh combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

1985 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

The Buckeyes found out early about the USC defense. On the third play of the game, tailback Keith Byars broke over right tackle, cut to the outside and raced 50 yards down the sideline to the USC 5. Five plays later, OSU had to settle for the first of Rich Spangler's three field goals.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yarder, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the afternoon.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record for receiving yardage.

1986 Citrus Bowl

ORLANDO, Fla. – Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with an interception, four in all.

All four of those interceptions came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

1987 Cotton Bowl

DALLAS, Texas – Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Southwest Conference champion Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. The surprise defenses limited A&M to a single touchdown and a pair of field goals. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Defensively, the entire Buckeye team deserved special accolades. Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which Ohio State led 7-6.

Michael Kee made Ohio State's fifth interception a memorable one, when he ran it back 49 yards for a Buckeye touchdown that put the game out of reach.

1990 Hall of Fame Bowl

TAMPA, Fla. – Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over OSU.

Ohio State took an early 14-3 lead and appeared to have things going their way. But the momentum changed just before the half when Slack hit Greg Taylor with an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play. The drive covered 32 yards and took just three plays.

Auburn kept the pressure on after halftime, scoring on its first possession as Slack and Taylor teamed up again from 4 yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous choice as MVP, ran 5 yards for the first and flipped a 2-yard toss to Herbert Casey for the second.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half because of a pulled groin muscle.

1990 Liberty Bowl

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – The Buckeyes jumped to a 5-0 lead on a safety and field goal, but the Falcons scored touchdowns in the second and third quarters to build a 13-5 lead. After OSU cut the margin to 13-11 early in the fourth quarter on Robert Smith's brilliant 29-yard run, Air Force sealed the win with a field goal and TD on an interception return. The Buckeyes gained just 214 total yards, including 80 on the ground. The Air Force wishbone attack gained 254 rushing yards.

1992 Hall of Fame Bowl

TAMPA, Fla. – The Buckeyes made their second trip in three years to the Hall of Fame Bowl. Ohio State entered the game with an 8-3 record, while Big East foe Syracuse sported a 9-2 mark for the New Year's Day showdown.

Syracuses' vaunted speed and the arm of Marvin Graves turned out to be the difference in the ball game.

Graves staked the Orangemen to a 14-0 first quarter lead, throwing a 50-yard scoring pass on the Orangemen's first possession and later running 3 yards to paydirt as the quarter expired.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 17, however, when All-America linebacker Steve Tovar blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone by Tito Paul. The score came with 8:03 to play.

But the Buckeyes' jubilation was short lived. Less than a minute later, Graves connected with wide receiver Antonio Johnson on a 60-yard bomb that buried the Buckeyes.

Ohio State had two more possessions after Graves' game winner, but did not mount a serious threat either time.

1993 Florida Citrus Bowl

ORLANDO, Fla. – Ohio State and Georgia, two of college football's most storied teams, were paired against one another for the first time ever in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The two teams qualified for the trip to Orlando by virtue of second-place finishes in their respective conferences.

The Buckeyes, 8-2-1 during the regular season, posted a 5-2-1 record in Big Ten play and closed out the regular season with five consecutive wins and a tie.

Georgia's overall record of 9-2 included a 6-2 mark in the Southeastern Conference. The Bulldogs won eight of their last nine games.

The two teams battled back-and-forth early and were tied at 14 at the end of the third quarter. Midway through the final quarter the Buckeyes drove deep into Georgia territory and appeared ready to take the lead. But a fumbled handoff, that Georgia recovered at its own 16-yard line, thwarted the OSU drive.

Given new life, the Bulldogs marched 84 yards in 11 plays and scored the winning touchdown with 4:32 to play.

All-America tailback Garrison Hearst had an All-America day for Georgia, rushing for 163 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. But it was the passing of QB Eric Zeier, who threw for 241 yards, that kept the Buckeyes off balance.

1993 Holiday Bowl

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – In its relatively short 10-year history, the Holiday Bowl has developed a reputation for exciting finishes. The third meeting between Ohio State and BYU was no exception.

In the early going, the 9-1-1 Buckeyes appeared to be too much for the 6-5 Cougars, OSU jumping off to a 21-7 lead with 14:55 to play in the second quarter. But BYU, healthy for the first time all year, roared back with two TDs before halftime and the two teams were tied at 21 at intermission.

Ohio State regained the lead with 4:11 to play in the third quarter when tailback Raymont Harris scored his third touchdown of the evening. That was all the scoring, but certainly not all the excitement.

Using their vaunted passing game, the Cougars drove deep into OSU teritory three times in the fourth quarter. But the Buckeyes' defense was equal to the challenge each time, all three drives ending with a fourth down incompletion.

While BYU did most of its damage through the air, the Buckeyes relied on the brilliant running of Harris, who set a Holiday Bowl record with 235 yards on 39 carries. Harris, a 6-2, 225-pound senior, was named Player of the Game, while linebacker Lorenzo Styles, who had eight tackles, including four for losses, was the defensive MVP.

1995 Florida Citrus Bowl

ORLANDO, Fla. – A 50-yard scoring pass from Jay Barker to Sherman Williams with 42 seconds left broke a 17-all tie and lifted Alabama to a seven-point victory over Ohio State in the CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl. Although the Crimson Tide dominated statistically, the game went back and forth all day. Alabama had a 521-276 lead in total yards and a 28-15 advantage in first downs, but OSU helped itslef with three fumble recoveries, a blocked punt, a blocked field goal attempt and 12 tackles-for-loss.

1996 Florida Citrus Bowl

ORLANDO, Fla. – The first meeting between Ohio State and Tennessee resulted in a 20-14 Vols' victory and kept the 11-2 Buckeyes from becoming the first team in school history to win 12 games in a season.

Playing in a driving rainstorm that reduced the field to grass and mud soup, OSU jumped off to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 2-yard dive by Eddie George. The TD followed a blocked punt by OSU's Central McClellion. OSU was in control most of the first half, but Jay Graham's 69-yard scoring run with 23 seconds left in the half tied the score and gave UT momentum heading into the locker room. The Vols maintained that momentum by taking a 14-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 47-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Joey Kent.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 14 on a 32-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to tight end Rickey Dudley with 14:40 to play in the fourth quarter. But Tennessee responded by marching 59 yards in 13 plays on its next possession to take a 17-14 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Jeff Hall. When Hall added another three pointer with 2:06 to play, the Vols were on top 20-14. OSU mounted one last drive, but a fumble at the Tennessee 38 ended that threat and the Vols ran out the remaining 57 ticks on the clock for their 11th win of the season against just one defeat.

1997 Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes snapped a four-game losing streak in the grandaddy of all bowl games with a dramatic, come-from-behind win over Arizona State.

The win propelled the fourth-ranked Buckeyes to an 11-1 record and the No. 2 spot in both major polls. ASU also finished at 11-1 and fell from second to fourth in the polls.

In recording the win, OSU coach John Cooper became the first head coach to lead teams from both the Pac-10 and Big Ten conferences to Rose Bowl victories. Ironically, Cooper led Arizona State to a win over Michigan in the 1987 Rose Bowl.

Reserve quarterback Joe Germaine came off the bench to lead the Buckeyes to the victory and was named as the game's Most Outstanding Player.

Safety Damon Moore led the aggressive OSU defense with 12 tackles, and freshman linebacker Andy Katzenmoyer tied a school record with five tackles-for-loss. Arizona State, which entered the game averaging 492 yards, finished with 276, including just 75 rushing.

OSU took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter on a 9-yard pass from Stanley Jackson to David Boston. Arizona State scored early in the second period on a 25-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ricky Boyer and the two teams were deadlocked at halftime.

The Sun Devils jumped out to a 10-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 37-yard field goal by Robert Nycz. But the Buckeyes recaptured the lead moments later when Germaine and senior flanker Dimitrious Stanley hooked up on a 72-yard score that went into the records book as the longest TD pass in OSU bowl annals.

Plummer, on a third-and-11, somehow snaked his way into the end zone to give ASU a 17-14 lead with 1:40 to play. Earlier, Plummer had kept the drive alive with a 29-yard completion on fourth down.

Germaine's responded by calmly marching the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays, hitting Boston from 5 yards out with the game winner. When the official raised his hands to signal touchdown, there were 19 seconds left on the Rose Bowl clock. Moments later, the Buckeyes were Rose Bowl champs.

1999 Sugar Bowl

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Ohio State capped another successful season by winning the 65th annual Sugar Bowl, 24-14, over Texas A&M. It marked an 11-1 campaign for the Buckeyes and clinched the No. 2 position in both major polls for the second time in three years.

The Buckeyes took control early, jumping to a 21-7 first-quarter lead. The Aggies scored on their first possession, driving 59 yards with Dante Hall going in from 9 yards out.

Joe Germaine engineered an eight-play, 71-yard scoring drive. Following a defensive stop, the Buckeyes marched down the field again, using six plays to go 71 yards with Joe Montgomery's 10-yard touchdown run for a 14-7 lead.

Another defensive stop followed by a huge special teams play gave OSU a 21-7 advantage with just 1:59 to go in the first quarter. After Derek Ross streaked in to literally "take" the football off A&M punter Shane Leckler's foot, Kevin Griffin picked up the loose ball and went untouched into the end zone.

A&M went on an 11-play, 68-yard drive to cut the lead to 24-14 with five minutes remaining in the third quarter.

The Best Damn Band in the Land

The "Pride of the Buckeyes," Ohio State's 225-member all-brass marching band, is one of the finest and most storied units in the country. Its roots date back to 1879 when it was formed as a military band.

Script Ohio

The signature routine formation of the Ohio State Marching Band, first performed at the Ohio State–Pittsburgh football game Oct. 10, 1936. The honor of dotting the "i" belongs to senior tuba players.

Hang On Sloopy

"Hang On Sloopy," a song performed by Ohioans, The McCoys, evolved into Ohio State's game day anthem and eventually the state of Ohio's official rock song. Buckeye fans heard it for the first time at the Oct. 9, 1965 OSU-Illinois game but rain dampened the debut performance. The next week the students and fans went crazy after hearing the tune again and it has rocked the stands ever since.

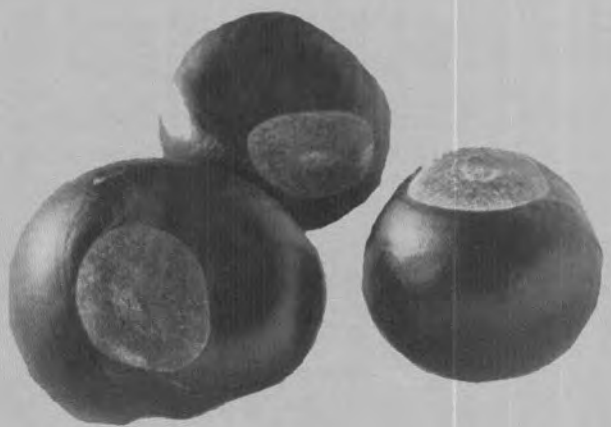
Rich In Tradition

Buckeyes

A small, shiny, dark brown nut with a lighter tan patch that comes from the official state tree of Ohio, the Buckeye Tree. Resembling the eye of a deer, folk wisdom has it that carrying one in a pocket brings good luck. "Buckeyes" has been the official Ohio State school nickname since 1950, but it had been in common use for many years before.

Victory Bell

Located in the southeast tower of Ohio Stadium, the Victory Bell is rung after every Ohio State victory. It was a gift of the classes of 1943, 1944 and 1945. Resting 150-feet up in the southeast tower, members of Alpha Phi Omega ring the bell after victories, a tradition that began after OSU beat California Oct. 2, 1954. On a calm day, it is said the bell can be heard five miles away. The bell weighs 2,420 pounds and cost $2,535 to install.



Buckeye Leaves

This tradition of placing Buckeye Leaves on the Ohio State helmets started in 1968 when Woody Hayes and longtime trainer Ernie Biggs changed the look of the Ohio State uniforms. The new look included names on the back of the jerseys and a wide "Buckeye stripe" on the sleeves of the jersey believed to be the first of its kind in the sport of football.

Scarlet and Gray

Ohio State's official school colors since 1878. Scarlet and gray were chosen by a group of three students in a lecture room in University Hall because "it was a pleasing combination ... and had not been adopted by any other college," noted selection committee member Alice Townshend Wing.

Gold Pants

A gold charm replica of a pair of football pants is given to players and coaches following wins over Michigan. The tradition started in 1934 when first-year coach Francis Schmidt told those wondering how OSU would fare with its nemesis from Ann Arbor: "They put their pants on one leg at a time just like everybody else." Schmidt's Buckeyes then went and defeated Michigan four-consecutive times, all by shutout.

Buckeye Grove

Since 1934, a Buckeye tree has been planted in honor of each of Ohio State's All-American. Trees are usually planted in a pregame ceremony at the spring game.

Tunnel of Pride

The Tunnel of Pride is Ohio State's newest football tradition. The brainchild of ex-OSU quarterback Rex Kern and current Director of Athletics Andy Geiger, the Tunnel of Pride actually started in 1995, when Notre Dame visited Ohio Stadium for the first meeting between the two teams in nearly 50 years. In an effort to generate even more emotion, excitement and enthusiasm than already existed, Kern and Geiger reached out to former Buckeye football players who were attending the game and asked them to form a tunnel for the team to run through as it came out onto the field. Thus a tradition was born, which is now continued every other year when Michigan visits Ohio Stadium.

Senior Tackle

A last practice of the year tradition since 1913 where the seniors hit the blocking sled one final time. Since 1935 it has been the last practice prior to the Michigan game, but with frequent bowl games now in the picture, Ohio State holds senior tackles at the last practice in Columbus prior to departing for the bowl.

Captain's Breakfast

Started in 1934, this annual event is held the Sunday following the homecoming game. All past captains are invited back for a breakfast and to welcome in the new captains.

The IlliBuck Trophy

The winner of the Ohio State – Illinois game has received the Illibuck trophy since the tradition began in 1925. Illibuck was a live turtle, but has been a wooden replica since 1927. Also representative of the rivalry is the peace pipe. Members of two junior honorary societies, Bucket and Dipper of Ohio State and Sachem of Illinois, annually meet at halftime of the Fighting Illini-Buckeye game to smoke the peace pipe and present the "Illibuck" trophy to the winning school from the previous year.

Game Day At Ohio State

To make an understatement larger than Ohio Stadium - game day at Ohio State is something special.

"Whether it's the dominant home team, the talented band or the feeling of experiencing history, Ohio State football is magic. Not the kind perpetrated by folks with top hats but the kind so amazing that it's impossible to fully explain."

-authors Michael and Joseph Irwin in "Cathedrals of College Football"

The Skull Session, a warm-up event for the marching band, takes place 90 minutes before kickoff in St. John Arena. The 13,276-seat venue is always filled to capacity and full of excitement.

Ohio State Fight Songs

Across The Field

Fight the team across the field,
Show them Ohio's here
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

Buckeye Battle Cry

In old Ohio there's a team
That's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
Whose fame will ever stand.
And when the ball goes over,
Our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry –

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash through to victory.
We cheer you as you go:
Our honor defend
We will fight to the end for O-hi-o.

Ohio State Alma Mater

Carmen Ohio

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold.
The seasons pass, the years will roll.;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship O-hi-o.

Academic Learning Lab

The purpose of the Academic Learning Lab is to provide a "learning connection" for students in need of additional assistance and instruction outside the classroom. The lab is a vital part of what has been called "a one-stop learning mall." Learning assistance covers such areas as study skills, time management, test-taking strategies, learning from text, notetaking, and self-regulation strategies. Students will learn active listening and active reading skills and other strategies to help in preparing for exams, using the library and the Internet, and writing papers. Motivational assistance covers such areas as changing self-beliefs, overcoming procrastination, and self-management strategies.

The lab will also work with academic departments and other academic providers on campus to offer such services as tutoring, review sessions, and study groups and to provide instructional software, sample tests, course packets, and lecture videos. Finally, the lab will investigate the processes of teaching and learning and compare different instructional approaches to identify strategies that work. This, in turn, will produce a better understanding of the ways student learn.

Career Connection

Each student at Ohio State brings to campus a variety of skills, values, interests, and experiences. The Career Connection staff offers services that are tailored to the unique needs of each student. Among the services offered are individualized career counseling, career assessment, career workshops, and job campaign assistance, such as resume and cover letters critiques, interview techniques, and job search strategies.

Professional career counselors are available to assist students in clarifying their career goals, exploring career options, and developing individualized plans of action. The Career Connection staff has strong working relationships with other Ohio State career services units that assist students in connecting with employers via internships and co-ops, on-campus interviews, and resume databases. In conjunction with these services, students will have access to career exploration and job campaign materials in the Younkin Success Center Resource Room.

All undergraduate, graduate, professional, and continuing education students currently enrolled are eligible for services. Limited services are provided to individuals after graduation and during off quarters. Career Connection is located on the second floor of the Success Center.

The Big Ten Conference is the nation's oldest major intercollegiate athletic conference. Established in 1896, the Big Ten Conference is an association of 11 world-class universities whose member institutions share a common mission of research, graduate, professional and undergraduate teaching and public service. Intercollegiate athletics has an important place within this mission.

Big Ten institutions provide in excess of $750 million in athletic scholarship aid to 7,000 men and women student-athletes who compete for 25 men's and women's conference chamionships, 12 for men and 13 for women. Conference institutions sponsor more than 250 athletic programs.

The 11 Big Ten universities enroll close to 500,000 students each year, representing 17 percent of the nation's students attending research universities. On average, 74 percent of those students graduated in the top quarter of their high school classes.

A unique aspect of the Conference is that its member institutions collaborate in many academic and research areas as well as in athletics. This collaboration is facilitated through two organizations: Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) and Midwest Universities Consortium for International Activities, Inc. (MUCIA).

Along with the Conference's basic underlying value that academics should always be the number one priority in a student-athlete's life, the principles of fairness, integrity and competitiveness have also been hall marks of the Big Ten Conference.

Big Ten Universities...

Are members of the nation's only conference whose constituency is entirely comprised of institutions that are members of the AAU, a prestigious association of major academic and research institutions in the United States and Canada.

Have more than 70 Nobel laureates as faculty, students or researchers.

Enroll students of whom over 41 percent have graduated in the top 10 percent of their high school class, while 74 percent graduated in the top quarter of their class.

Have more than 350,000 living alumni and over 320,000 undergraduate students attend Big Ten universities.

Typically receive more than 8,000 employers each year who conduct recruitment visits on Big Ten campuses.

House on their campuses eight of the nation's 20 largest academic libraries. All of the Conference libraries are interconnected through an online library system (the Virtual Electronic Library).

Athletic Programs In The Big Ten Conference ...

Provide an avenue for more than 140,000 young men and women to pursue higher education while competing in sport.

Had 7,222 student-athletes playing on over 260 teams in 1998-99. Those student-athletes received in excess $54 million in direct financial aid.

Graduate at a rate of 10 percent higher than all Division I student athletes.

Have won more than 185 team titles and 1247 individual titles. In 1999-2000, the Conference celebrated six NCAA team titles (men's soccer, women's volleyball, wrestling, men's basketball, fencing, men's gymnastics), the most for the Big Ten in the last 10 years.

Have won 21 NCAA team championships in the last five years. The University of Iowa has won six consecutive wrestling championships and Penn State has garnered six straight fencing titles.

Have, since 1992, created in excess of 1,100 new opportunities for women student-athletes and established 25 new women's teams.

Showcased more than 250 events that are televised nationally, regionally and locally last year, representing over 550 hours of programming.

Are among the national attendance leaders in football, men's and women's basketball and wrestling. During the 1999-2000 season, more than 7.7 million fans attended Big Ten home contests in those sports.

The Ohio State University

The Ohio State University is one of the largest and most comprehensive teaching and research universities in the nation.

The Ohio State University is one of America's leading national public universities, offering an extensive range of academic programs in the liberal arts, the sciences, and the professions through its 19 colleges and seven schools. Few universities can match the breadth of Ohio State's academic offerings, which includes more than 170 undergraduate majors, 200 graduate fields of study, and more than 90 professional programs. Regional campuses around Ohio include Lima, Mansfield, Marion, and Newark, and the Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI) in Wooster.

As a Big Ten and major research university, Ohio State attracts the best scholars, artists, and scientists to its campus. In 1999 alone, four faculty won Guggenheim fellowships, among a number of other prestigious national awards. In addition to their teaching, our faculty are confronting timely and important societal issues through their research in such areas as health care, education, technology, and the environment.

Ohio State also attracts some of the most impressive students in the United States and in the world. One of the best indicators of a university's quality is the caliber of its incoming class, and the quality of our most recent incoming freshman class is the best ever in terms of academic profile. More than 60 percent of the nearly 6,000 freshmen hailed from the top 25 percent of their high school class, and more than a quarter of the class came from the elite 10 percent. In 1999, Ohio State welcomed more than 1,300 Honors students, over 700 University Scholars, more than 100 National Merit Scholars, and over 200 class valedictorians. And our Honors programs give these students the opportunity to enhance their undergraduate experience through exceptional research opportunities and more than 180 Honors courses each year with classes of 25 or fewer students.

Our student to faculty ratio is 14:1, similar to what you might find at smaller schools. In fact, 88 percent of first-year classes at Ohio State have fewer than 50 students and only 5 percent have more than 100. Staff in hundreds of campus offices, such as the Office of Student Life, Minority Affairs, Disability Services, and the Center for the Study and Teaching of Writing, provide one-on-one assistance to our students. Outside of the classroom, the residence halls provide academic programs and support, including tutoring, study sessions, and quiet hours.

Few universities can compare to Ohio State when it comes to laboratories, libraries, and other educational centers. The Ohio State University Libraries comprise the largest library collection in Ohio and one of the largest academic collections in North America. The Ohio State University Medical Center was recently named-once again-as one of America's best by U.S. News & World Report. And the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute was named the top facility in Ohio for cancer care and one of the leading cancer centers in the country. Ohio State also houses the Byrd Polar Research Center and operates the Center for Lake Erie Area Research at Stone Laboratory, the oldest freshwater biological field station in the nation.

Along with the many historic and traditional buildings, there are hundreds of new facilities on the Ohio State campus, including the Younkin Success Center, which provides tutoring and support services to Ohio State students, and the Jerome Schottenstein Center, an arena for concerts and athletic events. One of the most impressive new developments on campus is the Fisher College of Business' minicampus, which features a state-of-the-art computer network, an investment laboratory, and a business library.

There is no such thing as a typical Ohio State student. Students come to Ohio State from all over the United States and from more than 100 countries around the world. At Ohio State, diversity and individuality are recognized and valued, and equality of opportunity is a basic commitment. One of Ohio State's key missions for the 21st century is to continue its commitment to a diverse campus environment and a community outreach philosophy of shared civic responsibility.

No other single campus can match the opportunities and resources available at Ohio State. Undergraduate students can choose from more than 170 major areas of study and nearly 10,500 available courses. And Ohio State also offers countless opportunities for exposure to a high profile guest list, with campus visits from well-known political leaders, lecturers, and top-name entertainers in the arts, music, and dance. The university offers hundreds of student activities and organizations, the largest intramural and recreational sports department in the country, the excitement of Big Ten athletics, opportunities for community involvement, and cultural events.

For 130 years, Ohio State has taken the lead in furthering research and education for the citizens of Columbus, the state of Ohio, and for the nation. The university's location in Ohio's capital city and its ties to government, business, and industry provide career, research, and internship opportunities for students. Ohio State's Science and Technology Campus-as well as the future Science Village-fosters collaborative research between the university and the business community. And Ohio State has a long and proud tradition of serving the needs of the state through the outstanding work of Ohio State University Extension. Ohio State also brings its people and facilities to the public through continuing education and noncredit programs, as well as through the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center (OARDC) in Wooster. University initiatives for the 21st century include K-12 education, state and regional economic development, health care delivery, and providing lifelong learning opportunities through distance learning and technological advances.

William E. Kirwan

William English "Brit" Kirwan, who became the 12th president of The Ohio State University in July 1998, is leading a charge to make the University one of the nation's top public teaching and research institutions.

A widely respected academic leader, Dr. Kirwan has identified four values that guide his presidency: pursuing academic excellence and attracting quality faculty; enhancing the student experience; making diversity an institutional reality; and expanding the university's outreach efforts to benefit the people of Ohio and beyond.

From these values have sprung initiatives to redefine land-grant universities for the 21st century. These include promoting partnerships with primary and secondary schools, leading redevelopment of urban areas near the campus, and spurring growth of the state's technology economy. Under his leadership, the University has completed a $1.1 billion capital campaign.

Dr. Kirwan previously served for nine years as president of the University of Maryland, College Park, and was a professor and administrator there for 34 years. He received his bachelor's degree in mathematics from the University of Kentucky and his master's and doctoral degrees in mathematics from Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, in 1962 and 1964. He is a member of several honorary and professional societies, including Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, the American Mathematical Society, and the Mathematical Association of America. A prolific scholar, he is co-editor of the book Advances in Complex Analysis and has published many articles on mathematical research. In 1999, he was appointed to the National Commission on Mathematics and Science Teaching for the 21st Century.

A national leader in higher education, Dr. Kirwan serves on the boards of directors of the American Council on Education and the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges. He serves in leadership roles as chair of the National Association of State and Land-Grant Universities' Commission on International Affairs and vice chair of its Commission on Human Resources and Social Change; as co-chair of the Business-Higher Education Forum Diversity Initiative Task Force; and as member of the National Commission on Mathematics and Science Teaching for the 21st Century.

In Ohio, Dr. Kirwan chairs the Inter-University Council and the Columbus Technology Leadership Council; co-chairs the Joint Council of the Ohio Department of Education and the Ohio Board of Regents, and the Governor's Commission for Student Success; and is a member of the Higher Education Council of Columbus. He serves on the boards of directors of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, as well as the Greater Columbus Chamber of Commerce and its Workforce Leadership Council. Dr. Kirwan also sits on the advisory committee of the Central Ohio United Negro College Fund, and boards of Children's Hospital, Columbus School for Girls, Columbus Symphony Orchestra, and United Way of Franklin County.

Kirwan leads one of the nation's largest and most distinguished universities dedicated to teaching, research and service.

As Ohio State's chief executive officer, Dr. Kirwan leads one of the nation's largest and most distinguished universities dedicated to teaching, research, and service. The university's Columbus campus includes medical, cancer, heart and lung, and veterinary hospitals; dental and optometry clinics; and specialized research centers. A land-grant university, Ohio State has 19 colleges, a graduate school, four regional campuses, and is home to a statewide agricultural research and cooperative extension system. As the state's flagship institution, it has 55,000 students, nearly 20,000 faculty and staff, an annual budget of $1.9 billion, and nearly 310,000 alumni around the world.

Dr. Kirwan is married to Patricia Harper Kirwan, also a graduate of the University of Kentucky and a classmate since seventh grade. They have two children, both University of Maryland alums: William E. Kirwan III and Ann Kirwan Horton; and two grandchildren, Kyle and Andrew.

Andy Geiger

Ohio State's seventh Athletics Director has taken the storied program to even greater heights.

Andy Geiger, one of college athletics most dynamic and respected leaders, is now in his seventh year at Ohio State. In his role as Assistant Vice President and Director of Athletics, he oversees a program that has 35 varsity sports, over 900 athletes and an annual operating budget of more than $68 million.

Upon accepting his current position, Geiger vowed to take Ohio State's already storied program to even greater heights. He has moved vigorously in that direction, infusing new excitement and energy into the Athletic Department with his enthusiasm and drive.

At the heart of Geiger's endeavors has been an ambitious campaign to update Ohio State's aging facilities. The first facet of that drive became a reality in the spring of 1997 when the 4,300-seat Bill Davis Baseball Stadium opened its gates.

The 19,10-seat Jerome Schottenstein Center, a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose facility, opened in the fall of 1998 and houses men's and women's basketball and ice hockey, as well as various other entertainment events. The renovation and expansion of Ohio Stadium, the fabled home of Buckeye football since 1922, is underway, and will be completed next fall. Additionally, the Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, home to the track, soccer and lacrosse teams, opened in the fall of 1999. A new Student Athlete Support Services facility, the Younkin Success Center opened its doors last spring.

The 61-year old Geiger has made a number of organizational changes within the Department. One of the first was to promote Archie Griffin to associate director and give the former two-time Heisman Trophy winner direct responsibility over 17 varsity sports including all facets of the football program. Geiger has bolstered the compliance, student-athlete support services and marketing staffs.

Additionally, Geiger has overseen the development of departmental values and a mission statement, crafted with great care and intended to guide Ohio State well into the twenty-first century.

Under Geiger, Ohio State has also added three new varsity sports - women's crew, lacrosse and ice hockey - at a time when most schools are dropping sports because of budget constraints.

A "hands-on" administrator, Geiger attends as many practices and games as his busy schedule will permit. He enjoys spending time with the athletes and coaches of all 35 sports and is a favorite of the athletes because of his genuine concern for their well being, both in the classroom and on the athletic field.

Geiger came to Ohio State from the University of Maryland, where he spent three years as the director of athletics. He also has served in that same capacity at Brown University, the University of Pennsylvania, and Stanford University.

A native of Syracuse, New York, Geiger graduated from Syracuse University in 1961 and was a member of the Crew as an undergraduate. He was a member, too, of the U.S. Squad that captured a Gold Medal in the 1961 Pan Am Games. Geiger calls those years some of the most meaningful of his life.

Geiger began his career in intercollegiate athletics in 1961 as the freshman rowing coach at Dartmouth College. He ventured into administration in 1964, returning to his alma mater as assistant athletics director. He left Syracuse in 1970 to become assistant commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

In 1971, at age 32, Geiger become athletics director at Brown University. He held that position until 1975, when he moved to the University of Pennsylvania in a similar capacity.

Geiger's next move was to Stanford. He began an extremely successful tenure there in 1979. During his 11-year stay at the Pac-10 school, the Cardinal won a total of 27 national championships and Stanford was considered one of the elite programs in intercollegiate athletics.

In 1990, Geiger left Stanford to take over a Maryland program that was on NCAA probation. When he left the Terrapins a little more than three years later, the athletic department was once again on solid ground.

Geiger was named as Ohio State's seventh director of athletics April 29, 1994. He officially took over May 16, 1994 and was named Assistant Vice President the following August.

Geiger, who was born March 23, 1939, and his wife, Eleanor, have two sons: Phillip, 13, and Gregory, 12. During their stay in Maryland, Eleanor, who is also a Syracuse graduate, worked as a research assistant in mathematics education and specialized in the development of a new curriculum for middle school mathematics. Since arriving in Columbus, she has become involved in several community projects, including serving on the Board of Directors of Opera Columbus. Geiger's hobbies include golf and all music, especially jazz. He lectures frequently on the history of jazz and is a member of the Columbus Jazz-Arts Board. He is the host for a two-hour weekly radio show called "Classic Jazz Masters." He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Columbus Jazz Arts Group, Easter Seals, the YMCA, and the Midland Company.
